“For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible.” (Matthew 19:26)

We know, O Lord that we are finite and a limited people in so much of life but with Your help all things are possible. So we pray for all those who seek a cure and vaccine for this world so we may be protected by the wisdom You provide. We pray for our Governor that his decisions are made through Your guidance. And we pray for those in the health profession who minister to the sick and dying that Your healing power may be made known and present. And we pray for this body as it discerns the very necessary decisions that are called forth from them at this time. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

“590.650. 1. The provisions of this section shall be known and may be cited as the “Fourth Amendment Affirmation Act”. As used in this section [”minority group” means individuals of African, Hispanic, Native American or Asian descent] the following terms mean:

(1) “Benchmark”, the number used as a basis of comparison in determining possible disproportions in law enforcement activities, including the following:

(a) The benchmark for measuring disproportions in vehicle stops shall be the proportions of drivers in racial or ethnic groups residing or traveling in a jurisdiction;

(b) The benchmark for measuring disproportions in post-stop activities shall be the racial or ethnic group’s proportion of stops; and

(c) The benchmark used to measure disproportions in hit rates shall be the group proportions of drivers searched;

(2) “Consent search”, a search authorized by the consent of the individual, not by probable cause;

(3) “Discriminatory policing”, circumstances in which the peace officer’s actions are based in whole or in part on the real or perceived race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, gender, English language proficiency, status as a person with a disability, or a person’s national origin rather than upon specific and articulable facts which, taken together with rational inferences from those facts, reasonably indicate criminal activity. “Discriminatory policing” does not include investigations of alleged crimes when law enforcement must seek out suspects who match a specifically delineated description;

(4) “Hit rate”, the rate of searches in which contraband is found. The hit rate is calculated by dividing the number of searches that yield contraband by the total number of searches. Hit rate may be calculated for individual officers, agencies, or multiple agencies;

(5) “Investigative stop”, any stop, by a peace officer, of a motor vehicle involving at least in part an investigation of a criminal violation other than a motor vehicle violation. Investigative stops can involve calls for service, stops conducted in support of an agency investigation, stops conducted because of a peace officer’s observations, stops made at a sobriety checkpoint or other road block, or other investigatory stops;

(6) “Minority group”, individuals of African, Hispanic, Native American, or Asian descent;

(7) “Ratio of disparity”, the ratio of the rate of stops or other peace officer activities for a non-white group as compared to the rate for the white group. The ratio of disparity for the white group shall be the white group rate compared to the rate for non-white groups;

(8) “Significant disparity”, a ratio of disparity that is over one hundred twenty-five percent of the overall state disparity for any minority group for that category of officer activity after controlling for factors other than discrimination that are contributing to the disparity;

(9) “Significant disproportion”, a ratio of disparity that is over one hundred twenty-five percent of the overall state ratio of disparity for any minority group for that category of peace officer activity.

2. Each time a peace officer stops a driver of a motor vehicle, that officer shall report at least the following information to the law enforcement agency that employs the officer:

(1) The age, gender and race or minority group of the individual stopped;

(2) Whether the driver resides in the jurisdiction of the stop;

(3) The reasons for the stop. Reasons for an investigative stop include, but are not limited to, calls for service, stops conducted in support of an agency investigation, stops conducted because of a peace officer’s observations, and stops made at a sobriety checkpoint or other road block;

[(3)] (4) Whether a search was conducted as a result of the stop;

[(4)] (5) If a search was conducted, whether the individual consented to the search, how the individual’s consent was documented, the probable cause for the search, whether the person was searched, whether the person’s property was searched, and the duration of the search;

[(5)] (6) Whether any contraband was discovered in the course of the search and the type of any contraband discovered;

[(6)] (7) Whether any warning or citation was issued as a result of the stop;

[(7)] (8) If a warning or citation was issued, the violation charged or warning provided;

[(8)] (9) Whether an arrest was made as a result of either the stop or the search;

[(9)] (10) If an arrest was made, the crime charged; and [(10)] (11) The location of the stop.

