Senator Keaveny Announces Review Committee Appointment

JEFFERSON CITY – Missouri Sen. Joe Keaveny (D-St. Louis) is pleased to announce the Senate’s confirmation of Pamela Ross as a member of the Linked Deposits Review Committee.

The Linked Deposits Review Committee examines all matters relating to Linked Deposit Programs in Missouri, including the program’s administration, operation and effectiveness. Ross is a banker at People’s National Bank in St. Louis.

“As a banker, Ms. Ross will bring her professional experience to this committee, which partners with financial institutions across the state to provide low-interest loans that create jobs,” said Sen. Keaveny. “She understands the importance of this committee’s work for the entire state.”
