- 14 Parcels of Land Encumbered with Delinquent Tax Liens
- Defendants.
- 3. The petition shall conclude with a prayer that all tax liens upon such 16 real estate be foreclosed; that the court determine the amounts and priorities of 17 all tax bills, together with interest, penalties, costs, and attorney's fees; that the 18 court order such real estate to be sold by the sheriff at public sale as provided by 19 sections 141.210 to 141.810 and sections 141.980 to 141.1015 and that 20 thereafter a report of such sale be made by the sheriff to the court for further 21proceedings under sections 141.210 to 141.810 and sections 141.980 to 22 141.1015. 23
  - 4. The delinquent land tax attorney within ten days after the filing of any such petition, shall forward by United States registered mail to each person or taxing authority having filed a list of delinquent tax bills with the collector as provided by sections 141.210 to 141.810 and sections 141.980 to 141.1015 a notice of the time and place of the filing of such petition and of the newspaper in which the notice of publication has been or will be published.
- 5. The petition when so filed shall have the same force and effect with respect to each parcel of real estate therein described, as a separate suit instituted to foreclose the tax lien or liens against any one of said parcels of real estate.
- 141.480. 1. Upon the trial of the cause upon the question of foreclosure, the tax bill, whether general or special, issued by any taxing authority shall be prima facie proof that the tax described in the tax bill has been validly assessed at the time indicated by the tax bill and that the tax is unpaid. Absent any answer the court shall take the allegations of the petition as confessed. Any person alleging any jurisdictional defect or invalidity in the tax bill or in the sale thereof must particularly specify in his answer the defect or basis of invalidity, and must, upon trial, affirmatively establish such defense.
  - 2. Prior to formal hearing, the court may conduct an informal hearing for

10 the purpose of clarifying issues, and shall attempt to reach an agreement with the 11 parties upon a stipulated statement of facts. The court shall hear the evidence offered by the collector or relator as the case may be, and by all answering 12 13 parties, and shall determine the amount of each and every tax bill proved by the collector or any answering party, together with the amount of interest, penalties, 14 15 attorney's fees and costs accruing upon each tax bill and the date from which interest began to accrue upon each tax bill and the rate thereof. The court shall 16 17 hear evidence and determine every issue of law and of fact necessary to a 18 complete adjudication of all tax liens asserted by any and every pleading, and may also hear evidence and determine any other issue of law or fact affecting any 19 20 other right, title, or interest in or to, or lien upon, such real estate, sought to be enforced by any party to the proceeding against any other party to the proceeding 2122 who has been served by process or publication as authorized by law, or who has 23 voluntarily appeared, and shall determine the order and priority of the liens and of any other rights or interest put in issue by the pleadings. 24

3. After the court has first determined the validity of the tax liens of all tax bills affecting parcels of real estate described in the petition, the priorities of the respective tax bills and the amounts due thereon, including principal, interest, penalties, attorney's fees, and costs, the court shall thereupon enter judgment of foreclosure of such liens and fix the time and place of the foreclosure sale. The petition shall be dismissed as to any parcel of real estate redeemed prior to the time fixed for the sheriff's foreclosure sale as provided in sections 141.210 to 141.810 and sections 141.980 to 141.1015. If the parcel of real estate auctioned off at sheriff's foreclosure sale is sold for a sum sufficient to fully pay the principal amount of all tax bills included in the judgment, together with interest, penalties, attorney's fees and costs, and for no more, and such sale is confirmed by the court, then all other proceedings as to such parcels of real estate shall be finally dismissed as to all parties and interests other than tax bill owners or holders; provided, however, that any parties seeking relief other than an interest in or lien upon the real estate may continue with said suit to a final adjudication of such other issues; provided, further, an appeal may be had as to any claim attacking the validity of the tax bill or bills or the priorities as to payment of proceeds of foreclosure sale. If the parcel of real estate auctioned off at sheriff's foreclosure sale is sold for a sum greater than the total amount necessary to pay the principal amount of all tax bills included in the judgment, together with interest, penalties, attorney's fees and costs, and such sale is

46 confirmed by the court, and no appeal is taken by any person claiming any right, 47 title or interest in or to or lien upon said parcel of real estate or by any person or taxing authority owning or holding or claiming any right, title or interest in 48 49 or to any tax bills within the time fixed by law for the filing of notice of appeal, the court shall thereupon order the sheriff to make distribution to the owners or 50 51 holders of the respective tax bills included in the judgment of the amounts found 52 to be due and in the order of priorities. Thereafter all proceedings in the suit 53 shall be ordered by the court to be dismissed as to such persons or taxing 54 authorities owning, holding or claiming any right, title, or interest in any such tax bill or bills so paid, and the case shall proceed as to any parties claiming any 55 right, title, or interest in or lien upon the parcel of real estate affected by such 56 tax bill or bills as to their respective claims to such surplus funds then remaining 57 in the hands of the sheriff. 58

4. Whenever an answer is filed to the petition, as herein provided, a severance of the action as to all parcels of real estate affected by such answer shall be granted, and the issues raised by the petition and such answer shall be tried separate and apart from the other issues in the suit, but the granting of such severance shall not delay the trial or other disposition of any other issue in the case. A separate appeal may be taken from any action of the court affecting any right, title, or interest in or to, or lien upon, such real estate, other than issues of law and fact affecting the amount or validity of the lien of tax bills, but the proceeding to foreclose the lien of any tax bills shall not be stayed by such appeal. The trial shall be conducted by the court without the aid of a jury and the suit shall be in equity. This action shall take precedence over and shall be triable before any other action in equity affecting the title to such real estate, upon motion of any interested party.

