AN ACT

To amend chapter 452, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to child custody and visitation for military personnel.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Chapter 452, RSMo, is amended by adding thereto one new section, to be known as section 452.413, to read as follows:

452.413. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Deploying parent", a parent of a child less than eighteen years of age whose parental rights have not been terminated by a court of competent jurisdiction or a guardian of a child less than eighteen years of age who is deployed or who has received written orders to deploy with the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, National Guard, or any other reserve component thereof;

(2) "Deployment", military service in compliance with military orders received by a member of the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, National Guard, or any other reserve component thereof to report for combat operations, contingency operations, peacekeeping operations, temporary duty (TDY), a remote tour of duty, or other service for which the deploying parent is required to report unaccompanied by any family member. Military service includes a period during which a military parent remains subject to deployment orders and remains deployed on account of sickness, wounds, leave, or other lawful cause;

(3) "Military parent", a parent of a child less than eighteen years of age whose parental rights have not been terminated by a court of competent jurisdiction or a guardian of a child less than eighteen years

22 of age who is a service member of the United States Army, Navy, Air
23 Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, National Guard, or any other 24 reserve component thereof;

25 (4) "Nondeploying parent", a parent or guardian not subject to 26 deployment.

27 2. If a military parent is required to be separated from a child 28 due to deployment, a court shall not enter a final order modifying the 29 terms establishing custody or visitation contained in an existing order 30 until ninety days after the deployment ends.

31 3. In accordance with section 452.412, deployment or the 32 potential for future deployment shall not be the sole factor supporting 33 a change in circumstances or grounds sufficient to support a 34 permanent modification of the custody or visitation terms established 35 in an existing order.

36 4. (1) An existing order establishing the terms of custody or 37 visitation in place at the time a military parent is deployed may be 38 temporarily modified to make reasonable accommodation for the 39 parties due to the deployment.

40 (2) A temporary modification order issued under this section
41 shall provide that the deploying parent shall have custody of the child 42 or reasonable visitation, whichever is applicable under the original 43 order, during a period of leave granted to the deploying parent.

44 (3) Any court order modifying a previously ordered custody or 45 visitation due to deployment shall specify that the deployment is the 46 basis for the order and shall be entered by the court as a temporary 47 order.

48 (4) Any such custody or visitation order shall further require the 49 nondeploying parent to provide the court and the deploying parent 50 with a thirty day advance written notice of any change of address and 51 any change of telephone number. However, if a valid order of 52 protection under chapter 455 from this or another jurisdiction is in 53 effect that requires that the address or contact information of the 54 parent who is not deployed be kept confidential, the notification shall 55 be made to the court only, and a copy of the order shall be included in 56 the notification.

57 (5) Upon motion of a deploying parent with reasonable advance
58 notice and for good cause shown, the court shall hold an expedited

59 hearing in any custody or visitation matters instituted under this 60 section when the military duties of the deploying parent have a 61 material effect on his or her ability or anticipated ability to appear in 62 person at a regularly scheduled hearing.

63 5. (1) A temporary modification of such an order automatically
64 ends no later than thirty days after the return of the deploying parent 65 and the original terms of the custody or visitation order in place at the 66 time of deployment are automatically reinstated.

67 (2) Nothing in this section shall limit the power of the court to 68 conduct an expedited or emergency hearing regarding custody or 69 visitation upon return of the deploying parent, and the court shall do 70 so within ten days of the filing of a motion alleging an immediate 71 danger or irreparable harm to the child.

72 (3) The nondeploying parent shall bear the burden of showing 73 that reentry of the custody or visitation order in effect before the 74 deployment is no longer in the child's best interests. The court shall set 75 any nonemergency motion by the nondeploying parent for hearing 76 within thirty days of the filing of the motion and this shall take 77 precedence on the court's docket.

78 6. (1) Upon motion of the deploying parent or upon motion of a 79 family member of the deploying parent with his or her consent, the 80 court may delegate his or her visitation rights, or a portion of such 81 rights, to a family member with a close and substantial relationship to 82 the minor child or children for the duration of the deployment if it is 83 in the best interest of the child.

84 (2) Such delegated visitation time or access does not create an 85 entitlement or standing to assert separate rights to parent time or 86 access for any person other than a parent, and shall terminate by 87 operation of law upon the end of the deployment, as set forth in this 88 section.

