19 under section 95.540 and who subsequently becomes a policeman may elect to 20 transfer [membership and] creditable service to the police retirement system created under [section] sections 86.200 to 86.366. Such transfers are subject 21 22 to the conditions and requirements contained in section 105.691 and are also 23 subject to any existing agreements between the said retirement plans [; provided however, transfers completed prior to January 1, 2016, shall occur without regard 2425 to the vesting requirements of the receiving plan contained in section 105.691]. 26 As part of the transfer process described herein, the respective retirement plans 27 may require the employee to acknowledge and agree as a condition of transfer that any election made under this section is irrevocable, constitutes a waiver of 28 29 any right to receive retirement and disability benefits except as provided by the 30 police retirement system, and that plan terms may be modified in the future.

- 2. If any member ceases to be in service for more than one year unless the member has attained the age of fifty-five or has twenty years or more of creditable service, or if the member withdraws the member's accumulated contributions or if the member receives benefits under the retirement system or dies, the member thereupon ceases to be a member; except in the case of a member who has served in the Armed Forces of the United States and has subsequently been reinstated as a policeman. A member who has terminated employment as a police officer, has actually retired and is receiving retirement benefits under the system shall be considered a retired member.
- 3. A reserve officer shall not be considered a member of the system for the purpose of determining creditable service, nor shall any contributions be due. A reserve officer shall not be entitled to any benefits from the system other than those awarded when the reserve officer originally retired under section 86.250, nor shall service as a reserve officer prohibit distribution of those benefits.

Section B. Because immediate action is necessary to meet the requirements of the Social Security Administration and to prevent the expulsion of Missouri airport officers from the Social Security Program, section A of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and section A of this act shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.
