AN ACT

To amend chapters 143 and 191, RSMo, by adding thereto seven new sections relating to long-term care savings accounts.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Chapters 143 and 191, RSMo, are amended by adding thereto
2 seven new sections, to be known as sections 143.1160, 191.1601, 191.1603, 3 191.1604, 191.1605, 191.1606, and 191.1607, to read as follows:

143.1160. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

2 (1) "Account holder", the same meaning as that term is defined
3 in section 191.1603;

4 (2) "Deduction", an amount subtracted from the taxpayer's
5 Missouri adjusted gross income to determine Missouri taxable income 6 for the tax year in which such deduction is claimed;

7 (3) "Eligible expenses", the same meaning as that term is defined 8 in section 191.1603;

9 (4) "Long-term dignity savings account", the same meaning as 10 that term is defined in section 191.1603;

11 (5) "Qualified beneficiary", the same meaning as that term is 12 defined in section 191.1603;

13 (6) "Taxpayer", any individual who is a resident of this state and 14 subject to the income tax imposed under this chapter, excluding 15 withholding tax imposed under sections 143.191 to 143.265.

16 2. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2021, a

17 taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction of one hundred percent of a 18 participating taxpayer's contributions to a long-term dignity savings 19 account in the tax year of the contribution. Each taxpayer claiming the 20 deduction under this section shall file an affidavit with the income tax 21 return verifying the amount of their contributions. The amount of the 22 deduction claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's 23 Missouri adjusted gross income for the tax year that the deduction is 24 claimed, and shall not exceed four thousand dollars per taxpayer 25 claiming the deduction, or eight thousand dollars if married filing 26 combined.

27 3. Income earned or received as a result of assets in a long-term 28 dignity savings account shall not be subject to state income tax 29 imposed under this chapter. The exemption under this section shall 30 apply only to income maintained, accrued, or expended pursuant to the 31 requirements of sections 191.1601 to 191.1607, and no exemption shall 32 apply to assets and income expended for any other purpose. The 33 amount of the deduction claimed shall not exceed the amount of the 34 taxpayer's Missouri adjusted gross income for the tax year the 35 deduction is claimed.

36 4. If any deductible contributions to or earnings from any such 37 programs referred to in this section are distributed and not used to pay 38 for eligible expenses or are not held for the minimum length of time 39 under subsection 2 of section 191.1605, the amount so distributed shall 40 be added to the Missouri adjusted gross income of the account holder 41 or, if the account holder is not living, the qualified beneficiary, in the 42 year of distribution.

43 5. The department of revenue shall promulgate rules to 44 implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, 45 as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the 46 authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it 47 complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, 48 if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are 49 nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general
50 assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, 51 or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held 52 unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule 53 proposed or adopted after August 28, 2020, shall be invalid and void.

54 6. Under section 23.253 of the Missouri sunset act:

55 (1) The provisions of the new program authorized under this 56 section shall automatically sunset on December thirty-first four years
57 after August 28, 2020, unless reauthorized by an act of the general 58 assembly;

59 (2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized 60 under this section shall automatically sunset on December thirty-first 61 four years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; 62 and

63 (3) This section shall terminate on September first of the 64 calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the 65 program authorized under this section is sunset.

191.1601. Section 143.1160 and sections 191.1601 to 191.1607 shall 2 be known and may be cited as the "Long-Term Dignity Act".

191.1603. As used in sections 191.1601 to 191.1607, the following 2 terms mean:

3 (1) "Account holder", an individual who establishes an account 4 with a financial institution that is designated as a long-term dignity 5 savings account in accordance with section 191.1604;

6 (2) "Department", the department of revenue;

7 (3) "Eligible expenses", the same meaning as "qualified long-term 8 care services" in 26 U.S.C. Section 7702B(c);

9 (4) "Financial institution", any state bank, state trust company, 10 savings and loan association, federally chartered credit union doing 11 business in this state, credit union chartered by the state of Missouri, 12 national bank, broker-dealer, mutual fund, insurance company, or other 13 similar financial entity qualified to do business in this state;

14 (5) "Long-term dignity savings account" or "account", an account 15 with a financial institution designated as such in accordance with 16 subsection 1 of section 191.1604;

17 (6) "Qualified beneficiary", an individual designated by an 18 account holder for whose eligible expenses the moneys in a long-term 19 dignity savings account are or will be used; provided, that such 20 individual meets the definition of a "chronically ill individual" in 26
21 U.S.C. Section 7702B(c)(2) at the time the moneys are used.

