

Website

Contact

Biography

News

April 19, 2010

Fully Funding Education Through Better State Spending

This week, the Missouri Senate debated the state budget for fiscal year 2011. In my opinion, even in less than ideal economic times, our children should never shoulder the burden of tough budget decisions through cuts to their education. This is why I have proposed reforms that would provide Missouri the necessary resources to ensure that our children are able to access a world class educational opportunity.

In my continuing video series on keeping your state government spending accountable to you, I outline these proposed reforms, which would allow Missouri to continue to invest in our children by fully funding education. You can view the video by clicking on the video box in this report or you can also visit www.senate.mo.gov/crowell and click on the tax credit information link. This Web site also provides you with more information on the Governor's budget as well as up-to-date information during the legislative session on how government is spending your hard earned tax dollars.

Click above to view Sen. Crowell's Jobs Plan video

Thanks for watching and let me know what you think.

Contact Me

As always, I appreciate hearing your comments, opinions, and concerns. Please feel free to contact me in Jefferson City at (573) 751-2459. You may write to me at Jason Crowell; Missouri Senate; State Capitol; Jefferson City, MO 65101, or email me at: jcrowell@senate.mo.gov or visit me on the web at <http://www.senate.mo.gov/crowell>.

SUBSCRIBE | UNSUBSCRIBE