

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. _____

Offered by _____ of _____

by inserting after all of said line the following:

"130.032. 1. In addition to the limitations imposed pursuant to section 130.031, the amount of contributions made by or accepted from any committee, or any person other than the candidate in any one election shall not exceed the following:

(1) To elect an individual to the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor, or attorney general, ten thousand dollars;

(2) To elect an individual to the office of state senator, five thousand dollars;

(3) To elect an individual to the office of state representative, two thousand five hundred dollars;

(4) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is under one hundred thousand, two thousand five hundred dollars;

(5) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is at least one hundred thousand but less than two hundred fifty thousand, five thousand dollars; and

1 (6) To elect an individual to any other office, including
2 judicial office, if the population of the electoral district,
3 ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is 4 at least two hundred fifty thousand, ten thousand dollars.

5 2. For purposes of this subsection "base year amount" shall 6 be the contribution limits prescribed in this section on January 7 1, 2014. Such limits shall be increased on the first day of 8 January in each even-numbered year by multiplying the base year 9 amount by the cumulative consumer price index, as defined in 10 section 104.010 and rounded to the nearest twenty-five-dollar
11 amount.

12 3. Contributions from persons under fourteen years of age 13 shall be considered made by the parents or guardians of such 14 person and shall be attributed toward any contribution limits
15 prescribed in this chapter. Where the contributor under fourteen 16 years of age has two custodial parents or guardians, fifty 17 percent of the contribution shall be attributed to each parent or 18 guardian, and where such contributor has one custodial parent or 19 guardian, all such contributions shall be attributed to the 20 custodial parent or guardian.

21 4. Contributions received and expenditures made prior to 22 August 28, 2013, shall be reported as a separate account and 23 pursuant to the laws in effect at the time such contributions are 24 received or expenditures made. Contributions received and 25 expenditures made after August 28, 2013, shall be reported as a 26 separate account from the aforementioned account and pursuant to 27 the provisions of this chapter. The account reported pursuant to 28 the prior law shall be retained as a separate account and any 29 remaining funds in such account may be used pursuant to this

1 chapter and section 130.034.

2 5. Any committee which accepts or gives contributions other
3 than those allowed shall be subject to a surcharge of one 4 thousand dollars plus an amount equal to the contribution per 5 nonallowable contribution, to be paid to the ethics commission
6 and which shall be transferred to the director of revenue, upon 7 notification of such nonallowable contribution by the ethics
8 commission, and after the candidate has had ten business days 9 after receipt of notice to return the contribution to the 10 contributor. The candidate and the candidate committee treasurer
11 or deputy treasurer owing a surcharge shall be personally liable
12 for the payment of the surcharge or may pay such surcharge only 13 from campaign funds existing on the date of the receipt of 14 notice. Such surcharge shall constitute a debt to the state
15 enforceable under, but not limited to, the provisions of chapter 16 143."; and

17 Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.
