216 the same subject matter against the state officer or employee, or the officer's or 217 employee's estate. No officer or employee of the state or any agency of the state

224 limit the rights and remedies otherwise available to a claimant under state law 225 or common law in proceedings where one or more defendants is not an officer or 226 employee of the state or any agency of the state.

232 shall be calculated by the director of the department of insurance, financial 233 institutions and professional registration, who shall furnish that value to the 234 secretary of state, who shall publish such value in the Missouri Register as soon 235 after each January first as practicable, but it shall otherwise be exempt from the 236 provisions of section 536.021.

244 pursuant to section 105.721 unless and until the benefits provided to pay the 245 claim by any other policy of liability insurance have been exhausted.

246           8. The provisions of section 33.080 notwithstanding, any moneys 247 remaining to the credit of the state legal expense fund at the end of an 248 appropriation period shall not be transferred to general revenue.

249           9. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010,

251 shall become effective only if it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions 252 of chapter 536. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to repeal or affect the 253 validity of any rule filed or adopted prior to August 28, 1999, if it fully complied 254 with the provisions of chapter 536. This section and chapter 536 are 255 nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant 256 to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul
257 a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking 258 authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 1999, shall be 259 invalid and void.
