50 siblings, children, or dependant relative of the person whether or not living in the 51 same household.

52 4. Members of the commission shall hold office for a term of four years.
53 No person may be appointed to the commission more than once. No member of 74 thereafter, review and study the relationship of compensation to the duties of all 75 elected state officials, all members of the general assembly, and all judges, except

86 majority vote of the general assembly in order to be approved. Each 87 schedule shall be published by the secretary of state as a part of the session laws 88 of the general assembly and may also be published as a separate publication at 89 the discretion of the secretary of state. The schedule shall also be published by 90 the revisor of statutes as a part of the revised statutes of Missouri. The schedule
91 shall apply and represent the compensation for each affected person beginning 92 on the first day of July following the filing of the schedule. In addition to any 93 compensation established by the schedule, the general assembly may provide by 94 appropriation for periodic uniform general cost-of-living increases or decreases for 95 all employees of the state of Missouri and such cost-of-living increases or 96 decreases may also be extended to those persons affected by the compensation
97 schedule fixed by the commission. No cost-of-living increase or decrease granted
98 to any person affected by the schedule shall exceed the uniform general increase 99 or decrease provided for all other state employees by the general assembly.

100 9. Prior to the filing of any compensation schedule, the commission shall 101 hold no less than four public hearings on such schedule, at different geographical 103 filing of the schedule. All meetings, actions, hearings, and business of the 104 commission shall be open to the public, and all records of the commission shall 105 be available for public inspection.

106 10. Until the first day of July next after the filing of the first schedule by 108 in effect on the effective date of this amendment.

109 11. Schedules filed by the commission shall be subject to referendum upon 110 petition of the voters of this state in the same manner and under the same 111 conditions as a bill enacted by the general assembly.

112 12. Beginning January 1, 2007, any public official subject to this provision
