101 employer's interest or of the employee's duties and obligations to the employer] 102 conduct or failure to act that is reasonably related to the job 103 environment and the job performance regardless of whether such 104 conduct or failure to act occurs at the workplace or during work hours, 105 which shall include:

106 (a) Conduct or a failure to act demonstrating knowing disregard

118 employee of an employer licensed or certified by the state, which would 119 cause the employer to be sanctioned or have its license or certification 120 suspended or revoked; or

121 (e) A violation of an employer's rule, unless the employee can 122 demonstrate that:

123 a. He or she did not know, and could not reasonably know, of the 124 rules requirements; or

125 b. The rule is not lawful;

126 (24) "Referee", a representative of the division designated to serve on an 128 (25) "State" includes, in addition to the states of the United States of 130 Dominion of Canada;

131 (26) "Temporary employee", an employee assigned to work for the clients 132 of a temporary help firm;

133 (27) "Temporary help firm", a firm that hires its own employees and 134 assigns them to clients to support or supplement the clients' workforce in work 135 situations such as employee absences, temporary skill shortages, seasonal 136 workloads, and special assignments and projects;

137 (28) (a) An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week 138 during which the individual performs no services and with respect to which no 139 wages are payable to such individual;

140 (b) a. An individual shall be deemed "partially unemployed" in any week 141 of less than full-time work if the wages payable to such individual for such week 142 do not equal or exceed the individual's weekly benefit amount plus twenty dollars;

143 b. Effective for calendar year 2007 and each year thereafter, an individual 144 shall be deemed "partially unemployed" in any week of less than full-time work 145 if the wages payable to such individual for such week do not equal or exceed the 146 individual's weekly benefit amount plus twenty dollars or twenty percent of his 147 or her weekly benefit amount, whichever is greater;

148 (c) An individual's "week of unemployment" shall begin the first day of the 149 calendar week in which the individual registers at an employment office except 150 that, if for good cause the individual's registration is delayed, the week of 151 unemployment shall begin the first day of the calendar week in which the 152 individual would have otherwise registered. The requirement of registration may 153 by regulation be postponed or eliminated in respect to claims for partial 154 unemployment or may by regulation be postponed in case of a mass layoff due to 155 a temporary cessation of work;

156 (29) "Waiting week", the first week of unemployment for which a claim is 157 allowed in a benefit year or if no waiting week has occurred in a benefit year in 158 effect on the effective date of a shared work plan, the first week of participation 159 in a shared work unemployment compensation program pursuant to section 160 288.500.

161 2. The Missouri average annual wage shall be computed as of June 162 thirtieth of each year, and shall be applicable to the following calendar year. The 163 Missouri average annual wage shall be calculated by dividing the total wages 164 reported as paid for insured work in the preceding calendar year by the average 165 of mid-month employment reported by employers for the same calendar year. The 166 Missouri average weekly wage shall be computed by dividing the Missouri 167 average annual wage as computed in this subsection by fifty-two.

288.050. 1. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this law, a claimant 2 shall be disqualified for waiting week credit or benefits until after the claimant 3 has earned wages for work insured pursuant to the unemployment compensation 4 laws of any state equal to ten times the claimant's weekly benefit amount if the 5 deputy finds:

6 (1) That the claimant has left work voluntarily without good cause 7 attributable to such work or to the claimant's employer. A temporary employee 8 of a temporary help firm will be deemed to have voluntarily quit employment if 9 the employee does not contact the temporary help firm for reassignment prior to 10 filing for benefits. Failure to contact the temporary help firm will not be deemed 11 a voluntary quit unless the claimant has been advised of the obligation to contact 12 the firm upon completion of assignments and that unemployment benefits may 13 be denied for failure to do so. "Good cause", for the purposes of this 14 subdivision, shall include only that cause which would compel a 15 reasonable employee to cease working or which would require 16 separation from work due to illness or disability. The claimant shall not 17 be disqualified:

18 (a) If the deputy finds the claimant quit such work for the purpose of 19 accepting a more remunerative job which the claimant did accept and earn some 20 wages therein;

21 (b) If the claimant quit temporary work to return to such claimant's 22 regular employer; or

23 (c) If the deputy finds the individual quit work, which would have been 24 determined not suitable in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision 25 (3) of this subsection, within twenty-eight calendar days of the first day worked;

26 (d) As to initial claims filed after December 31, 1988, if the claimant 27 presents evidence supported by competent medical proof that she was forced to 28 leave her work because of pregnancy, notified her employer of such necessity as 29 soon as practical under the circumstances, and returned to that employer and 30 offered her services to that employer as soon as she was physically able to return 31 to work, as certified by a licensed and practicing physician, but in no event later

32 than ninety days after the termination of the pregnancy. An employee shall have 33 been employed for at least one year with the same employer before she may be 34 provided benefits pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph;