89 (3) Such delegated visitation time shall not exceed the visitation 90 time granted to the deploying parent under the existing order; except 91 that, the court may take into consideration the travel time necessary 92 to transport the child for such delegated visitation time.

93 (4) In addition, there is a rebuttable presumption that a deployed 94 parent's visitation rights shall not be delegated to a family member who 95 has a history of perpetrating domestic violence as defined under

96 section 455.010 against another family or household member, or 97 delegated to a family member with an individual in the family
98 member's household who has a history of perpetrating domestic 99 violence against another family or household member.

100 (5) The person or persons to whom delegated visitation time has 101 been granted shall have full legal standing to enforce such rights.

102 7. Upon motion of a deploying parent and upon reasonable 103 advance notice and for good cause shown, the court shall permit such 104 parent to present testimony and evidence by affidavit or electronic 105 means in support, custody, and visitation matters instituted under this 106 section when the military duties of such parent have a material effect 107 on his or her ability to appear in person at a regularly scheduled
108 hearing. Electronic means includes communication by telephone, video 109 conference, or the internet.

110 8. Any order entered under this section shall require that the 111 nondeploying parent:

112 (1) Make the child or children reasonably available to the 113 deploying parent when the deploying parent has leave;

114 (2) Facilitate opportunities for telephonic and electronic mail 115 contact between the deploying parent and the child or children during 116 deployment; and

117 (3) Receive timely information regarding the deploying parent's 118 leave schedule.

119 9. (1) If there is no existing order establishing the terms of 120 custody and visitation and it appears that deployment is imminent, 121 upon the filing of initial pleadings and motion by either parent, the 122 court shall expedite a hearing to establish temporary custody or 123 visitation to ensure the deploying parent has access to the child, to 124 ensure disclosure of information, to grant other rights and duties set 125 forth in this section, and to provide other appropriate relief.

126 (2) Any initial pleading filed to establish custody or visitation for 127 a child of a deploying parent shall be so identified at the time of filing 128 by stating in the text of the pleading the specific facts related to 129 deployment.

130 10. (1) Since military necessity may preclude court adjudication 131 before deployment, the parties shall cooperate with each other in an 132 effort to reach a mutually agreeable resolution of custody, visitation,

133 and child support. Each party shall provide information to each other 134 in an effort to facilitate agreement on custody and visitation.

135 (2) A deploying parent shall provide a copy of his or her orders 136 to the nondeploying parent promptly and without delay prior to 137 deployment. Notification shall be made within ten days of receipt of 138 deployment orders. If less than ten days notice is received by the 139 deploying parent, notice shall be given immediately upon receipt of 140 military orders. If all or part of the orders are classified or restricted 141 as to release, the deploying parent shall provide, under the terms of 142 this subdivision, all such nonclassified or nonrestricted information to 143 the nondeploying parent.

144 11. In an action brought under this chapter, whenever the court 145 declines to grant or extend a stay of proceedings under the 146 Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C. Appendix Sections 521-522, 147 and decides to proceed in the absence of the deployed parent, the court 148 shall appoint at the request of the deployed parent or on its own 149 motion a guardian ad litem to represent the minor child's interests.

150 12. Service of process on a nondeploying parent whose 151 whereabouts are unknown may be accomplished by certified mail, 152 return receipt requested, to the nondeploying parent's last known 153 address based on an affidavit of the deploying parent.

154 13. In determining whether a parent has failed to exercise 155 visitation rights, the court shall not count any time periods during 156 which the parent did not exercise visitation due to the material effect 157 of such parent's military duties on visitation time.

158 14. Once an order for custody has been entered in Missouri, any 159 absence of a child from this state during deployment shall be 160 denominated a temporary absence for the purposes of application of 161 the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act
162 (UCCJEA). For the duration of the deployment, Missouri shall retain 163 exclusive jurisdiction under the UCCJEA and deployment shall not be 164 used as a basis to assert inconvenience of the forum under the UCCJEA.

165 15. In making determinations under this section, the court may 166 award attorney's fees and costs based on the court's consideration of:

167 (1) The failure of either party to reasonably accommodate the 168 other party in custody or visitation matters related to a military 169 parent's service;

170 (2) Unreasonable delay caused by either party in resolving 171 custody or visitation related to a military parent's service;

172 (3) Failure of either party to timely provide military orders,
173 income, earnings, or payment information, housing or education 174 information, or physical location of the child to the other party; and

175 (4) Other factors as the court may consider appropriate and as 176 may be required by law.
