

Journal of the Senate

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

---

TWENTY-FIRST DAY—TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2022

---

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Kehoe in the Chair.

The Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“For you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings, says the Lord of host.” (Malachi 4:2)

Gracious God as the sun rose this day and we rejoice in clear weather and rising temperature, even if for a short time, we give You thanks for all that comes from Your gracious hand. We are thankful for the opportunity to serve and lead those who need our help throughout this state. We would ask as many still suffer from Covid and its variances that Your guidance be given to those who provide comfort and healing and Your people recover and be well. So, we pray for all those who call upon You for help that it be given. And we pray that You will bless us in our work this week and help us find ways to work together. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

Senator Hough assumed the Chair.

Senator Rowden moved that further reading of the Journal for the Nineteenth Day, Friday, February 11, 2022, be dispensed with and the same be approved as having been fully read.

RESOLUTIONS

Senator Eigel offered Senate Resolution No. 561, regarding James Adkins, St. Peters, which was adopted.

Senator Crawford offered Senate Resolution No. 562, regarding the One Hundredth Anniversary of the Sedalia Kiwanis Club, which was adopted.

Senator Razer offered the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 563

Whereas, Missouri and the United Kingdom have long been trade partners and trade nearly two billion dollars in goods and services annually; and

Whereas, over fifty United Kingdom companies are currently invested in Missouri, and over twenty-five Missouri companies are currently invested in the United Kingdom; and

Whereas, Missouri and the United Kingdom have many historical connections, including:

- (1) One million Missourians who can trace their ancestry to the British Isles;
- (2) America’s National Churchill Museum in Fulton, Missouri, which is located at the site of Sir Winston Churchill’s famous 1946 Iron Curtain speech and is housed beneath a chapel built by Sir Christopher Wren that was relocated from London; and
- (3) The first state-level Friends of the United Kingdom caucus in the United States; and

Whereas, a free trade agreement would create employment opportunities for Missouri residents as a direct result of removing and reducing barriers to trade and to free markets and would increase Missouri exports to the United Kingdom; and

Whereas, Missouri would benefit greatly from the ratification of a comprehensive free trade agreement, especially in the shared industries of manufacturing, agriculture, health innovation, and next-generation energy sources; and

Whereas, trade and investment between Missouri and the United Kingdom would be mutually beneficial, especially in the areas of AgTech and agriculture, license reciprocity, apprenticeships, energy innovation, medical research, and geospatial analysis; and

Whereas, the United States Constitution grants the United States Congress exclusive authority to regulate commerce with foreign nations; and

Whereas, the negotiation of a successful free trade agreement between the United States and the United Kingdom will require bipartisan cooperation between state, federal, and foreign governments; and

Whereas, increasing global trade, especially with the United Kingdom, is of vital importance to the growth of the United States’ economy, to small business participation in the international marketplace, and to job creation:

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that we, the members of the Missouri Senate, One Hundred First General Assembly, Second Regular Session, hereby urge:

- (1) The United States Congress to grant trade promotion authority to the executive branch;
- (2) The executive branch of the United States to complete a timely and successful negotiation of a comprehensive and mutually beneficial free trade agreement between the United States and the United Kingdom; and
- (3) The United States Congress to ratify such agreement; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for President Joe Biden, Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, each member of Missouri's congressional delegation, and Governor Mike Parson.

Senator Hoskins offered Senate Resolution No. 564, regarding Eagle Scout Parker Savage, Chillicothe, which was adopted.

Senator Hoskins offered Senate Resolution No. 565, regarding Eagle Scout Clayton Savage, Chillicothe, which was adopted.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Bean offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 33

Whereas, the cultivation and harvesting of peaches in Campbell, Missouri has long been an integral part of the city and region; and

Whereas, with a mild climate and soil that is good for producing quality peaches, Campbell is the perfect growing spot for peaches; and

Whereas, almost eighty-five percent of the state's peach harvest is grown in Campbell; and

Whereas, local peach growers have over 125,000 peach trees on more than 1,000 acres; and

Whereas, local peach growers employ local teenagers and seasonal workers each season to harvest the peaches, in addition to year round staff; and

Whereas, from its annual Missouri Peach Fair to the peach basket water tower, the city of Campbell has long been known as the peach capital of the state of Missouri:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved by the members of the Missouri Senate, One Hundred First General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, that the city of Campbell, Missouri, shall be known as the Peach Capital of Missouri; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the city of Campbell.
