

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIFTH DAY—WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 2019

---

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Kehoe in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“I wish to preach, not the doctrine of ignoble ease, but the doctrine of the strenuous life.” (Theodore Roosevelt 1899)

Gracious God, we may never know the number of times people have failed to provide the victories You have laid out before us simply because we fail to put forth the extra time and effort that was needed. We pray that You will grant us the strength to not quit when we are discouraged but to push forward to bring forth the victories that You require of us. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

Senator Rowden announced photographers from KSN KODE-TV and KSNF TV-16 were given permission to take pictures in the Senate Chamber.

The following Senators were present during the day’s proceedings:

Senator Sifton offered Senate Resolution No. 56, regarding Michael A. Butz, St. Louis, which was adopted.

Senator Sifton offered Senate Resolution No. 57, regarding Steve Spoljaric, St. Louis, which was adopted.

Senator Sifton offered Senate Resolution No. 58, regarding Affton Veterinary Clinic, which was adopted.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Schupp offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 6

Whereas, extensive and credible reports have revealed mass killing of prisoners of conscience in the People's Republic of China, primarily practitioners of the spiritual based exercises of Falun Gong, but also other religious and ethnic minority groups, in order to obtain organs for transplants; and

Whereas, the organ transplantation system in China does not comply with the World Health Organization's Guiding Principles of traceability and transparency in organ procurement pathways, and the government of the People's Republic of China has resisted independent scrutiny of the system; and

Whereas, traditional Chinese custom requires bodies to be preserved intact after death. With rare voluntary organ donation, however, China's transplantation industry significantly increased since 2000; and

Whereas, the 2017 Freedom House Report "The Battle for China's Spirit" states that "Available evidence suggests that forced extraction of organs from Falun Gong detainees for sale in transplant operations has occurred on a large scale and may be continuing"; and

Whereas, an investigative report, published in June 2016, conducted by human rights attorney David Matas, former Canadian Secretary of State for Asia-Pacific David Kilgour, and journalist Ethan Gutmann, estimated that China is performing 60,000 to 100,000 transplants per year as opposed to 10,000 transplants claimed by the Chinese government, which is "an industrial-scale, state-directed organ transplantation system, controlled through national policies and funding, and implicating both the military and civilian healthcare systems"; and

Whereas, China's Liver Transplant Registry System indicated that more than 25% of cases were emergency transplants, for which an organ was found within days or even hours. Wait times for non-emergency liver transplants were usually quoted in weeks. Most patients in other countries have to wait years for a transplant; and

Whereas, the Chinese government claims that 90% of China's organ transplant sources come from executed prisoners. However, the number of executions has dropped 10% annually since 2002 and is far less than the number of transplants taking place. The government has never acknowledged the sourcing of organs from prisoners of conscience; and

Whereas, Falun Gong, a spiritual practice involving meditative "qigong" exercises and centered on the values of truthfulness, compassion, and forbearance, became immensely popular in China in the 1990s, with multiple estimates placing the number of practitioners at upwards of 70 million; and

Whereas, in July 1999, the Chinese Communist Party launched an intensive, nationwide persecution designed to eradicate the spiritual practice of Falun Gong, including physical and mental torture, reflecting the party's long-standing intolerance of large independent civil society groups; and

Whereas, since 1999, hundreds of thousands of Falun Gong practitioners have been detained extra-legally in Chinese reeducation-through-labor camps, detention centers, and prisons, where torture, abuse, and implausible medical exams and blood tests on Falun Gong practitioners are routine; and

Whereas, Freedom House reported in 2015 that Falun Gong practitioners comprise the largest portion of prisoners of conscience in China, and face an elevated risk of dying or being killed in custody; and

Whereas, the United Nations Committee Against Torture and the Special Rapporteur on Torture have expressed concern over the allegations of organ harvesting from Falun Gong prisoners, and have called on the Government of the People's Republic of China to increase accountability and transparency in the organ transplant system and punish those responsible for abuses; and

