TERRY L. SPIELER, Secretary.

AN ACT

To repeal section 452.340, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to child support.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 452.340, RSMo, is repealed and one new section 2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 452.340, to read as follows:

452.340. 1. In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation 2 or child support, the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of 3 support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for 4 the support of the child, including an award retroactive to the date of filing the 5 petition, without regard to marital misconduct, after considering all relevant 6 factors including:

7 (1) The financial needs and resources of the child;

8 (2) The financial resources and needs of the parents;

9 (3) The standard of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage 10 not been dissolved;

11 (4) The physical and emotional condition of the child, and the child's 12 educational needs;

13 (5) The child's physical and legal custody arrangements, including the 14 amount of time the child spends with each parent and the reasonable expenses 15 associated with the custody or visitation arrangements; and 16 (6) The reasonable work-related child care expenses of each parent.

17 2. The obligation of the parent ordered to make support payments shall 18 abate, in whole or in part, for such periods of time in excess of thirty consecutive 19 days that the other parent has voluntarily relinquished physical custody of a

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

20 child to the parent ordered to pay child support, notwithstanding any periods of 21 visitation or temporary physical and legal or physical or legal custody pursuant 22 to a judgment of dissolution or legal separation or any modification thereof. In 23 a IV-D case, the family support division may determine the amount of the 24 abatement pursuant to this subsection for any child support order and shall 25 record the amount of abatement in the automated child support system record 26 established pursuant to chapter 454, RSMo. If the case is not a IV-D case and 27 upon court order, the circuit clerk shall record the amount of abatement in the 28 automated child support system record established in chapter 454, RSMo.

29 3. Unless the circumstances of the child manifestly dictate otherwise and 30 the court specifically so provides, the obligation of a parent to make child support 31 payments shall terminate when the child:

32 (1) Dies;

33 (2) Marries;

34 (3) Enters active duty in the military;

35 (4) Becomes self-supporting, provided that the custodial parent has 36 relinquished the child from parental control by express or implied consent;

37 (5) Reaches age eighteen, unless the provisions of subsection 4 or 5 of this 38 section apply; or

39 (6) Reaches age twenty-one, unless the provisions of the child support 40 order specifically extend the parental support order past the child's twenty-first 41 birthday for reasons provided by subsection 4 of this section.

42 4. If the child is physically or mentally incapacitated from supporting 43 himself and insolvent and unmarried, the court may extend the parental support 44 obligation past the child's eighteenth birthday.

45 5. If when a child reaches age eighteen, the child is enrolled in and 46 attending a secondary school program of instruction, the parental support 47 obligation shall continue, if the child continues to attend and progresses toward 48 completion of said program, until the child completes such program or reaches 49 age twenty-one, whichever first occurs. If the child is enrolled in an institution 50 of vocational or higher education not later than October first following graduation 51 from a secondary school or completion of a graduation equivalence degree 52 program and so long as the child enrolls for and completes at least twelve hours 53 of credit each semester, not including the summer semester, at an institution of 54 vocational or higher education and achieves grades sufficient to reenroll at such 55 institution, the parental support obligation shall continue until the child

56 completes his or her education, or until the child reaches the age of twenty-one, 57 whichever first occurs. To remain eligible for such continued parental support, 58 at the beginning of each semester the child shall submit to each parent a 59 transcript or similar official document provided by the institution of vocational 60 or higher education which includes the courses the child is enrolled in and has 61 completed for each term, the grades and credits received for each such course, and 62 an official document from the institution listing the courses which the child is 63 enrolled in for the upcoming term and the number of credits for each such 64 course. When enrolled in at least twelve credit hours, if the child receives failing 65 grades in half or more of his or her courseload in any one semester, payment of 66 child support may be terminated and shall not be eligible for 67 reinstatement. Upon request for notification of the child's grades by the 68 noncustodial parent, the child shall produce the required documents to the 69 noncustodial parent within thirty days of receipt of grades from the education 70 institution. If the child fails to produce the required documents, payment of child 71 support may terminate without the accrual of any child support arrearage and 72 shall not be eligible for reinstatement. If the circumstances of the child 73 manifestly dictate, the court may waive the October first deadline for enrollment 74 required by this subsection. If the child is enrolled in such an institution, the 75 child or parent obligated to pay support may petition the court to amend the 76 order to direct the obligated parent to make the payments directly to the child.
77 As used in this section, an "institution of vocational education" means any 78 postsecondary training or schooling for which the student is assessed a fee and 79 attends classes regularly. "Higher education" means any community college, 80 college, or university at which the child attends classes regularly. A child who 81 has been diagnosed with a developmental disability, as defined in section 630.005, 82 RSMo, or whose physical disability or diagnosed health problem limits the child's 83 ability to carry the number of credit hours prescribed in this subsection, shall 84 remain eligible for child support so long as such child is enrolled in and attending 85 an institution of vocational or higher education, and the child continues to meet 86 the other requirements of this subsection. A child who is employed at least 87 fifteen hours per week during the semester may take as few as nine credit hours 88 per semester and remain eligible for child support so long as all other 89 requirements of this subsection are complied with.

