

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

---

FIFTEENTH DAY—TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 2017

---

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Parson in the Chair.

Senator Schupp offered the following prayer:

Good morning.

The Torah is the first five books of Moses...Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. The Torah portion being studied this week by Jews around the world deals with the final 3 plagues that result in Israelites being granted their freedom from slavery under the Egyptian Pharaoh.

The 9th and final plague was the plague of darkness, darkness so thick that the people were immobilized and felt lost even in their own familiar surroundings... for whole of the three days the plague lasted.

As we look to the lessons for today, we recognize that we, too, can get lost in the darkness, losing sight of what is really important in the midst of this familiar place. ...Losing sight of the true needs: for justice, for equality, for freedom and protections for all of the people of Missouri.

Today's prayer is in the form of a poem from Alden Solovy, with adaptations entitled:

For Political Leadership

God of history,

We yearn for thoughtful leadership,

For men and women of inspiration and insight,

Visionaries to build nations and communities

In Your image,

Stewards dedicated to justice,

Unafraid to face the challenges of our day,

Doing so without being lead by fear...

So that our cities and countries resonate with

Compassion and health,

Justice and mercy,

Kindness and peace.

Bless our leaders

With dedication and foresight,

Fortitude and imagination

To solve the complex issues that threaten our future.

May they lead us to a time when neighbors embrace
 And the communities thrive,
 A time when liberty and equality
 Reign supreme.

Source and Shelter,
 Grant safety and security to all nations and communities,
 So that truth and harmony will resound
 From the four corners of the earth.
 Let the light of wisdom
 Shine brightly in the halls of power,
 A beacon of hope
 For every land and every people.
 And together we say: Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal for the previous day was read and approved.
