Further amend said bill and page, section A, line 2, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“143.980. 1. This section shall be known as the “Taxpayer Protection Act”.

2. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) “Department”, the Missouri department of revenue;

(2) “Paid tax return preparer”, a person who prepares for compensation, or who employs one or more persons to prepare for compensation, any income tax return or claim for refund required to be filed under this chapter. The preparation of a substantial portion of a return or claim for refund shall be treated as the preparation of such return or claim for refund. A paid tax return preparer shall not include any certified public accountant who holds an active license issued by any state and the employees of such certified public accountant or certified public accounting firm or an enrolled agent enrolled to practice before the federal Internal Revenue Service pursuant to 31 C.F.R. The aggregate penalty that may be imposed by the department on any paid tax return preparer with respect to returns or claims for refund filed during any calendar year shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars per paid tax return preparer.

4. (1) In a court of competent jurisdiction, the director of revenue may commence suit to enjoin any paid tax return preparer from further engaging in any conduct described in subdivision (2) of this subsection, or from further action as a paid tax return preparer.

(2) In any action under subdivision (1) of this subsection, if the court finds that injunctive relief is appropriate to prevent the recurrence of willful or reckless conduct, the court may enjoin the paid tax return preparer from further engaging in any conduct specified in the action. (d) Where required, failed to furnish his or her preparer tax identification number;

(j) Guaranteed the payment of any income tax refund or the allowance of any income tax credit;
or

(k) Engaged in any other fraudulent or deceptive conduct that substantially interferes with the proper administration of the laws of this state.

(3) (a) If the court finds that a paid tax return preparer has continually or repeatedly engaged in any conduct described in subdivision (2) of this subsection and that an injunction prohibiting the conduct would not be sufficient to prevent the paid tax return preparer's interference with the proper administration of the laws of this state, the court may enjoin the paid tax return preparer from acting as a paid tax return preparer in Missouri.

(b) Being enjoined from preparing tax returns or claims for refund for the United States or any other state in the five years preceding the petition for an injunction under this section shall establish a prima facie case for an injunction to be issued under this section. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "state" shall mean a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States."; and
