Senator Mayer Selected As Recipient of Prestigious Legislative Spirit of Enterprise Award

JEFFERSON CITY – For his effort to protect and preserve the free-enterprise system in Missouri, the Missouri Chamber of Commerce and Industry recently awarded Sen. Rob Mayer (R-Dexter) the Legislative Spirit of Enterprise Award.

“I am extremely honored that the Missouri Chamber of Commerce and Industry has selected me for this award,” said Sen. Mayer. “The protection of Missouri jobs will always be one of my top priorities, especially during the rough economic climate our state is currently weathering.”

The Missouri Chamber of Commerce and Industry will acknowledge Sen. Mayer at the Missouri Chamber 2010 Annual Meeting and Awards Banquet on Nov. 18 at the Chase Park Plaza Hotel in St. Louis. Senator Mayer will also be featured in Missouri Business, an annual magazine published by the Missouri Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

First called “The Missouri Association for A Greater Missouri,” the Missouri Chamber of Commerce and Industry is the largest statewide employer organization in Missouri, caring for and protecting businesses across the state. The Chamber was founded in order to achieve goals of, “...promoting loyalty to the state of Missouri and confidence in its resources to foster civic and state pride and to inspire patriotic ideals.”

For more information on the Missouri Chamber of Commerce and Industry or to learn more about the award, please contact Daniel P. Mehan at (573) 634-3511.