141.530. 1. Except as otherwise provided in section 141.520, during such waiting period and at any time prior to the time of foreclosure sale by the sheriff, any interested party may redeem any parcel of real estate as provided by this chapter. During such waiting period and at any time prior to the time of foreclosure sale by the sheriff, the collector may, at the option of the party entitled to redeem, enter into a written redemption contract with any such party interested in any parcel of real estate, providing for payment in installments, monthly or bimonthly, of the delinquent tax bills, including interest, penalties, attorney's fees and costs charged against such parcel of real estate, provided, however, that in no instance shall such installments exceed twelve in number or

- 2. So long as such installments be paid according to the terms of the contract, the said six months waiting period shall be extended, but if any installment be not paid when due, the extension of said waiting period shall be ended without notice, and the real estate shall forthwith be advertised for sale or included in the next notice of sheriff's foreclosure sale.
- [3. No redemption contracts may be used under this section for residential property which has been vacant for at least six months in any municipality contained wholly or partially within a county with a population of over six hundred thousand and less than nine hundred thousand.]

[141.530. 1. During such waiting period and at any time prior to the time of foreclosure sale by the sheriff, the collector may, at the option of the party entitled to redeem, enter into a written redemption contract with any such party interested in any parcel of real estate, other than a residential property which has been vacant for at least six months, providing for payment in installments, monthly or bimonthly, of the delinquent tax bills, including interest, penalties, attorney's fees and costs charged against such parcel of real estate, provided, however, that in no instance shall such installments exceed twelve in number or extend more than twenty-four months next after any agreement for such installment payments have been entered into; provided further, that upon good cause being shown by the owner of any parcel of

  - (1) The sale shall be held on the day for which it is advertised, between the hours of nine o'clock a.m. and five o'clock p.m. and continued day to day thereafter to satisfy the judgment as to each respective parcel of real estate sold;
  - (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 of section 141.984, the sale shall be conducted publicly, by auction, for ready money.   - 3. [The land trustees shall pay any penalties, attorney's fees or costs included in the judgment of foreclosure of such parcel of real estate, when such parcel is sold or otherwise disposed of by the land trustees, as herein provided. any right, title, interest, claim, or equity of redemption in or to, or lien upon, such 19 20 lands, shall be barred and forever foreclosed of all such right, title, interest, claim, lien or equity of redemption, and the court shall order immediate 2122possession of such real estate be given to such purchaser; provided, however, that such title shall also be subject to the liens of any tax bills which may have 2324attached to such parcel of real estate prior to the time of the filing of the petition affecting such parcel of real estate not then delinquent, or which may have 2526 attached after the filing of the petition and prior to sheriff's sale and not included 27 in any answer to such petition, but if such parcel of real estate is deemed sold to the land trust pursuant to subsection 2 of section 141.560, or deemed 2829sold to a land bank agency pursuant to subsection 3 of section 141.560, or sold to a land bank agency pursuant to subdivision (2) of subsection 30 2 of section 141.550, the title thereto shall be free of any such liens to the 31 extent of the interest of any taxing authority in such real estate; provided further, 32that such title shall not be subject to the lien of special tax bills which have 33 attached to the parcel of real estate prior to November 22, 1943, but the lien of 34such special tax bills shall attach to the proceeds of the sheriff's sale or to the 35 proceeds of the ultimate sale of such parcel by the land trust or land bank 36 37 agency.

141.580. 1. After the sheriff sells any parcel of real estate, the court shall, upon its own motion or upon motion of any interested party, set the cause down for hearing to confirm the foreclosure sale thereof, even though such parcels are not all of the parcels of real estate described in the notice of sheriff's foreclosure sale. At the time of such hearing, the sheriff shall make report of the sale, and the court shall hear evidence of the value of the property offered on behalf of any interested party to the suit, and shall forthwith determine whether an adequate consideration has been paid for each such parcel.

2. For this purpose the court shall have power to summon any city or county official or any private person to testify as to the reasonable value of the property, and if the court finds that adequate consideration has been paid, [he] the court shall confirm the sale and order the sheriff to issue a deed to the purchaser. If the court finds that the 20 consideration is inadequate, but the purchaser declines to increase his bid to such amount as the court deems adequate and make such additional 21payment, then the sale shall be disapproved if all tax bills included in the 22judgment, interest, penalties, attorney's fees and costs then due thereon 23 are paid in full by one or more interested parties to the suit, the lien of 24the judgment continued, and such parcel of real estate shall be again advertised 25and offered for sale by the sheriff to the highest bidder at public auction for cash 26 at any subsequent sheriff's foreclosure sale. Unless the court requires evidence 2728of the value of the property conveyed to land trust or a land bank agency, none 29 shall be required, and the amount bid by the land trustees or such land bank 30 agency shall be deemed adequate consideration.

- 3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 of section 32 141.984, if the sale is confirmed, the court shall order the proceeds of the sale 33 applied in the following order:

- 38 (3) To the payment of all tax bills adjudged to be due in the order of their 39 priority, including principal, interest and penalties thereon.
- 40 If, after such payment, there is any sum remaining of the proceeds of the sheriff's
- 41 foreclosure sale, the court shall thereupon try and determine the other issues in
- 42 the suit in accordance with section 141.480. If any answering parties have
- 43 specially appealed as provided in section 141.570, the court shall retain the
- 44 custody of such funds pending disposition of such appeal, and upon disposition
- 45 of such appeal shall make such distribution. If there are not sufficient proceeds
- 46 of the sale to pay all claims in any class described, the court shall order the same
- 47 to be paid pro rata in accordance with the priorities.
- 48 4. If there are any funds remaining of the proceeds after the sheriff's sale
  49 and after the distribution of such funds as herein set out and no person entitled 50 to any such funds, whether or not a party to the suit, shall, within two years after
- 51 such sale, appear and claim the funds, they shall [escheat to the state as provided