Such information may be reported using a format determined by the department of public safety which uses existing citation and report forms.

3. (1) Each law enforcement agency shall compile the data described in subsection 2 of this section for the calendar year into a report to the attorney general.

(2) Each law enforcement agency shall submit the report to the attorney general no later than March first of the following calendar year.

(3) The attorney general shall determine the format that all law enforcement agencies shall use to submit the report. The attorney general may allow the department of public safety to extract the data from other reports filed by law enforcement agencies.

4. (1) The attorney general shall analyze the annual reports of law enforcement agencies required by this section and submit a report of the findings to the governor, the general assembly and each law enforcement agency no later than June first of each year.

(2) The report shall identify situations in which data submitted by agencies indicate that racial and ethnic groups are disproportionately affected by law enforcement activity so that further analysis may be conducted to determine whether peace officers are engaging in discriminatory policing.

(3) The report shall provide group ratios of disparity for all categories of stops, post-stop activities, searches, and contraband found, using appropriate benchmarks as defined in subsection 1 of this section.

(4) The report of the attorney general shall include at least the following information for each agency and for the state overall:

(a) The total number of vehicles stopped by peace officers during the previous calendar year;

(b) The number and percentage of stopped motor vehicles that were driven by members of each particular minority group;

(c) [A comparison of the percentage of stopped motor vehicles driven by each minority group and the percentage of the state's population that each minority group comprises] Ratios of disparity for all categories of stops, post-stop activities, searches, and contraband using appropriate benchmarks as defined in subsection 1 of this section; and

(d) A compilation of the information reported by law enforcement agencies pursuant to subsection 2 of this section.

5. (1) Each law enforcement agency shall adopt a policy on [race-based traffic stops] discriminatory policing that:

[(1)] (a) Prohibits [the practice of routinely stopping members of minority groups for violations of vehicle laws as a pretext for investigating other violations of criminal law] discriminatory policing;

[(2)] (b) Provides for [periodic] annual reviews by the law enforcement agency of the annual report of the attorney general required by subsection 4 of this section that:

[(a)] a. Determine whether any peace officers of the law enforcement agency have a pattern of stopping members of minority groups for violations of vehicle laws in a number disproportionate to the population of minority groups residing or traveling within the jurisdiction of the law enforcement agency; and

[(b)] b. If the review reveals a pattern, require an investigation to determine whether any peace officers of the law enforcement agency [routinely stop members of minority groups for violations of vehicle laws as a pretext for investigating other violations of criminal law; and] engaged in discriminatory policing;

c. Include a review of complaints received by the law enforcement agency and a breakdown of which complaints were verified, found to be unfounded, remain active, and what steps were taken to address verified complaints. The review of complaints shall indicate the number of complaints alleging discriminatory policing that a law enforcement agency received; and

d. The results of the review shall be made public, however, no personnel information prohibited by law shall be disclosed; and

[(3)] (c) Provides for appropriate discipline, up to and including dismissal, counseling, and training of any peace officer found to have engaged in [race-based traffic stops] discriminatory policing within ninety days of the review.

The course or courses of instruction and the guidelines shall stress understanding and respect for racial and cultural differences, cultural competency, and development of effective, noncombative methods of carrying out law enforcement duties in a racially and culturally diverse environment.

(2) Each policy shall be in writing and accessible by the public. The attorney general shall certify that the discriminatory policing policy of each agency is substantially equivalent to the requirements of this subsection.

(3) Each policy shall put in place procedures to eliminate discriminatory policing.

6. When a motor vehicle has been stopped solely for a traffic violation, a peace officer shall request only the following documentation from only the driver of the motor vehicle:

(1) A driver's license or other verifiable government-issued identification, including foreign-issued identification;

(2) Motor vehicle registration; and

(3) Proof of insurance.