90           6. The court shall consider ordering a parent to waive the right to claim 91 the tax dependency exemption for a child enrolled in an institution of vocational 92 or higher education in favor of the other parent if the application of state and 93 federal tax laws and eligibility for financial aid will make an award of the 94 exemption to the other parent appropriate.

95           7. The general assembly finds and declares that it is the public policy of 96 this state that frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents 97 after the parents have separated or dissolved their marriage is in the best 98 interest of the child except for cases where the court specifically finds that such 99 contact is not in the best interest of the child. In order to effectuate this public 100 policy, a court with jurisdiction shall enforce visitation, custody and child support 101 orders in the same manner. A court with jurisdiction may abate, in whole or in 102 part, any past or future obligation of support and may transfer the physical and 103 legal or physical or legal custody of one or more children if it finds that a parent 104 has, without good cause, failed to provide visitation or physical and legal or 105 physical or legal custody to the other parent pursuant to the terms of a judgment 106 of dissolution, legal separation or modifications thereof. The court shall also 107 award, if requested and for good cause shown, reasonable expenses, attorney's 108 fees and court costs incurred by the prevailing party.

109           8. The Missouri supreme court shall have in effect a rule establishing 110 guidelines by which any award of child support shall be made in any judicial or 111 administrative proceeding. Said guidelines shall contain specific, descriptive and 112 numeric criteria which will result in a computation of the support 113 obligation. The guidelines shall require documentation to verify the 114 income of the parties for the initial order of support and for any 115 modification of such order. Such documentation may include, but not 116 be limited to, current wage stubs, a current W-2 form, statements from 117 the party's employer, a wage match with the division of employment 118 security, and bank statements. The guidelines shall address how the amount 119 of child support shall be calculated when an award of joint physical custody 120 results in the child or children spending substantially equal time with both 121 parents and as specified in subdivision (2) of subsection 11 of this 122 section. The Missouri supreme court shall publish child support guidelines and 123 specifically list and explain the relevant factors and assumptions that were used 124 to calculate the child support guidelines. Any rule made pursuant to this 125 subsection shall be reviewed by the promulgating body not less than once every 126 four years to ensure that its application results in the determination of 127 appropriate child support award amounts.

128           9. There shall be a rebuttable presumption, in any judicial or 129 administrative proceeding for the award of child support, that the amount of the 130 award which would result from the application of the guidelines established 131 pursuant to subsection 8 of this section is the correct amount of child support to 132 be awarded. A written finding or specific finding on the record in a judicial or 133 administrative proceeding that the application of the guidelines would be unjust 134 or inappropriate in a particular case, after considering all relevant factors, 135 including the factors set out in subsection 1 of this section, is required if 136 requested by a party and shall be sufficient to rebut the presumption in the 137 case. The written finding or specific finding on the record shall detail the specific 138 relevant factors that required a deviation from the application of the guidelines.

