Senator Rupp Announces Senate Confirmation of Citizen to Missouri Family Trust Board

JEFFERSON CITY – Missouri Sen. Scott T. Rupp (R-Wentzville) is pleased to announce the addition of Donald Yarber, as a member of the Missouri Public Entity Risk Management Board of Trustees.

The Missouri Public Entity Risk Management Fund operates a shared risk pool for public entities offering coverage plans which are reliable alternatives to traditional insurance policies.

In 2005, Yarber was elected as the Mayor of Cottleville, a city in St. Charles County, and was re-elected in 2009. A retired locomotive engineer, he also owns and operates a wine and gift shop and is actively involved in the redevelopment of Old Town Cottleville.

“Mr. Yarber is a dedicated public servant with a keen eye for smart economic decisions,” said Sen. Rupp. “Missouri is fortunate to have him as a trustee on this important board.”

A list of all the governor’s boards and commissions can be found online at www.governor.mo.gov/boards.