35 (e) If the deputy finds that, due to the spouse's mandatory and permanent 36 military change of station order, the claimant quit work to relocate with the 37 spouse to a new residence from which it is impractical to commute to the place 38 of employment and the claimant remained employed as long as was reasonable 39 prior to the move. The claimant's spouse shall be a member of the U.S. Armed 40 Forces who is on active duty, or a member of the National Guard or other reserve 41 component of the U.S. Armed Forces who is on active National Guard or reserve 42 duty. The provisions of this paragraph shall only apply to individuals who have 43 been determined to be an insured worker as provided in subdivision (22) of 44 subsection 1 of section 288.030;

45 (2) That the claimant has retired pursuant to the terms of a labor 46 agreement between the claimant's employer and a union duly elected by the 47 employees as their official representative or in accordance with an established 48 policy of the claimant's employer; or

49 (3) That the claimant failed without good cause either to apply for 50 available suitable work when so directed by a deputy of the division or designated 51 staff of an employment office as defined in subsection 1 of section 288.030, or to 52 accept suitable work when offered the claimant, either through the division or 53 directly by an employer by whom the individual was formerly employed, or to 54 return to the individual's customary self-employment, if any, when so directed by 55 the deputy. An offer of work shall be rebuttably presumed if an employer notifies 56 the claimant in writing of such offer by sending an acknowledgment via any form 57 of certified mail issued by the United States Postal Service stating such offer to 58 the claimant at the claimant's last known address. Nothing in this subdivision 59 shall be construed to limit the means by which the deputy may establish that the 60 claimant has or has not been sufficiently notified of available work.

61 (a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, 62 the division shall consider, among other factors and in addition to those 63 enumerated in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the degree of risk involved to the 64 individual's health, safety and morals, the individual's physical fitness and prior 65 training, the individual's experience and prior earnings, the individual's length 66 of unemployment, the individual's prospects for securing work in the individual's 67 customary occupation, the distance of available work from the individual's 68 residence and the individual's prospect of obtaining local work; except that, if an 69 individual has moved from the locality in which the individual actually resided 70 when such individual was last employed to a place where there is less probability 71 of the individual's employment at such individual's usual type of work and which 72 is more distant from or otherwise less accessible to the community in which the 73 individual was last employed, work offered by the individual's most recent 74 employer if similar to that which such individual performed in such individual's 75 last employment and at wages, hours, and working conditions which are 76 substantially similar to those prevailing for similar work in such community, or 77 any work which the individual is capable of performing at the wages prevailing 78 for such work in the locality to which the individual has moved, if not hazardous 79 to such individual's health, safety or morals, shall be deemed suitable for the 80 individual;

81 (b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this law, no work shall be 82 deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied pursuant to this law to any 83 otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the 84 following conditions:

85 a. If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or 86 other labor dispute;

87 b. If the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are 88 substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar 89 work in the locality;

90 c. If as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to 91 join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor 92 organization.

93 2. If a deputy finds that a claimant has been discharged for misconduct 94 connected with the claimant's work, such claimant shall be disqualified for 95 waiting week credit and benefits, and no benefits shall be paid nor shall the cost 96 of any benefits be charged against any employer for any period of employment 97 within the base period until the claimant has earned wages for work insured 98 under the unemployment laws of this state or any other state as prescribed in 99 this section. In addition to the disqualification for benefits pursuant to this 100 provision the division may in the more aggravated cases of misconduct cancel all 101 or any part of the individual's wage credits, which were established through the 102 individual's employment by the employer who discharged such individual, 103 according to the seriousness of the misconduct. A disqualification provided for 104 pursuant to this subsection shall not apply to any week which occurs after the 105 claimant has earned wages for work insured pursuant to the unemployment 106 compensation laws of any state in an amount equal to six times the claimant's 107 weekly benefit amount. Should a claimant be disqualified on a second or 108 subsequent occasion within the base period or subsequent to the base period the 109 claimant shall be required to earn wages in an amount equal to or in excess of six 110 times the claimant's weekly benefit amount for each disqualification.

111 3. [Absenteeism or tardiness may constitute a rebuttable presumption of 112 misconduct, regardless of whether the last incident alone constitutes misconduct, 113 if the discharge was the result of a violation of the employer's attendance policy, 114 provided the employee had received knowledge of such policy prior to the 115 occurrence of any absence or tardy upon which the discharge is based.

116 4.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, a 117 claimant may not be determined to be disqualified for benefits because the 118 claimant is in training approved pursuant to Section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, 119 as amended, (19 U.S.C.A. Sec. 2296, as amended), or because the claimant left 120 work which was not suitable employment to enter such training. For the 121 purposes of this subsection "suitable employment" means, with respect to a 122 worker, work of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the worker's past 123 adversely affected employment, and wages for such work at not less than eighty 124 percent of the worker's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of 125 the Trade Act of 1974.
