AN ACT

To repeal section 162.069, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to communications between school district employees and students.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 162.069, RSMo, is repealed and one new section
2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 162.069, to read as follows:

162.069. 1. Every school district shall, by [January] March 1, 2012,
2 promulgate a written policy concerning [teacher-student communication and]
3 employee-student communication. Such policy shall [contain at least the 4 following elements:

5 (1) Appropriate oral and nonverbal personal communication, which may 6 be combined with or included in any policy on sexual harassment; and

7 (2) Appropriate use of electronic media such as text messaging and 8 internet sites for both instructional and personal purposes, with an element 9 concerning use of social networking sites no less stringent than the provisions of 10 subsections 2, 3, and 4 of this section] include, but not be limited to, the use
11 of electronic media and other mechanisms to prevent improper
12 communications between staff members and students.

13 2. [As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

14 (1) "Exclusive access", the information on the website is available only to 15 the owner (teacher) and user (student) by mutual explicit consent and where third

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

16 parties have no access to the information on the website absent an explicit 17 consent agreement with the owner (teacher);

18 (2) "Former student", any person who was at one time a student at the 19 school at which the teacher is employed and who is eighteen years of age or less
20 and who has not graduated;

21 (3) "Nonwork-related internet site", any internet website or web page used
22 by a teacher primarily for personal purposes and not for educational purposes;

23 (4) "Work-related internet site", any internet website or web pages used
24 by a teacher for educational purposes.

25 3. No teacher shall establish, maintain, or use a work-related internet site 26 unless such site is available to school administrators and the child's legal 27 custodian, physical custodian, or legal guardian.

28 4. No teacher shall establish, maintain, or use a nonwork-related internet 29 site which allows exclusive access with a current or former student. Nothing in 30 this subsection shall be construed as prohibiting a teacher from establishing a 31 nonwork- related internet site, provided the site is used in accordance with this 32 section.

33 5.] Every school district shall, by July 1, 2012, include in its teacher and 34 employee training a component that provides up-to-date and reliable information 35 on identifying signs of sexual abuse in children and danger signals of potentially 36 abusive relationships between children and adults. The training shall emphasize 37 the importance of mandatory reporting of abuse under section 210.115 including 38 the obligation of mandated reporters to report suspected abuse by other mandated 39 reporters, and how to establish an atmosphere of trust so that students feel their 40 school has concerned adults with whom they feel comfortable discussing matters 41 related to abuse.
