The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Bernskoetter in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“You cannot escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today.” (President Abraham Lincoln)

We remember this day Abraham Lincoln’s birthday and remember most how in very humble but brilliant ways he provided leadership to our country at a crucial time as it was being torn apart. Help us Lord to be men and women who can provide leadership and caring that can help heal the painful gap created by anger and hatred that we see growing about us. Bless our efforts Lord so that what we seek to bring about will be seen with Your spirit within them. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

Any full or ex parte order of protection granted pursuant to sections 455.010 to 455.085 shall be to protect the petitioner from domestic violence, stalking, or sexual assault and may include such terms as the court reasonably deems necessary to ensure the petitioner’s safety, including but not limited to:

(1) Temporarily enjoining the respondent from committing or threatening to commit domestic violence, molesting, stalking, sexual assault, or disturbing the peace of the petitioner;
(2) Temporarily enjoining the respondent from entering the premises of the dwelling unit of the petitioner when the dwelling unit is:

(a) Jointly owned, leased or rented or jointly occupied by both parties; or
(b) Owned, leased, rented or occupied by petitioner individually; or

(d) Jointly occupied by the petitioner and a person other than respondent; provided that the respondent has no property interest in the dwelling unit; or

(3) Temporarily enjoining the respondent from communicating with the petitioner in any manner or through any medium.

2. Mutual orders of protection are prohibited unless both parties have properly filed written petitions and proper service has been made in accordance with sections 455.010 to 455.085.

3. When the court has, after a hearing for any full order of protection, issued an order of protection, it may, in addition:

(1) Award custody of any minor child born to or adopted by the parties when the court has jurisdiction over such child and no prior order regarding custody is pending or has been made, and the best interests of the child require such order be issued;

(2) Establish a visitation schedule that is in the best interests of the child;

(3) Award child support in accordance with supreme court rule 88.01 and chapter 452;

(4) Award maintenance to petitioner when petitioner and respondent are lawfully married in accordance with chapter 452;

(5) Order respondent to make or to continue to make rent or mortgage payments on a residence occupied by the petitioner if the respondent is found to have a duty to support the petitioner or other dependent household members;

(6) Order the respondent to pay the petitioner’s rent at a residence other than the one previously shared by the parties if the respondent is found to have a duty to support the petitioner and the petitioner requests alternative housing;

(7) Order that the petitioner be given temporary possession of specified personal property, such as automobiles, checkbooks, keys, and other personal effects;

(8) Prohibit the respondent from transferring, encumbering, or otherwise disposing of specified property mutually owned or leased by the parties;

(9) Order the respondent to participate in a court-approved counseling program designed to help batterers stop violent behavior or to participate in a substance abuse treatment program;

(1) Prohibit the respondent from knowingly possessing or purchasing any firearm while the order is in effect;

Upon receiving an order under this subsection, the state highway patrol shall notify the Federal Bureau of Investigation within twenty-four hours.

5. A verified petition seeking orders for maintenance, support, custody, visitation, payment of rent, payment of monetary compensation, possession of personal property, prohibiting the transfer, encumbrance, or disposal of property, or payment for services of a shelter for victims of domestic violence, shall contain allegations relating to those orders and shall pray for the orders desired.

[5.] 6. In making an award of custody, the court shall consider all relevant factors including the presumption that the best interests of the child will be served by placing the child in the custody and care of the nonabusive parent, unless there is evidence that both parents have engaged in abusive behavior, in which case the court shall not consider this presumption but may appoint a guardian ad litem or a court-appointed special advocate to represent the children in accordance with chapter 452 and shall consider all other factors in accordance with chapter 452.

[6.] 7. The court shall grant to the noncustodial parent rights to visitation with any minor child born to or adopted by the parties, unless the court finds, after hearing, that visitation would endanger the child’s physical health, impair the child’s emotional development or would otherwise conflict with the best interests of the child, or that no visitation can be arranged which would sufficiently protect the custodial parent from further domestic violence. The court may appoint a guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate to represent the minor child in accordance with chapter 452 whenever the custodial parent alleges that visitation with the noncustodial parent will damage the minor child.

[7.] 8. The court shall make an order requiring the noncustodial party to pay an amount reasonable and necessary for the support of any child to whom the party owes a duty of support when no prior order of support is outstanding and after all relevant factors have been considered, in accordance with Missouri supreme court rule 88.01 and chapter 452.

[8.] 9. The court may grant a maintenance order to a party for a period of time, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. Any maintenance ordered by the court shall be in accordance with chapter 452.

wireless service provider to transfer the billing responsibility for and rights to the wireless telephone number or numbers to the petitioner, if the petitioner is not the wireless service account holder.

(2) (a) The order transferring billing responsibility for and rights to the wireless telephone number or numbers to the petitioner shall list the name and billing telephone number of the account holder, the name and contact information of the person to whom the telephone number or numbers will be transferred, and each telephone number to be transferred to that person. The court shall ensure that the contact information of the petitioner is not provided to the account holder in proceedings held under this chapter.

(b) Upon issuance, a copy of the full order of protection shall be transmitted, either electronically or by certified mail, to the wireless service provider’s registered agent listed with the secretary of state, or electronically to the email address provided by the wireless service provider. Such transmittal shall constitute adequate notice for the wireless service provider acting under this section and section 455.523.

(c) If the wireless service provider cannot operationally or technically effectuate the order due to certain circumstances, the wireless service provider shall notify the petitioner within three business days. Such circumstances shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(6) As used in this section and section 455.523, a “wireless service provider” means a provider of commercial mobile service under Section 332(d) of the Federal [Telecommunications] Communications Act of [1996] 1934 (47 U.S.C. Section [151, et seq.] 332).

in another jurisdiction which, if committed in this state, would be chargeable or indictable as a violation of any offense listed in this section or section 565.225, or unless the victim is intentionally targeted as a law enforcement officer, as defined in section 556.061, or the victim is targeted because he or she is a relative within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity to a law enforcement officer, in which case stalking in the second degree is a class E felony.

5. Upon a conviction for the offense of stalking in the second degree, the court shall forward the record of conviction to the state highway patrol so that the state highway patrol can update the respondent’s record in the National Instant Criminal Background Check system (NICS). Upon receiving a record under this subsection, the state highway patrol shall notify the Federal Bureau of Investigation within twenty-four hours.” and Further amend said bill, page 20, section 571.070, line 5, by inserting immediately after “incompetent” the following: “;

(3) Such person has been convicted of a misdemeanor offense of domestic violence under the laws of this state, or of a crime under the laws of any state or of the United States that, if committed in this state, would be a misdemeanor offense of domestic violence; or

(4) Such person is subject to an order of protection granted under sections 455.010 to 455.095 or sections 455.500 to 455.538 that was issued after a hearing of which the person had actual notice and at which the person had an opportunity to participate or subject to an equivalent order issued under the laws of another state or the United States”; and further amend line 11, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“4. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) “Family or household member”, the same meaning as such term is defined under section 455.010;

(2) “Misdemeanor offense of domestic violence”:

(a) Domestic assault in the fourth degree under section 565.076;

(b) Stalking in the second degree under section 565.227; or

(c) Any misdemeanor offense committed by a family or household member of the victim that involves the use or attempted use of physical force or the threatened use of a deadly weapon.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senator Schupp moved that the above amendment be adopted.

Senator Emery raised a point of order that SA 1 is out of order as it goes beyond the title and the context within the bill.

The point of order was referred to the President Pro Tem, who ruled it well taken.

On motion of Senator Luetkemeyer, SS for SB 600 was declared perfected and ordered printed.