Whereas, in June 2016, the U.S. House of Representatives unanimously passed House Resolution 343, condemning the systematic, state-sanctioned organ harvesting from Falun Gong and other prisoners of conscience; and

Whereas, the killing of religious or political prisoners for the purpose of selling their organs for transplant is an egregious and intolerable violation of the fundamental right to live; and

Whereas, organ tourism to China should not be shielded by medical confidentiality, but openly monitored. No nation should allow their citizens to go to China for organs until China has allowed a full investigation into organ harvesting of prisoners of conscience, both past and present:

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the members of the Missouri Senate, One-Hundredth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

(1) Call upon the Government of the People's Republic of China to immediately end the practice of organ harvesting from all prisoners and prisoners of conscience, and explicitly from Falun Gong prisoners of conscience and members of other religious and ethnic minority groups;

(2) Call upon the Government of the People's Republic of China to immediately end the 17-year persecution of the Falun Gong, and the immediate release of all Falun Gong practitioners and other prisoners of conscience;

(3) Call upon the President of the United States to undertake a full and transparent investigation by the United States Department of State into organ transplant practices in the People's Republic of China, and calls for the prosecution of those found to have engaged in such unethical practices;

(4) Encourage the medical community of Missouri to engage in educating colleagues and residents of Missouri about the risks of travel to China for organ transplants so as to help prevent Missouri residents from unwittingly becoming involved in murder in the form of forced organ harvesting from prisoners of conscience; and

(5) Agree to take measures to ban the entry of those who have participated in illegal removal of human tissues and organs, and seek prosecution of such individuals should they be found on the soil of Missouri; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President and Vice President of the United States, the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, the chair of the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs, the chair of the House Committee on Foreign Relations, and each member of Missouri's Congressional delegation.

SB 261—By Nasheed.

An Act to repeal section 208.027, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the use of medical marijuana by applicants and recipients of temporary assistance for needy families.

SB 262—By Sater.

An Act to repeal sections 195.060, 196.100, 221.111, 338.015, 338.055, and 338.056, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof seven new sections relating to electronic prescriptions, with a penalty provision.

SB 263—By Schupp.

An Act to repeal section 208.151, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to postpartum depression screening.

SB 264—By Crawford.

An Act to repeal section 620.010, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to the state council on the arts.

SB 265—By Luetkemeyer.

An Act to repeal sections 172.030, 172.035, 172.040, and 172.060, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof four new sections relating to student curators.

SB 266—By Wieland.

An Act to amend chapter 34, RSMo, by adding thereto nine new sections relating to purchasing processes for innovative technology by the office of administration.

SB 267—By Wieland.

An Act to repeal section 376.427, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to direct payment of health care providers.

SJR 17—By Nasheed.

Joint Resolution submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri, an amendment to article VI of the Constitution of Missouri, by adding thereto one new section relating to the consolidation of St. Louis City and St. Louis County.

Senator Onder requested unanimous consent of the Senate to withdraw SB 214, which request was granted.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Schupp offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 7

Relating to the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Whereas, three years after women won the right to vote, the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution, authored by Alice Paul, head of the National Women's Party, was introduced in Congress by Senator Curtis and Representative Anthony, both Republicans; and

Whereas, the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution passed the United States Senate and then the United States House of Representatives, and on March 22, 1972, the proposed Amendment to the United States Constitution was sent to the states for ratification; and

Whereas, the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution states:

“Section 1. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

Section 3. This amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification.”; and

Whereas, Congress placed a deadline of June 30, 1982, on the ratification process and thirty-five states ratified the proposed Amendment before the deadline; and

Whereas, Congress may not have the constitutional authority to place a deadline on the ratification process; and

Whereas, Article V of the United States Constitution allows the General Assembly of the State of Missouri to ratify this proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and

Whereas, the General Assembly of the State of Missouri finds that the proposed Amendment is meaningful and needed as part of the United States Constitution and that the present political, social, and economic conditions are the same as or are even more demanding today than they were when the proposed Amendment was first submitted for adoption:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the members of the Missouri Senate, One Hundredth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby ratify the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Archivist of the United States, Washington, D.C.; Vice President of the United States; Speaker of the United States House of Representatives; and each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation with request that it be printed in the Congressional Record.

