Senator Jason Crowell Welcomes 4-H Job Shadow to Capitol

JEFFERSON CITY — Senator Jason Crowell, R-Cape Girardeau, recently welcomed Kelly Jahn, a Jackson High School senior, to the Capitol as a job shadow. Kelly came to the Capitol to participate in 4-H's annual Legislative Academy program.

"I enjoyed having Kelly here, and I hope she was able to learn a lot about a typical day in the Missouri Senate," said Sen. Crowell. "One of my favorite roles as a legislator is to talk with students, and it is always encouraging to see students interested in state government."

The 4-H Legislative academy was held on February 15-17. The program serves as an opportunity for 4-H youth leaders to strengthened relationships between Missouri 4-H and lawmakers, as well as allowing youth participants to acquire skills in legislative advocacy.