191.1604. 1. Beginning January 1, 2021, any individual may open 2 an account with a financial institution and designate the account, in its entirety, as a long-term dignity savings account to be used to pay or reimburse a qualified beneficiary's eligible expenses. An individual may be the account holder of multiple accounts, and an individual may jointly own the account with another person if such persons file a married filing combined income tax return. To be eligible for the tax deduction under section 143.1160, an account holder shall comply with the requirements of this section.

2. An account holder shall designate, no later than April fifteenth of the year following the tax year during which the account was established, a qualified beneficiary of the long-term dignity savings account. The account holder may designate himself or herself as the qualified beneficiary. The account holder may change the designated qualified beneficiary at any time, but no long-term dignity savings account shall have more than one qualified beneficiary at any time. No account holder shall have multiple accounts with the same qualified beneficiary, but an individual may be designated as the qualified beneficiary of multiple accounts.

3. Moneys may remain in a long-term dignity savings account for an unlimited duration without the interest or income being subject to recapture or penalty.

4. The account holder shall not use moneys in an account to pay expenses of administering the account, except that a service fee may be deducted from the account by a financial institution. The account holder shall be responsible for maintaining documentation for the long-term dignity savings account and for the qualified beneficiary's eligible expenses.

191.1605. 1. For purposes of the tax benefit conferred under the long-term dignity savings account act, the moneys in a long-term dignity savings account may be:

- (1) Used for a qualified beneficiary's eligible expenses;
- (2) Transferred to another newly created long-term dignity savings account; and
- (3) Used to pay a service fee that is deducted by the financial institution.

2. Moneys withdrawn from a long-term dignity savings account shall be subject to recapture in the tax year in which they are withdrawn if:

12 (1) At the time of the withdrawal, it has been less than a year 13 since the first deposit in the long-term dignity savings account; or 14 (2) The moneys are used for any purpose other than those 15 specified under subsection 1 of this section.

16 The recapture shall be an amount equal to the moneys withdrawn and 17 shall be added to the Missouri adjusted gross income of the account 18 holder or, if the account holder is not living, the qualified beneficiary.

19 3. If any moneys are subject to recapture under subsection 2 of 20 this section, the account holder shall pay to the department a penalty 21 in the same tax year as the recapture. If the withdrawal was made ten 22 or fewer years after the first deposit in the long-term dignity savings 23 account, the penalty shall be equal to five percent of the amount 24 subject to recapture, and, if the withdrawal was made more than ten 25 years after the first deposit in the account, the penalty shall be equal 26 to ten percent of the amount subject to recapture. These penalties shall 27 not apply if the withdrawn moneys are from a long-term dignity savings 28 account for which the qualified beneficiary died, and the account 29 holder does not designate a new qualified beneficiary during the same 30 tax year.

31 4. If the account holder dies or, if the long-term dignity account 32 is jointly owned, the account holders die and the account does not have 33 a surviving transfer-on-death beneficiary, then all of the moneys in the 34 account that were used for a tax deduction under section 143.1160 shall 35 be subject to recapture in the tax year of the death or deaths, but no 36 penalty shall be due to the department.

191.1606. 1. The department shall establish forms for an account
2 holder to annually report information about a long-term dignity savings 3 account including, but not limited to, how the moneys withdrawn from 4 the fund are used, and shall identify any supporting documentation
5 that is required to be maintained. To be eligible for the tax deduction 6 under section 143.1160, an account holder shall annually file with the 7 account holder's state income tax return all forms required by the 8 department under this section, the 1099 form for the account issued by 9 the financial institution, and any other supporting documentation the 10 department requires.

11 2. The department may promulgate rules and regulations 12 necessary to administer the provisions of sections 191.1601 to 13 191.1607. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in 14 section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this 15 section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to 16 all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 17 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of 18 the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 19 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule 20 are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking 21 authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2020, shall 22 be invalid and void.

191.1607. 1. No financial institution shall be required to:

2 (1) Designate an account as a long-term dignity savings account 3 or designate the beneficiaries of an account in the financial 4 institution's account contracts or systems or in any other way;

5 (2) Track the use of moneys withdrawn from a long-term dignity 6 savings account; or

7 (3) Report any information to the department or any other 8 governmental agency that is not otherwise required by law.

9 2. No financial institution shall be responsible or liable for:

10 (1) Determining or ensuring that an account holder is eligible for 11 a tax deduction under section 143.1160;

12 (2) Determining or ensuring that moneys in the account are used 13 for eligible expenses; or

14 (3) Reporting or remitting taxes or penalties related to use of 15 moneys in a long-term dignity savings account.

16 3. In implementing sections 143.1160 and 191.1601 to 191.1607, the 17 department shall not establish any administrative, reporting, or other 18 requirements on financial institutions that are outside the scope of 19 normal account procedures.
