AN ACT

To repeal section 64.170, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to county ordinances establishing minimum standards for residential occupancy.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 64.170, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 64.170, to read as follows:

64.170. 1. For the purpose of promoting the public safety, health and general welfare, to protect life and property and to prevent the construction of fire hazardous buildings, the county commission in all counties of the first and second classification, as provided by law, is for this purpose empowered, subject to the provisions of subsections 2 and 3 of this section, to adopt by order or ordinance regulations to control the construction, reconstruction, alteration or repair of any building or structure and any electrical wiring or electrical installation, plumbing or drain laying therein, and provide for the issuance of building permits and adopt regulations licensing persons, firms or corporations other than federal, state or local governments, public utilities and their contractors engaged in the business of electrical wiring or installations and provide for the inspection thereof and establish a schedule of permit, license and inspection fees and appoint a building commission to prepare the regulations, as herein provided.

2. Any county which has not adopted a building code prior to August 28, 2001, pursuant to sections 64.170 to 64.200, shall not have the authority to adopt a building code pursuant to such sections unless the authority is approved by voters, subject to the provisions of subsection 3 of this section.

The ballot of submission for authority pursuant to this subsection shall be in substantially the following form:

20 Shall (insert name of county) have authority to 21 create, adopt and impose a county building code?

22 YES NO

23 3. The proposal of the authority to adopt a building code shall be voted on 24 only by voters in the area affected by the proposed code, such that a code
25 affecting a county shall not be voted upon by citizens of any incorporated
26 territory.

27 4. For the purpose of promoting the public safety, health, and 28 general welfare, to protect life and property, and to prevent the 29 occupancy of fire hazardous buildings, the county commission of any 30 county of the first classification with more than one hundred fifty 31 thousand but fewer than two hundred thousand inhabitants, as 32 provided by law, is for this purpose empowered to adopt, by order or
33 ordinance, regulations to control the minimum standards for occupancy
34 of any residential unit intended for rent or lease, and to develop a
35 program for licensing and inspecting the units for which the county
36 may recover costs to administer such a program by establishing 37 reasonable fees.