7. Each law enforcement agency shall establish policies to eliminate discriminatory policing in the administration of consent searches. The procedures shall include the following:

(1) A peace officer shall have specific and articulable facts about the individual that, taken together with rational inferences from those facts, lead the peace officer to reasonably believe a search is needed;

(2) The peace officer shall document, in writing, such specific articulable facts about the circumstances leading to the request for consent in individual searches and if multiple searches take place under the same circumstances at or near the same time;

(3) Prior to requesting consent for a search, a peace officer shall communicate orally or in writing, in a language that the person being questioned clearly understands, that the person's consent must be voluntary, that the voluntary consent authorizes the search even if the peace officer does not have probable cause to search, that the lawfulness of the search cannot be challenged in court if consent is given, and that the person has the right to refuse the request to search;

(4) After providing such advisement, a peace officer shall obtain voluntary written or recorded audio or video consent to the search;

(5) The peace officer shall document whether the person from whom the search was requested provided written consent, if that consent was recorded by audio or video, or whether consent was denied, and the law enforcement agency will submit this data for compilation in the attorney general's vehicle stop report;

(6) The peace officer shall not ask for consent when he or she has probable cause to conduct a search;

(7) Any evidence obtained as a result of a search prohibited by this section shall be inadmissible in any judicial proceeding; and

(8) Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed to preclude a search based upon probable cause.

8. (1) If a law enforcement agency fails to comply with the provisions of this section, the governor may withhold any state funds appropriated to the noncompliant law enforcement agency.

(2) If a law enforcement agency reports for three consecutive years a significant disproportion, the attorney general shall study the efforts of the law enforcement agency to decrease its disproportion during the prior three years. If the attorney general determines that a significant disparity exists, the agency shall be subject to review for a period of three additional years.

(3) If, in its second year of review, a law enforcement agency reports a significant disproportion, and the attorney general's study determines that a significant disparity exists, and the law enforcement agency cannot show good-faith efforts, as determined by the attorney general, to remedy the disparity, the attorney general shall require changes in the agency's policies and practices, including techniques for identifying problem officers, requirements that an officer's ratios of disparity along with any mitigating circumstances be a part of the record used to evaluate promotions and reassignments, training of supervisors in the skills necessary to eliminate discriminatory policing, and increasing the quality and quantity of officer training related to discriminatory policing. The attorney general's office shall work with other state agencies to provide financial assistance and expertise to facilitate these changes.

(4) If, in its third year of review, a law enforcement agency reports a significant disproportion and the attorney general's study determines a significant disparity exists, the attorney general shall also study the record of the law enforcement agency during the review period to determine if the disparities are of such magnitude that the law enforcement agency should be further penalized. The attorney general shall take into account whether the agency is making a good-faith effort to achieve nondiscriminatory policing. As a minimum penalty, the agency shall remain under review, with ongoing attorney general oversight, until such time as the agency's annual report shows that a significant disparity no longer exists or until such time as the attorney general's study determines that discriminatory policing is no longer a significant cause of the disparity. As a maximum penalty, or after six years of review, the attorney general shall order that the governing body or jurisdiction that the law enforcement agency serves be required, from that point forward, to forfeit twenty-five percent of its annual general operating revenue received from fines, bond forfeitures, and court costs for traffic violations, including amended charges for any traffic violations. The forfeited amount shall be paid to the general revenue fund of the state of Missouri, to be designated as additional funds for the peace officers standards and training commission. This penalty shall continue until such time as the law enforcement agency's annual report shows that a significant disparity no longer exists or until such time as the attorney general's study determines discriminatory policing is no longer a significant cause of the disparity.

[7.] 9. Each law enforcement agency in this state may utilize federal funds from community-oriented policing services grants or any other federal sources to equip each vehicle used for traffic stops with a video camera and voice-activated microphone or to purchase body cameras.

[8. A peace officer who stops a driver of a motor vehicle pursuant to a lawfully conducted sobriety check point or road block shall be exempt from the reporting requirements of subsection 2 of this section.]"; and
