Rolla Home School Students Visit State Capitol

JEFFERSON CITY – Senator Frank Barnitz, D-Lake Spring, recently commended a group of home school students from Rolla for taking interest in their state government. The group made the trip to Jefferson City for a visit on October 26th.

The group of students and their parents took a tour of the Capitol, Governor's mansion, and Senate Chamber. They also viewed Sen. Barnitz's office and visited the Whispering Gallery on their way to the top of the dome of the Capitol building.

Those visiting included parents Denise Larsen, Sheila Roylance, Heydi Mosher, Emily Wood, and Serenity Reeser. Students on the trip included Susannah Roylance, Shannon Roylance, Jorin Larsen, Jantzen Larsen, Joshua Mosher, Maddison Mosher, Maddison Mosher, Mariah Mosher, Jarrett Mosher, Mikelle Mosher, Josh Wood, Jack Wood, Sam Wood, Frank Wood, Juliet Kofoed, Summer Kofoed, Brenton Reeser, Serena Reeser, Alanna Reeser, and Dallin Reeser.
