JOINT RESOLUTION

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri, an amendment repealing sections 10 and 51 of article IV of the Constitution of Missouri, and adopting two new sections in lieu thereof relating to gubernatorial appointments.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on 2 Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2014, or at a special 3 election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted 4 to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following 5 amendment to article IV of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Sections 10 and 51, article IV, Constitution of Missouri, are 2 repealed and two new sections adopted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 3 10 and 51, to read as follows:

Section 10. There shall be a lieutenant governor who shall have the same 2 qualifications as the governor and shall be ex officio president of the senate. In 3 committee of the whole he may debate all questions, and shall cast the deciding 4 vote on joint vote of both houses and on equal division in the senate [and on 5 joint vote of both houses], except on matters related to appointments of all 6 members of administrative boards and commissions submitted to the 7 senate.

Section 51. [The appointment of all members of administrative boards and 2 commissions and of all department and division heads, as provided by law, shall 3 be made by the governor. All members of administrative boards and 4 commissions, all department and division heads and all other officials appointed 5 by the governor shall be made only by and with the advice and consent of the 6 senate.] By and with the advice and consent of the senate, the governor 7 shall appoint the heads of all executive departments or divisions

8 established by this constitution or by law. Notwithstanding any 9 provision of section 4 of article IV of the Constitution of Missouri to the 10 contrary, whenever a vacancy shall occur in any office of department 11 head, the governor may appoint an acting or temporary department 12 head in such manner and for such time as prescribed by law. By and 13 with the advice and consent of the senate, the governor shall appoint 14 all members of administrative boards and commissions and all other 15 officials as provided by law, except that if no person is so selected 16 within ninety days of the creation of a vacancy, the lieutenant governor 17 shall make the appointment, by and with the advice and consent of the 18 senate. The authority to act of any person whose appointment requires the 19 advice and consent of the senate shall commence, if the senate is in session, upon 20 receiving the advice and consent of the senate. If the senate is not in session, the 21 authority to act shall commence immediately upon appointment by the governor 22 or lieutenant governor but shall terminate if the advice and consent of the 23 senate is not given within thirty days after the senate has convened in regular 24 or special session. If the senate fails to give its advice and consent to any 25 appointee, that person shall not be reappointed by the governor or lieutenant 26 governor to the same office or position.

Section B. Pursuant to chapter 116, RSMo, and other applicable
2 constitutional provisions and laws of this state allowing the general assembly to 3 adopt ballot language for the submission of referendum measures to the voters 4 of this state, the official summary statement of the act proposed in section A of 5 this act shall be as follows:

6 "Shall the Missouri constitution be amended to:
7 • Require that the Governor may appoint acting department heads 8 only in the manner provided by law; and 9 • Modify the process by which the Governor makes appointments to 10 fill vacancies in public offices, subject to Senate oversight?"
