The Department of Revenue mailed over 12.5 million of pieces of mail in Fiscal Year 2012. The Department diligently manages its mailings to take advantage of all postage discounts and looks for strategies to reduce the number of mailings. Because of both increased postage costs and budget reductions, the Department will experience a shortfall in its postage budget.

By law, MVE is the vendor that produces embossed vehicle license plates for the Department of Revenue. MVE's production costs have increased and have been passed along to the Department of Revenue since January 2010. Additionally, the Department's budget supply category for FY13 was reduced by 5%, which resulted in a decrease of $150,000 for plates and tabs.

The system provides primary access to source documents to assist Missouri citizens doing business with the state. It is also the department's repository of record in many cases. Vendor support for the current verison of the document system is limited and support will end on December 2013.

In February 2007, the Office of Administration issued a request for proposals for procurement of an Integrated Motor Vehicle and Driver Licensing (IMVDL) System. On October 1, 2007 from four bid responses and two qualified bids, the Department awarded the contract to BearingPoint, a systems integrator and technology firm. The first phase of the project included implementation of the initial infrastructure and the cash, customer and dealer services modules which were installed and currently support the Dealer Licensing Section. Before the Dealer System was completely implemented and before any other phases were begun, a court challenge arose over the increased document charges that were intended to pay for the contract and the vendor filed for bankruptcy, causing the project to be abandoned in March 2010. The complete knowledge transfer of the system resources with the Office of Administration Information Technology Services Division did not occur, so there is little or no state technical expertise to support and maintain the system. The funding request is to hire and IT consultant for six months to perform an analysis, and for travel expenses for external and internal staff to research other states' systems to evaluate and determine the best approach to complete the Dealer System or make any necessary modifications.

In February 2007, the Office of Administration issued a request for proposals for procurement of an Integrated Motor Vehicle and Driver Licensing (IMVDL) System. On October 1, 2007 from four bid responses and two qualified bids, the Department awarded the contract to BearingPoint, a systems integrator and technology firm. The first phase of the project included implementation of the initial infrastructure and the cash, customer and dealer services modules which were installed and currently support the Dealer Licensing Section. Before the Dealer System was completely implemented and before any other phases were begun, a court challenge arose over the increased document charges that were intended to pay for the contract and the vendor filed for bankruptcy, causing the project to be abandoned in March 2010. The complete knowledge transfer of the system resources with the Office of Administration Information Technology Services Division did not occur, so there is little or no state technical expertise to support and maintain the system. The funding request is to hire and IT consultant for six months to perform an analysis, and for travel expenses for external and internal staff to research other states' systems to evaluate and determine the best approach to complete the Dealer System or make any necessary modifications.

The Department diligently manages its mailings to take advantage of all postage discounts and looks for strategies to reduce the number of mailings. Because of both increased postage costs and budget reductions, the Department will experience a shortfall in its postage budget.