139           10. Pursuant to this or any other chapter, when a court determines the 140 amount owed by a parent for support provided to a child by another person, other 141 than a parent, prior to the date of filing of a petition requesting support, or when 142 the director of the family support division establishes the amount of state debt 143 due pursuant to subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 454.465, RSMo, the 144 court or director shall use the guidelines established pursuant to subsection 8 of 145 this section. The amount of child support resulting from the application of the 146 guidelines shall be applied retroactively for a period prior to the establishment 147 of a support order and the length of the period of retroactivity shall be left to the 148 discretion of the court or director. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that 149 the amount resulting from application of the guidelines under subsection 8 of this 150 section constitutes the amount owed by the parent for the period prior to the date 151 of the filing of the petition for support or the period for which state debt is being 152 established. In applying the guidelines to determine a retroactive support 153 amount, when information as to average monthly income is available, the court 154 or director may use the average monthly income of the noncustodial parent, as 155 averaged over the period of retroactivity, in determining the amount of presumed 156 child support owed for the period of retroactivity. The court or director may enter 157 a different amount in a particular case upon finding, after consideration of all 158 relevant factors, including the factors set out in subsection 1 of this section, that 159 there is sufficient cause to rebut the presumed amount.

160           11. (1) Notwithstanding subsection 1 of this section, no child 161 support shall be awarded in instances:

162           (a) Where both parents sign an agreement requesting the court 163 not to award child support and to award them joint physical custody

164 resulting in the child or children spending equal or substantially equal 165 time with both parents;

166 (b) The difference in the verified incomes of the parents is less 167 than twenty-five percent; and

168 (c) A finding has been made that such custody and award of no 169 child support is in the best interest of the child.

170 (2) When parents do not agree on an award of no child support 171 but meet all of the other requirements under subdivision (1) of this 172 subsection, the court shall award child support in an amount that 173 provides up to a fifty percent adjustment below the basic child support 174 amount authorized by the child support guidelines described under 175 subsection 8 of this section for custody awards of children spending 176 equal or substantially equal time with both parents. The Missouri 177 supreme court shall amend the child support guidelines, commonly 178 referred to as "Form 14", to reflect the ability to obtain up to a fifty 179 percent adjustment for joint custody in accordance with this section.

180 12. The obligation of a parent to make child support payments may be 181 terminated as follows:

182 (1) Provided that the child support order contains the child's date of birth, 183 the obligation shall be deemed terminated without further judicial or 184 administrative process when the child reaches age twenty-one if the child support 185 order does not specifically require payment of child support beyond age 186 twenty-one for reasons provided by subsection 4 of this section;

187 (2) The obligation shall be deemed terminated without further judicial or 188 administrative process when the parent receiving child support furnishes a sworn 189 statement or affidavit notifying the obligor parent of the child's emancipation in 190 accordance with the requirements of subsection 4 of section 452.370, and a copy 191 of such sworn statement or affidavit is filed with the court which entered the 192 order establishing the child support obligation, or the division of child support 193 enforcement;

194 (3) The obligation shall be deemed terminated without further judicial or 195 administrative process when the parent paying child support files a sworn 196 statement or affidavit with the court which entered the order establishing the 197 child support obligation, or the family support division, stating that the child is 198 emancipated and reciting the factual basis for such statement; which statement 199 or affidavit is served by the court or division on the child support obligee; and 200 which is either acknowledged and affirmed by the child support obligee in 201 writing, or which is not responded to in writing within thirty days of receipt by 202 the child support obligee;

203 (4) The obligation shall be terminated as provided by this subdivision by 204 the court which entered the order establishing the child support obligation, or the 205 family support division, when the parent paying child support files a sworn 206 statement or affidavit with the court which entered the order establishing the 207 child support obligation, or the family support division, stating that the child is 208 emancipated and reciting the factual basis for such statement; and which 209 statement or affidavit is served by the court or division on the child support 210 obligee. If the obligee denies the statement or affidavit, the court or division 211 shall thereupon treat the sworn statement or affidavit as a motion to modify the 212 support obligation pursuant to section 452.370 or section 454.496, RSMo, and 213 shall proceed to hear and adjudicate such motion as provided by law; provided 214 that the court may require the payment of a deposit as security for court costs 215 and any accrued court costs, as provided by law, in relation to such motion to 216 modify.

217 [12.] 13. The court may enter a judgment terminating child support 218 pursuant to subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection [11] 12 of this section without 219 necessity of a court appearance by either party. The clerk of the court shall mail 220 a copy of a judgment terminating child support entered pursuant to subsection 221 [11] 12 of this section on both the obligor and obligee parents. The supreme 222 court may promulgate uniform forms for sworn statements and affidavits to 223 terminate orders of child support obligations for use pursuant to subsection [11] 224 12 of this section and subsection 4 of section 452.370.
