Sen. Frank Barnitz Announces Educational Opportunity for Displaced Workers

JEFFERSON CITY – Sen. Frank Barnitz, D-Lake Spring, today announced that Linn State Technical College is offering an Accelerated Welding Skills course for 17 displaced workers in the area. Funding was made available to allow laid-off workers to take this course to pursue new job opportunities free of charge.

Remaining positions in the class need to be filled by January 26th. Qualifying participants have been laid off and are eligible to receive unemployment benefits. All tuition and fees are provided as a part of the program. Those interested should contact the Business and Industry Relations Department at Linn State Technical College by calling 573-897-5238.

“Being out of work is a situation too many Missourians are facing,” said Sen. Barnitz. “This is a promising opportunity for displaced workers to learn a new skill and pursue a promising career.”
