SENATE AMENDMENT NO.

Offered by	 Of
	-

Amend SS/SCS/Senate Bill No. 931, Page 55, Section 407.475, Line 18,

2	by inserting all of said line the following:
3	"431.201. As used in section 431.202, unless the
4	context otherwise requires, the following terms mean:
5	(1) "Business entity", any natural person, business,
6	corporation, limited liability company, series limited
7	liability company, partnership, sole or other
8	proprietorship, professional practice, or any other business
9	organization or commercial enterprise, whether for profit or
10	not for profit, including, without limitation, any successor
11	in interest to an entity who conducts business or who,
12	directly or indirectly, owns any equity interest, ownership,
13	or profit participation in the entity;
14	(2) "Customers with whom the employee dealt", each
15	customer or prospective customer:
16	(a) Who was serviced, directly or indirectly, by an
17	employee of a business entity;
18	(b) Whose business or other dealings with a business
19	entity were supervised, coordinated, or otherwise worked on,
20	directly or indirectly, by an employee;
21	(c) Who was solicited, produced, induced, persuaded,
22	encouraged, or otherwise dealt with, directly or indirectly,
23	by an employee;
24	(d) About whom an employee, directly or indirectly,
25	obtained, had knowledge of, had access to, or is in
26	possession of confidential business or proprietary

- information or trade secrets in the course of or as a result 27 of the employee's relationship with the business entity; 28 29 (e) Who has purchased or otherwise obtained products or services from a business entity and the sale or provision 30 of which resulted in compensation, commissions, earnings, or 31 profits to or for the employee within two years prior to the 32 end of the employee's employment or business relationship 33 34 with the business entity; or 35 (f) With whom an employee had contact, directly or 36 indirectly, of sufficient quality, frequency, and duration during the employee's employment or other business 37 38 relationship with the business entity such that the employee 39 had influence over the customer; 40 (3) "Employee": (a) A natural person currently or formerly employed or 41 42 retained by a business entity in any capacity, or who has 43 performed work for a business entity, including, but not 44 limited to, a member of a board of directors, an officer, a supervisor, an independent contractor, or a vendor; 45 46 (b) A natural person who, by reason of having been employed by or having a business relationship with a 47 business entity: 48 49 a. Obtained specialized skills, training, learning, or 50 abilities; or 51 b. Obtained, had knowledge of, had access to, or is in 52 possession of confidential or proprietary business 53 information or trade secrets of the business entity, including, but not limited to, customer contact information 54 or information of or belonging to customers of the business 55 entity; or 56 (c) A current or former owner or seller of all or any 57
 - part of the assets of a business entity or of any interest in a business entity, including, but not limited to, all or

58

59

```
60
    any part of the shares of a corporation, a partnership 61
    interest, a membership or membership interest in a limited 62
    liability company or a series limited liability company, or an equity interest, ownership, profit participation, or 63
    other interest of any type in any business entity;
64
65
              The term "employee" set forth in this subdivision shall be applicable only with respect to section 431.202 and 66
67
    shall have no application in any other context. The term
    "employee" is not intended, and shall not be relied upon, to 68
69
    create, change, or affect the employment status of any 70
    natural person or the meaning of the terms "employee",
    "employment", or "employer" that may be applicable in any 71
72
    other context or pursuant to any other provision of law.
73
         431.202. 1. A reasonable covenant in writing 74 promising not to solicit, recruit, hire, induce, persuade, 75
    encourage, or otherwise interfere with, directly or 76 indirectly, the employment or other business relationship of one or more employees of a business entity shall be 77
    enforceable and not a restraint of trade pursuant to 78
79 subsection 1 of section 416.031 if:
          (1) Between two or more [corporations or other]
80
81
    business entities seeking to preserve workforce stability 82
    (which shall be deemed to be among the protectable interests 83
    of each [corporation or] such business entity) during, and for a reasonable period following, negotiations between such 84
    [corporations or] business entities for the acquisition of 85
    all or a part of one or more of such [corporations or] 86
    business entities;
87
88
          (2) Between two or more [corporations or] business
89 entities engaged in a joint venture or other legally 90 permissible business arrangement where such covenant seeks to protect against possible misuse of confidential business 91
```

