

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

THIRTY-SECOND DAY—WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 2019

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Kehoe in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“I, wisdom, live with prudence, and I attain knowledge and discretion.” (Proverbs 8:12)

Omission God, we give You thanks for the gift of wisdom that we gain from living and making mistakes and learning from them. You help us understand ourselves and what we do and learn to understand and appreciate those with whom we work and live. You desire that we might always seek what is for our highest good and is most helpful for others. Continue with us, Lord, to seek Your guidance and Your presence in our lives that our actions are what You desire of us. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

Senator Hough offered SA 4:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 4

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 46 & 50, Page 208, Section 143.461, Line 24 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“143.551. 1. The director of revenue may grant a reasonable extension of time for payment of tax or estimated tax or any installment thereof, or for filing any return, declaration, statement, or other document required in sections 143.011 to 143.996 on such terms and conditions as he may require. Except for a taxpayer who is outside the United States, no such extension for filing any return, declaration, statement, or document, shall exceed six months.

2. If a taxpayer has been granted an extension of time for filing his or its federal income tax return, the filing of a copy of the extension or the form relating to an automatic extension with the director of revenue shall automatically extend the due date of the income tax return required by sections 143.011 to 143.996.

3. If a taxpayer has been granted an extension of time for paying his or its federal income tax, the filing of a copy of the extension with the director of revenue shall automatically extend the time for the payment of the tax required by sections 143.011 to 143.996.

4. If the time for filing a return is extended under subsection 2, but the time for payment is not extended under subsection 3, the taxpayer shall pay, on or before the date prescribed for the filing of the return (determined without regard to any extensions of time for such filing), the amount properly estimated as his or its tax for the taxable year.

5. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 143.511 to the contrary, any taxpayer who timely files an individual tax return under this chapter for the tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2018, and ending on or before December 31, 2018, may pay the tax due:

(a) On or before the date fixed for filing such return; or

(b) Under a monthly payment plan entered into with the department of revenue, provided the entire amount of tax due shall be paid no later than October 15, 2019.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, a taxpayer remitting tax under paragraph (b) of subdivision (1) of subsection 5 of this section shall not be subject to any penalties, interest, or additions to tax on the income tax paid under the payment plan, provided that any amount of tax not paid by October 15, 2019, shall be subject to the penalties, interest, and additions to tax provided under section 143.731.

(3) The department of revenue shall develop any forms and promulgate any rules that are reasonable and necessary to effectuate the provisions of this subsection. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010 that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after the effective date of this act shall be invalid and void.”; and

Further amend said bill, page 353, section B, line 3 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“Section C. Because of the need to provide relief to taxpayers for unexpected tax burdens, the repeal and reenactment of section 143.551 of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace, and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and the repeal and reenactment of section 143.551 of this act shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senator Hough moved that SA 4 be adopted, which motion prevailed.

Senator Schupp offered SA 5:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 5

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 46 & 50, Page 226, Section 144.014, Line 6, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“144.016. 1. Beginning October 1, 2019, the tax levied and imposed under this chapter on all retail sales of feminine hygiene products, diapers, and incontinence products shall be levied at a rate that shall not exceed the sales tax rate levied on the retail sale of food under section 144.014.

2. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean:

(1) “Diapers”, absorbent garments worn by infants or toddlers who are not toilet-trained or by individuals who are incapable of controlling their bladder or bowel movements;

(2) “Feminine hygiene products”, tampons, pads, liners, and cups;

(3) “Incontinence products”, products designed specifically for hygiene matters related to urinary incontinence, including but not limited to, adult diapers.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.
