

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

SECOND EXTRA SESSION

THIRD DAY—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 2017

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Pro Tem Richard in the Chair.

Senator Rowden offered the following prayer:

Father, we pause today to give thanks to You for Your goodness and Your grace. We are humbled by the opportunity to serve the people of this great state, but even more, we are humbled that we have the opportunity to be called Your children.

Today, we are saddened by the news from Arlington, Virginia, of senseless violence against Congressman Scalise and the others involved in this horrific incident. Our hearts are broken as we confront this startling new reality of rhetoric-driven hate and disrespect of our political opponents. In this chamber, as republicans and democrats in the Missouri Senate, may we lead the effort to push back against this extremism. To push back against the idea that if we disagree with someone politically, we are mortal enemies. And to work with diligence to restore civility and respect in our political discourse.

May we find our example of how to lead in the way You led and the way You loved. Driven by compassion, motivated by truth, and committed to serve the most vulnerable among us with love.

As we begin our debate today, we stand on the promise found in the 41st chapter of Isaiah where it says, “Do not fear, for I am with you; Do not anxiously look about you, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, surely I will help you, surely I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.”

Thank You for Your promises and for Your truth. They are our hope and will be our guide as we do the work of the people this evening. We ask these things in Jesus name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.