Read 1st time.

The Joint Committee appointed to wait upon His Excellency, Governor Mike Parson, escorted the Governor to the dais where he delivered the State of the State Address to the Joint Assembly:

2019 STATE OF THE STATE
GOVERNOR MIKE PARSON

Thank you Lieutenant Governor Kehoe ...

Speaker Haahr...

President Pro-Tem Schatz...

Judges of the Missouri Supreme Court ...

Distinguished state officials...

Members of the 100th General Assembly...AND my fellow Missourians.

I am honored and proud to stand before you this afternoon as the 57th Governor of the state of Missouri.

And, one of the highest honors I have as Governor is to introduce the First Lady of the State of Missouri Teresa Parson.

I am so proud of her and the grace she brings to her position as First Lady.

And...I look forward to the days when we have more time to spend with each other...our family...and our grandchildren... But, until that time, our dedication... will be to the people of the State of Missouri.

Months ago I came into office amid rare and unique circumstances, yet the focus from day one of my administration was putting the people of Missouri first... where they belong, ahead of partisan differences or personal gain.

We traveled to every corner of this great State...we listened... we heard...and...we learned.

I stand before you today to share a vision. A vision that will chart Missouri's future into the next decade. Missouri is dear to my heart, and by working together, we can protect and build a Missouri that is successful for the next generation.

The more we listened, the more it became clear that the people of Missouri are ready for bold solutions.

Even when times are good, Missourians still face many issues and have a frustration with government that often works to protect the status quo and is unwilling to take bold steps.

However, to move Missouri forward, we must take bold steps and tackle big issues.

I will commit to you that bold ideas and tough challenges will not be something we shy away from, but my administration is willing to work with this legislature in a disciplined and focused way... and together, we can achieve big results and lay a solid foundation for our state's future.

It's time to have an honest conversation about the challenges we face and the solutions we need.

The honest truth is that we have not been as efficient as we can be. We don't promote our state, our resources, and our people as best we should, and we have not prepared our state well enough for the future... and every Missourian deserves better.

Make no mistake about it, we have before us one of the greatest opportunities, by working together to improve Missouri and to be the BEST in the United States of America.

The longer we delay and avoid tough decisions, the bigger our problems become.

Many of us are willing to admit this, and I hope you can agree that we cannot afford to delay action any longer. I am asking for your help to move Missouri forward and deliver results... because after all ... we are the Show Me State.

What this means in practical terms is that we have to be honest about our priorities and united in our focus.

As elected officials, we are good at declaring priorities. While some of our priorities may not be the same... when we try to make EVERYTHING a priority, the fact is... nothing is truly a priority.

So let me be crystal clear, cultivating and training our workforce for high-demand jobs and investing in critical infrastructure are the priorities we must address this session.

As I have traveled the state, I know these are issues important to every single one of your districts – whether republican or democrat, urban or rural, we have good reason to work together to achieve real results for ALL Missourians.

By addressing these issues now, we will make major investments for the next generations of the state of Missouri.

There of course will be other issues that are important, like passing tax credit reform, working to make government more efficient and more accountable, protecting freedoms and promoting a culture of life, and passing regulatory and venue reform.

ALL of which must be done.

But our focus for the state of Missouri to thrive both now and into the future are on two key priorities ... - workforce development and infrastructure.

Let me tell you a story about a young man with us today...

Troy is an eighth grader from Eldon who has experienced some hardships in his life. Troy's struggles are NOT unlike many families across Missouri.

Quaker Windows is a Missouri based company that has developed a partnership with Eldon Schools to ensure students like Troy have a mentor all throughout high school...

And, to make sure that he not only receives a quality education and training, but he is also taught valuable life skills... like, the importance of showing up on time and having a strong work ethic.

Quaker Windows and Eldon Schools have a community partnership. This example should be a model of how we approach new efforts to train the next generation of workers.

Please welcome Troy who is with us here today...

We must consider making necessary changes to our education programs and update the training pipelines to ensure economic growth in Missouri.

Our true dedication should be to build and create wealth... NOT REDISTRIBUTE IT.

For example, Missouri's high school graduation rate is higher than most states. This is something we should ALL be proud of...however, we fall behind other states when we look at post-secondary education.

We are well into the 21st century... and yes, extra levels of education are needed to meet the demands of our workforce... and these jobs are going to provide higher wages, which will benefit Missouri families.

This is why my budget calls for a total investment of nearly $75 million dollars into bold and innovative workforce development programs. Consider those programs that build off the many projects we already have in place like NGA West, Boeing's TX, Nucor Steel, and many others. When combined with our current economic development tools... ALL can be tremendously successful.

In today's world, a higher level of education should not simply mean getting college degrees. This is why I am advocating that we provide $22 million dollars to fund a program known as Fast Track.

Fast Track will allow Missourians to receive advanced training in high-demand areas largely taught at our community colleges, technical schools, and colleges and universities. This will open the doors for Missourians to have opportunities to earn more money for their hard work.

Fast Track...will benefit tens of thousands of Missourians from every corner of the state.

But, to have a laser-like focus, we can't stop there.

We must ALSO start integrating EMPLOYER and industry-led input into the needs and demands of the workforce, like increasing Industry Recognized Credentials as part of our high school curriculum.

To further workforce development, this focus must also extend into the economic development tools we use as well.

As a result, we are going to consolidate, repurpose, and add flexibility to a series of incentives we currently offer into a more streamlined program called Missouri One Start.

That is why I am adding $10 million dollars to the Missouri One Start program, to help place a greater emphasis on building out the workforce needs and for job creation projects, so companies who use them are forced to plant deeper roots here in Missouri and become longer and more substantial partners.

ALSO...we are providing $16 million dollars for Missouri Excels... a program for Missouri Higher Education Institutions to develop and expand employer-driven education, training programs, and initiatives to increase career readiness.

Finally, when looking ahead, we know that we are up against the clock... competing with every other state across the country... but Missouri will be ready, with the right tools in the toolbox... We'll be ready to ensure our state will move forward in workforce development... and ALL Missourians will prosper!

Not only is workforce development going to be a priority... but to ensure future success, we also need to take a serious look at long term investments in Missouri's infrastructure.

When we talk about infrastructure, we can no longer just think about bricks and mortar, roads and bridges, but also the location in which people look to invest capital and operate the economy of the future.

One of those areas in Missouri is high-speed broadband access. We currently have about ten school districts and many rural communities that lack access to high speed broadband... and that is unacceptable.

Most recently, thanks to the President and our federal delegation ... Missouri secured $255 million dollars for the expansion of broadband to connect our state.

With this exciting opportunity, it is also important we at the state provide funding to cover the gaps in delivering broadband.

That is why... my budget calls for an additional $5 million dollars in broadband funding to close the gap that exists in federal funds, and truly give the highest impact for Missourians.

Another area of focus is to put a greater emphasis on our Missouri ports. Located in the heart of the country we are at the center of major opportunities, especially with the expansion of the Panama Canal.

Missouri's agriculture and manufacturing industries have no better route to global expansion than delivering our high quality products to the world through our waterways.

In addition to our rivers...Missouri has one of the largest highway systems in the country, and since we sit at the nexus of east and west, this system receives a great deal of strain.

Nonetheless, we maintain this system with one of the lowest levels of funding in the country.

Over the years, we have seen proposals go before the voters and fail, but this cannot... and... does not mean we are expected to do NOTHING.

This is why I am asking you to consider an infrastructure plan. While funded through our budget savings, it will give us the ability to begin immediate work on nearly 250 bridges across the state of Missouri... all in need of critical repair or replacement.

By doing so, we will be freeing up nearly $350 million dollars in state and federal resources... allowing us to accelerate MoDOT's current list of state infrastructure projects.

ALSO, we will be adding a $50 million dollar cost sharing program to assist our cities and counties to help address the most serious infrastructure needs in our local areas.

In fact, this raises the challenge for each of us to find even more creative ways to locate savings to make more substantial investments in our infrastructure without a tax increase to the people of Missouri.

These priorities did not come without some tough decisions, but as I said to you before...

If we are to deliver on meaningful priorities to the people of Missouri, tough decisions... must... be... made.

As many of you know, the Department of Corrections is faced with many challenges. AND, we will NOT shy away from these challenges.

As a former sheriff and law enforcement officer for over 22 years... I understand, firsthand, the importance of re-entry programs and alternative sentencing... We need to be more efficient in these programs so we truly offer... a second chance... AND...As Governor, I am NOT interested in building more prisons.

In fact, we've identified a plan to consolidate the operations at Crossroads and Western Missouri facilities in Cameron, Missouri.

This decision is largely driven by our dedication to find efficiencies wherever we can in state government... and this can be done while ensuring safety... improving security... and delivering a MUCH needed pay raise.... ALL being done with no layoffs.

NOT only are we making tough decision within the Department of Corrections, but... our budget recommends another major change to reorganize and streamline the efforts of the departments of economic development and higher education... a plan which will make OUR government more efficient.

We have to start focusing more on the importance of OUTCOMES in state government and less on arguing over the inputs.

While this restructuring is important for the people of Missouri, I also want to be very clear that the problem is not our state workforce.

To the contrary, I have found overwhelmingly that we have a remarkable and dedicated state workforce.

But, we as elected leaders MUST do a better job clearly identifying expectations and priorities, communicating and managing responsibilities, and providing better training to promote our success.

Many of us in this chamber have programs in state government we think are important to our people, but as time goes by, Governors change... and legislators return home... and these programs grow with little oversight or accountability.

The result is an expanding bureaucracy which becomes less efficient for the people of Missouri.

Under my administration, we are going to fundamentally...

Restructure state government...

Demand greater efficiency and accountability...

AND improve our customer service to ALL Missourians.

I'll admit... this is going to take some time, but we are not going to put it off any longer... IT WILL START TODAY!

Just like families across Missouri... HAVING a responsible budget is important and a way of life.

For the first time in more than a decade, the Governor's budget does NOT plan to SPEND... EVERY... TAX ... DOLLAR.

We have a business smart budget that saves nearly $120 million dollars to ensure we are prepared for any unexpected expenses.

Our budget also proposes a reduction of nearly 430 government positions... all while maintaining our conservative approach to managing and streamlining government services.

In fact, our administration recently completed the state's largest deregulation effort, eliminating nearly one out of every five state regulations.

And, each of the initiatives I have laid out would not be possible without the drive, commitment, and dedication of the Cabinet because we will not be able to achieve the type of common sense conservative reforms and restructuring Missouri needs without the remarkable talent and leadership in THIS administration.

Please join me in recognizing the entire Cabinet seated in the upper gallery...

It is important to understand that being a good leader is not about being the best, but rather about your ability to make those around you better.

Every day my staff and Cabinet are committed and focused to making all of us better, pushing one another to make MISSOURI a better place.

Just weeks after I took office quick decisions had to be made on over a hundred legislative items and the 28 billion dollar state budget had to be approved.

By working together, we were able to save millions of taxpayer dollars and implement the largest tax cut in Missouri's history.

After taking the oath of office this summer, Missouri faced some tough and difficult times.

We experienced one of the worst droughts Missouri had witnessed for many years.

I called the administration together, and we reviewed our options.

To no surprise, we learned that the typical state government response was a series of requests to the federal government for assistance. We believed that was simply unacceptable for the farmers and families of Missouri.

And instead of pushing paper... it was time for us to do more...

Through the teamwork between the Departments of Natural Resources, Agriculture, and Conservation... we put Missouri state government to work for its people and delivered meaningful relief by working together.

Again, several weeks later, we experienced tough times... when 17 individuals tragically lost their lives in the Branson incident...

It was through the efforts of both state and local officials, including nearly every state department... that Missouri was able to quickly respond, recover, and offer immediate assistance to those in dire need.

We had tough times when we lost three local law enforcement officers, and six others were shot in the line of duty.

Thankfully, by God's grace, three members of the Kansas City Police Department are with us this afternoon after being shot in the line of duty. Please welcome these officers Matt Williams, Brent Cartwright, and Michael De-Laney.

As a former sheriff, I understand what it's like to lose an officer in the line of duty, and we owe ALL these brave men and women a debt of gratitude for their dedication to public safety.

It's only a matter of time before we again face tough situations... but by faith and working together, we can ... and we will... move Missouri forward...

I was proud that we were able to come together during a special session to finish YOUR legislative priorities and pass meaningful reform to our drug courts and create opportunities for STEM education in our high schools.

These are the successes I am confident we will be able to expect this legislative session because I am also willing to acknowledge no one person or party has a monopoly on good ideas, but the best ideas are those that will serve... the people of Missouri.

A key part of our efforts to improve Missouri's workforce and infrastructure is improving our citizen's health and healthcare by developing better access to providers and hospitals.

Almost 40 percent of Missourians live in rural areas... and, we are committed to making sure they too have access to both preventive and emergency care.

In addition, we will be providing a substantial increase to help those facing the challenges of mental health, expand tele-medicine technology, fight the opioid crisis, and better serve those in need.

I'd also like to introduce another very special guest here this afternoon, my great niece Zoey... who is one of thousands living with the challenges of Autism.

The First Lady and I are deeply committed to doing all that we can to learn more about, to promote awareness, and to advance Autism research.

That is why we are advocating for $1 million dollars to ensure families and parents have access to the right resources and are equipped to deal with the challenges that come with caring for a loved one with Autism.

Please welcome my great niece Zoey and her family to the chamber.

And, while my focus this legislative session will be on workforce development and infrastructure...

We have already started intense planning for next session... because we must also... curb Medicaid costs, which accounts for over 10 billion dollars of the state budget, and ...

That is the reason why I hired Director Todd Richardson... to lead this charge.

Safeguarding the integrity of the Missouri Medicaid program is vital to the state of Missouri... nearly one-third of Missouri's entire budget is devoted to the Medicaid program.

It must be run with the highest level of integrity to ensure every tax dollar is accounted for.

When I began this afternoon, I said it was time to have an honest conversation.

A big part of that conversation had to revolve around all of us recognizing we can do better, and as your Governor, I am committed to trying to get better every day myself.

I am willing to make the tough decisions that will put our state in a better position.

If we truly care about the next generation ... I am absolutely confident that by focusing on the major issues of workforce development and infrastructure... TOGETHER, we will have a successful legislative session... because, these are the issues that will benefit ALL Missourians.

In closing, I will leave you with a story about a young student that lives by these 10, 2-letter words:

"If it is to BE, it is up to ME."

"If it is to BE, it is up to ME."

These words have stayed with me after hearing his inspirational story. This young man had reached rock bottom and considered ending his life, but chose to overcome his obstacles and instead ... succeed in life.

When asked what motivated him, he mentioned those 10, 2 letter words ... "If it is to be, it is up to me."

Even as someone with my share of gray hair, I have to say that is wise advice.

If the American dream is to live on ...I challenge all of us to remember those 10, 2-letters words with one change...

"If it is to BE, it is up to US!"

"If it is to BE, it is up to US!"

It is an honor and privilege to be the 57th Governor of the State of Missouri.

God bless you; God bless the great state of Missouri, and God bless the United States of America.

On motion of Senator Rowden, the Joint Session was dissolved and the Senators returned to the Chamber where they were called to order by President Kehoe.
