

Journal of the Senate

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FORTY-THIRD DAY—MONDAY, MARCH 26, 2018

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Parson in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Let days speak, and many years teach wisdom. But it is in the spirit in man, the breathe of the Almighty, that makes him understand.”
(Job 32:7-8)

Almighty God, we are so thankful for the time we have had to rest and be able to do the things we deem most important. We return encouraged to take on the work that is before us. We ask for Your spirit to be present with us and guide our hearts and minds so that we have a clear understanding what You deem important for us to accomplish that will lead us to be most helpful for the people we serve. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journals for Thursday, March 15, 2018 and Wednesday, March 21, 2018 were read and approved.

Further amend said bill and page, section A, line 3, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“287.127. 1. Beginning January 1, 1993, all employers shall post a notice at their place of employment, in a sufficient number of places on the premises to assure that such notice will reasonably be seen by all employees. An employer for whom services are performed by individuals who may not reasonably be expected to see a posted notice shall notify each such employee in writing of the contents of such notice. The notice shall include:

- (1) That the employer is operating under and subject to the provisions of the Missouri workers’

compensation law;

(2) That employees must report all injuries immediately to the employer by advising the employer personally, the employer's designated individual or the employee's immediate boss, supervisor or foreman and that the employee may lose the right to receive compensation if the injury or illness is not reported within thirty days or in the case of occupational illness or disease, within thirty days of the time he or she is reasonably aware of work relatedness of the injury or illness; employees who fail to notify their employer within thirty days may jeopardize their ability to receive compensation, and any other benefits under this chapter;

(3) The name, address and telephone number of the insurer, if insured. If self-insured, the name, address and telephone number of the employer's designated individual responsible for reporting injuries or the name, address and telephone number of the adjusting company or service company designated by the employer to handle workers' compensation matters;

(4) The name, address and the toll-free telephone number of the division of workers' compensation;

(5) That the employer will supply, upon request, additional information provided by the division of workers' compensation;

(6) That a fraudulent action by the employer, employee or any other person is unlawful.

2. The division of workers' compensation shall develop the notice to be posted [and shall], distribute such notice free of charge to employers and insurers upon request, and publish the notice on the website of the department of labor and industrial relations. Failure to request such notice does not relieve the employer of its obligation to post the notice. If the employer carries workers' compensation insurance, the carrier shall provide the notice, in paper or electronic format, to the insured within thirty days of the insurance policy's inception date. A carrier who elects to provide the notice in electronic format shall direct the insured to the notice available on the website of the department of labor and industrial relations.

3. Any employer who willfully violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by both such fine and imprisonment, and each such violation or each day such violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 2

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 782, Pages 12-17, Section 319.129, by striking all of said section from the bill and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“319.140. 1. There is established a task force of the general assembly to be known as the “Task Force on the Petroleum Storage Tank Insurance Fund”. Such task force shall be composed of six members, with three members being from the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and three members being from the senate appointed by the president pro tempore of the senate. No more than two members from either the house of representatives or the senate shall be from the same political party. A majority of the task force shall constitute a quorum.

2. The task force shall conduct research and compile a report for delivery to the general assembly by December 31, 2018, on the following:

- (1) The efficacy of the petroleum storage tank insurance fund and program;
- (2) The sustainability of the petroleum storage tank insurance fund and program;
- (3) The administration of the petroleum storage tank insurance fund and program;
- (4) The availability of private insurance for above and below ground petroleum storage tanks, and the necessity of insurance subsidies created through the petroleum storage tank insurance program;
- (5) Compliance with federal programs, regulations, and advisory reports; and
- (6) The comparability of the petroleum storage tank insurance program to other states' programs and states without such programs.

3. The task force shall meet within thirty days after its creation and organize by selecting a chairperson and vice chairperson, one of whom shall be a member of the senate and the other a member of the house of representatives. Thereafter, the task force may meet as often as necessary in order to accomplish the tasks assigned to it.

4. The task force shall be staffed by legislative staff as necessary to assist the task force in the performance of its duties.

5. The members of the task force shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

6. This section shall expire on December 31, 2018.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senator Eigel moved that the above amendment be adopted.

Senator Schupp offered SA 1 to SA 2:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO
