TERRY L. SPIELER, Secretary.

AN ACT

To repeal section 116.332, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the initiative and referendum process.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 116.332, RSMo, is repealed and one new section 2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 116.332, to read as follows:

116.332. 1. Before a constitutional amendment petition, a statutory

2 initiative petition, or a referendum petition may be circulated for signatures, a

3 sample sheet must be submitted to the secretary of state in the form in which it

4 will be circulated. When a person submits a sample sheet of a petition he or she

5 shall designate to the secretary of state the name and address of the person to whom any notices shall be sent pursuant to sections 116.140 and 116.180. The secretary of state shall refer a copy of the petition sheet to the attorney general

8 for his approval and to the state auditor for purposes of preparing a fiscal note

 $9\,\,$ and fiscal note summary. The secretary of state and attorney general must each

10 review the petition for sufficiency as to form and approve or reject the form of the 11 petition, stating the reasons for rejection, if any.

12 2. Within two days of receipt of any such petition, the secretary

13 of state shall conspicuously post the petition on its website with the full text of the proposed measure, a disclaimer stating that such text may onot constitute the full and correct text as required by section 116.050,

16 and the name of the individual or organization submitting the petition. The secretary of state's failure to comply with this section 18 shall be considered a violation under subsection 3 of section 610.027.

3. Upon receipt of a petition from the office of the secretary of state, the attorney general shall examine the petition as to form. If the petition is rejected as to form, the attorney general shall forward his or her comments to the secretary of state within ten days after receipt of the petition by the attorney general. If the petition is approved as to form, the attorney general shall forward his or her approval as to form to the secretary of state within ten days after receipt of the petition by the attorney general.

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

[3.] 4. The secretary of state shall review the comments and statements of the attorney general as to form and make a final decision as to the approval or rejection of the form of the petition. The secretary of state shall send written notice to the person who submitted the petition sheet of the approval within thirty days after submission of the petition sheet. The secretary of state shall send written notice if the petition has been rejected, together with reasons for rejection, within thirty days after submission of the petition sheet.