or proprietary information or trade [secret business

92

- 93 information] secrets shared or to be shared between or among 94 such [corporations or] entities;
- 95 (3) Between [an employer] a business entity and one or 96 more employees of such business entity seeking on the part 97 of the [employer] business entity to protect:
- 98 (a) Confidential business or proprietary information 99 or trade [secret business information] secrets; or
- 100 (b) Customer or supplier relationships, goodwill or 101 loyalty, which shall be deemed to be among the protectable 102 interests of the [employer] business entity; or
- Between [an employer] a business entity and one or 103 104 more employees of such business entity, notwithstanding the absence of the protectable interests described in 105 106 subdivision (3) of this subsection, so long as such covenant 107 does not continue for more than [one year] two years 108 following the employee's employment or business relationship 109 with the business entity; provided, however, that this subdivision shall not apply to covenants signed by employees 110 111 who provide only secretarial or clerical services and who 112 own no shares, partnership interest, membership or membership interest in a limited liability company or series 113 limited liability company, or equity interest, ownership, 114 profit participation, or other interest of any type in the 115 116 business entity.
- 2. Whether a covenant covered by subsection 1 of this section is reasonable shall be determined based upon the facts and circumstances pertaining to such covenant, but a covenant covered exclusively by subdivision (3) or (4) of subsection 1 of this section shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable if its postemployment or postbusiness duration is no more than [one year] two years.
- 3. A reasonable covenant in writing promising not to solicit, induce, persuade, encourage, service, accept business from, or otherwise interfere with, directly or 126 127 indirectly, a business entity's customers, including, 128 without limitation, any reduction, termination, or transfer of any customer's business, in whole or in part, for 129 130 purposes of providing any product or any service that is 131 competitive with those provided by the business entity, shall be enforceable, and not a restraint of trade pursuant 132 133 to subsection 1 of section 416.031, if the covenant is limited to customers with whom the employee dealt during the 134 135 employee's employment or other business relationship with the business entity, and if: 136 (1) The covenant is between a business entity and one 137 138 or more current or former employees of the business entity and is not associated with the sale or ownership of all or 139 140 any part of: (a) The assets of a business entity; or 141 142 (b) Any interest in a business entity, including, but 143 not limited to, all or any part of the shares of a 144 corporation, a partnership interest, a membership or 145 membership interest in a limited liability company or series limited liability company, or an equity interest, ownership, 146 profit participation, or other interest of any type in any 147 148 business entity; 149 so long as the covenant does not continue for more than two years following the end of the employee's employment or 150 151 business relationship with the business entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this subdivision shall not 152 apply to covenants with current or former distributors, 153 dealers, franchisees, lessees of real or personal property, 154 or licensees of a trademark, trade dress, or service mark; 155 (2) The covenant is between a business entity and a 156 current or former distributor, dealer, franchisee, lessee of 157

real or personal property, or licensee of a trademark, trade

158

159 dress, or service mark, and is not associated with the sale 160 or ownership of all or any part of any of the items provided 161 in paragraphs (a) or (b) of subdivision (1) of this subsection, so long as such covenant does not continue for 162 more than three years following the end of the business 163 164 relationship; or The covenant is between a business entity and the 165 166 owner or seller of all or any part of any of the items provided in paragraphs (a) or (b) of subdivision (1) of this 167 subsection, so long as the covenant does not continue for 168 more than the longer of five years in duration or the period 169 170 of time during which payments are being made to the owner or 171 seller as a result of any sale measured from the date of termination, closing, or disposition of such items. 172 173 (a) A breach or threatened breach of a covenant 174 described in this subdivision shall create a conclusive 175 presumption of irreparable harm in the absence of an 176 issuance of injunctive relief in connection with the 177 enforcement of the covenant, without the necessity of 178 establishing by prima facie evidence any actual or 179 threatened damages or harm. Nothing in this paragraph shall 180 be construed to change any other applicable evidentiary standard or other standards necessary for obtaining 181 182 temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctive relief 183 relating to the enforcement of covenants. 184 (b) A provision in writing by which an employee 185 promises to provide prior notice to a business entity of the employee's intent to terminate, sell, or otherwise dispose 186 of all or any part of any of the items covered by this 187 188 subdivision shall be conclusively presumed to be enforceable, and not a restraint of trade pursuant to 189 subsection 1 of section 416.031, if the specified notice 190 191 period is no longer than thirty days in duration and the

- business entity agrees in writing to pay the employee at the employee's regular rate of pay and to provide the employee with the employee's regular benefits during the applicable notice period even if the business entity does not require the employee to provide services during the notice period.
- 197 4. Whether a covenant covered by subsection 3 of this section is reasonable shall be determined based upon the 198 199 facts and circumstances pertaining to the covenant, but a 200 covenant covered by subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 3 201 of this section shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable if its postemployment, posttermination, 202 postbusiness relationship, postsale, or postdisposition 203 204 duration is consistent with the applicable duration set 205 forth in subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 3 of this 206 section.
- 207 5. No express reference to geographic area shall be 208 required for a covenant described in this section to be 209 enforceable.
- 211 not reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate business
 212 interests of the person seeking enforcement of the covenant, 213 a court shall modify the covenant, enforce the covenant as 214 modified, and grant only the relief reasonably necessary to 215 protect such interests.
- 216 7. Nothing in subdivision (3) or (4) of subsection 1
 217 or subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 3 of this section 218 is intended to create, or to affect the validity or 219 enforceability of, [employer-employee] covenants not to 220 compete, other types of covenants, or nondisclosure or 221 confidentiality agreements, except as expressly provided in 222 this section.
- 223 [4.] 8. Nothing in this section shall preclude a covenant described in subsection 1 of this section from

225	being enforceable in circumstances other than those
226	described in subdivisions (1) to (4) of subsection 1 of this
227	section, or a covenant described in subsection 3 of this
228	section from being enforceable in circumstances other than
229	those described in subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 3
230	of this section, where such covenant is reasonably necessary
231	to protect a party's legally permissible business interests.
232	[5.] 9. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this
233	$\underline{\text{section,}}$ nothing $\underline{\text{is}}$ $\underline{\text{in}}$ this section shall be construed to
234	limit an employee's ability to seek or accept employment
235	with another employer immediately upon, or at any time
236	subsequent to, termination of employment, whether said
237	termination was voluntary or nonvoluntary.
238	[6.] $\underline{10.}$ This section shall have retrospective as well
239	as prospective effect."; and
240	Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.