Senator Schupp offered the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 222

Whereas, this year Holocaust and Heroism Remembrance Day, known in Israel as Yom HaShoah, begins at sundown on Wednesday, April 7th and ends at sundown today, April 8th. In Israel, Yom HaShoah falls on the 27th day of the month of Nisan, which falls on different dates in the United States from year-to-year; and

Whereas, on this date we commemorate those who participated in the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising and, for several weeks and against all odds, fended off the Nazis' attempts to deport and murder them. In Israel, on the morning of Yom HaShoah, a siren is sounded for two minutes throughout the country, and all work and other activity stops while people remember and honor all who died in the Holocaust; and

Whereas, the Holocaust Education and Awareness Commission of the State of Missouri, whose mission is to promote Holocaust education and awareness throughout the state in order to broaden understanding and discourage bigotry, understands that we must learn from the past so that we do not repeat it; and

Whereas, learning from the past means strongly condemning anti-Semitism, as well as intolerance in all forms and any variety of Holocaust denial. As is widely known, acts of anti-Semitism continue to occur. It has been documented that they are on the rise. One hears and reads of them even within the state of Missouri. Such acts of intolerance, against anyone, should be condemned. Just as neighbors can harm neighbors, neighbors can also stand with neighbors, working to help one another and to improve one another's lives; and

Whereas, it is undeniable that the Holocaust happened. It was among the defining events of the twentieth century. There are still survivors who recall it, and we must hear their stories and learn from them. Listening to survivors, learning from the mistakes of the past, and respectfully looking out for one another's well-being are steps that each of us can take to ensure that the Holocaust never happens again:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the members of the Missouri Senate, One Hundred First General Assembly, First Regular Session, hereby commemorate Holocaust and Heroism Remembrance Day, known in Israel as Yom HaShoah, remember and honor all of those persons who died in the Holocaust, and condemn all acts of intolerance against any person; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Holocaust Education and Awareness Commission of the State of Missouri.

The Senate observed a moment of silence in remembrance of the Holocaust.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Brattin offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 20

Whereas, in 1922 the United States Supreme Court ruled that the Sherman Antitrust Act did not apply to Major League Baseball because the league is a sport and not a business; and

Whereas, Major League Baseball chose to politicize baseball by moving the All-Star Game out of the state of Georgia based on misleading and factually inaccurate information about the Georgia voting law; and

Whereas, Major League Baseball's decision to move the All-Star Game to Colorado, a state with substantially similar voting laws to Georgia, is rank hypocrisy and suggests Major League Baseball's decision is not based on its interest in voting laws but rather partisanship and public relations; and

Whereas, the move will cost the state of Georgia an estimated $100 million; and

Whereas, in 2019, the combined revenue of all Major League Baseball teams was $10.37 billion and the average revenue per Major League Baseball team was $345.8 million, Major League Baseball is structured as a business, functions as a business, and realizes revenue far and above most businesses, Major League Baseball is a business and should be treated as such; and

Whereas, it is time for the federal government to stop granting special privileges to specific, favored corporations, especially ones that use their position and power to punish their political opponents; and

Whereas, the antitrust exemption for Major League Baseball has been debated for years, its actions have shown it is not just a sport, and it is time to end the league's special status:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the members of the Missouri Senate, One Hundred First General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby call on the United State Congress to pass the Teddy Roosevelt Fair Competition and Public Trust Act of 2021 to abrogate the holding in Federal Baseball Club v. National League, 259 U.S. 200 (1922), thereby ending Major League Baseball's antitrust exemption; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.
