SENATE BILL NO. 468

95TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Reported from the Committee on the Judiciary and Civil and Criminal Jurisprudence, March 11, 2009, with recommendation that the Senate Committee Substitute do pass and be placed on the Consent Calendar.

TERRY L. SPIELER, Secretary.

AN ACT

To repeal sections 455.038 and 455.040, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to ex parte orders of protection.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 455.038 and 455.040, RSMo, are repealed and two 2 new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 455.038 and 3 455.040, to read as follows:

455.038. Every circuit clerk shall be responsible for providing information to individuals petitioning for ex parte orders of protection regarding notification $\mathbf{2}$ of service of these orders of protection. Such notification to the petitioner is 3 required if the petitioner has registered a telephone number with the victim 4 notification system, established under subsection 3 of section 650.310, $\mathbf{5}$ RSMo. The petitioner shall be informed of his or her option to receive notification 6 of service of an exparte order of protection on the respondent by the circuit clerk 7 8 and shall be provided information on how to receive notification of service of ex parte orders of protection. The local law enforcement agency or any other 9 10 government agency responsible for serving ex parte orders of protection shall enter service information into the Missouri Uniform Law Enforcement 11 system or future secure electronic databases that are intended for law 12enforcement use only within twenty-four hours after the ex parte order 13is served on the respondent or shall notify the circuit clerk when no more 14service attempts are planned by that agency. The provisions of this section shall 15only apply to those circuit clerks able to access a statewide victim notification 16 system designed to provide notification of service of orders of protection. 17

455.040. 1. Not later than fifteen days after the filing of a petition $\mathbf{2}$ pursuant to sections 455.010 to 455.085 a hearing shall be held unless the court deems, for good cause shown, that a continuance should be granted. At the 3 4 hearing, if the petitioner has proved the allegation of abuse or stalking by a preponderance of the evidence, the court shall issue a full order of protection for 56 a period of time the court deems appropriate, except that the protective order 7 shall be valid for at least one hundred eighty days and not more than one 8 year. Upon motion by the petitioner, and after a hearing by the court, the full 9 order of protection may be renewed for a period of time the court deems appropriate, except that the protective order shall be valid for at least one 10 hundred eighty days and not more than one year from the expiration date of the 11 originally issued full order of protection. If for good cause a hearing cannot be 12held on the motion to renew the full order of protection prior to the expiration 13date of the originally issued full order of protection, an ex parte order of 14protection may be issued until a hearing is held on the motion. Upon motion by 15the petitioner, and after a hearing by the court, the second full order of protection 16may be renewed for an additional period of time the court deems appropriate, 17except that the protective order shall be valid for at least one hundred eighty 18days and not more than one year. For purposes of this subsection, a finding by 1920the court of a subsequent act of abuse is not required for a renewal order of 21protection.

222. The court shall cause a copy of the petition and notice of the date set 23for the hearing on such petition and any exparte order of protection to be served upon the respondent as provided by law or by any sheriff or police officer at least 24three days prior to such hearing. Such notice shall be served at the earliest time, 25and service of such notice shall take priority over service in other actions, except 26those of a similar emergency nature. The court shall cause a copy of any full 27order of protection to be served upon or mailed by certified mail to the respondent 2829at the respondent's last known address. Failure to serve or mail a copy of the full 30order of protection to the respondent shall not affect the validity or enforceability of a full order of protection. 31

32 3. A copy of any order of protection granted pursuant to sections 455.010 33 to 455.085 shall be issued to the petitioner and to the local law enforcement 34 agency in the jurisdiction where the petitioner resides. The clerk shall also issue 35 a copy of any order of protection to the local law enforcement agency responsible 36 for maintaining the Missouri uniform law enforcement system or any other
