Book 4, Page 38 - The Division of Youth Services (DYS) generates School Improvement Funds from Average Daily Attendance (ADA) Reimbursements from the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, as well as Bill Back payments from local school districts as the local portion of education funding for youth being educated by the DYS. These funds are available for the specific purpose of funding core educational functions and improvements to the DYS educational system. DYS requests one time investments to develop an education platform, virtual learning academy, computer labs, a and WorkKeys career program. This request also includes updated furnishings for educational classrooms.
