

SECOND REGULAR SESSION
SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR

SENATE BILL NO. 886

101ST GENERAL ASSEMBLY

3707S.02C

ADRIANE D. CROUSE, Secretary

AN ACT

To repeal sections 456.4-419, 456.5-504, and 456.5-505, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof five new sections relating to trusts.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 456.4-419, 456.5-504, and 456.5-505, RSMo, are repealed and five new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 456.026, 456.1-114, 456.4-419, 456.5-504, and 456.5-505, to read as follows:

456.026. For purposes of determining whether a trust that is subject to the rule against perpetuities violates said rule, if there is only one beneficiary of the trust who is entitled or eligible to receive distributions of income or principal from the trust, such beneficiary holds a general power of appointment over the trust, and no other person has a power to appoint any part of the trust to anyone other than the beneficiary, then the beneficiary has a vested interest in the trust, regardless of whether such general power is presently exercisable or is exercisable only at the powerholder's death.

456.1-114. 1. For purposes of interpreting a term of familial relationship in a trust, "descendants", "issue", "children", and similar terms of relationship shall be construed as follows:

EXPLANATION-Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

5 (1) A child conceived or born of a marriage is 6 presumed to be a child of the persons so married unless a 7 judicial proceeding is commenced before the death of the 8 presumed parent and it is finally determined in such 9 proceeding that the presumed parent is not the parent of the 10 child;

11 (2) A child who is not conceived or born of a marriage 12 is presumed to not be a child of a person who did not give 13 birth to the child unless:

14 (a) A judicial proceeding commenced before the death 15 of such person determined that such person is a parent of 16 the child; or

17 (b) Such person openly recognized the child as his or 18 her child and such person has not refused to voluntarily 19 support the child. A trustee may rely on its discretion 20 regarding the sufficiency of recognition or support, and the 21 trustee shall not be liable to any person for its exercise 22 of this discretion unless the trustee acts in bad faith or 23 with reckless indifference to the purposes of the trust or 24 the interests of the beneficiaries; and 25 (3) A child adopted prior to the age of eighteen is 26 the child of an adopting parent and not of the natural 27 parents, except that adoption of a child by the spouse of a 28 natural parent has no effect on the relationship between the 29 child and such natural parent.

30 2. If a parent-child relationship is established 31 pursuant to this section, the rights afforded to the child 32 shall not be retroactive, but instead shall apply from the 33 time the relationship is established.

34 3. The terms of a trust shall prevail over any 35 provision of this section.

456.4-419. 1. Unless the terms of the trust instrument expressly provide otherwise, a trustee, other than a settlor, who has discretionary power under the terms of a trust to make a distribution of income or principal, whether or not limited by an ascertainable standard, to or for the benefit of one or more beneficiaries of a trust, the first trust, may instead exercise such discretionary power by [appointing] distributing all or part of the income or principal subject to such discretionary power in favor of a trustee of a second trust, the second trust, created under either the same or different trust instrument in the event that the trustee of the first trust decides that the [appointment] distribution is necessary or desirable after taking into account the terms and purposes of the first trust, the terms and purposes of the second trust, and the consequences of the distribution. A trustee may exercise the power described in this subsection by distributing property from the first trust to one or more second trusts or by modifying the trust instrument for the first trust which, as modified, becomes one or more second trusts.

2. With respect to a second trust to which a distribution is made pursuant to subsection 1 of this section:

(1) At least one permissible distributee of the first trust shall be a permissible distributee of the second trust immediately after the distribution;

(2) If, at the time of the distribution, the settlor of the first trust is living and the first trust is not a grantor trust under Subpart E of Part I of Subchapter J of Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, there may not be any permissible distributee of the second trust immediately after the distribution who is not a permissible distributee of the first trust;

(3) If, at the time of the distribution, the settlor of the first trust is deceased or if, at the time of the distribution, the first trust is a grantor trust under Subpart E of Part I of Subchapter J of Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, for reasons other than the trustee having the power granted by this section, any beneficiary of the first trust may be included as a permissible distributee of the second trust immediately after the distribution;

(4) The second trust may not include any beneficiary who is not a beneficiary of the first trust; and

(5) The trust instrument for the second trust may retain, modify, or omit a power of appointment granted in the first trust, and the trust instrument for the second trust may create a power of appointment if the powerholder is a beneficiary of the second trust. Except to the extent provided otherwise in subsection 4 of this section, a power of appointment in the trust instrument for the second trust may be a general or nongeneral power of appointment and the permissible appointees of the power need not be limited to the beneficiaries of the first trust.

3. The following provisions apply to a trust that has a beneficiary with a disability:

(1) As used in this subsection, the following terms mean:

(a) "Beneficiary with a disability", a beneficiary of a first trust who the special-needs fiduciary believes may qualify for governmental benefits based on disability, whether or not the beneficiary currently receives those

63 benefits or is an individual who has been adjudicated 64 disabled or adjudicated incapacitated;

65 (b) "Governmental benefits", financial aid or services 66 from a state, federal, or other public agency;

67 (c) "Special-needs fiduciary", with respect to a trust 68 that has a beneficiary with a disability:

69 a. A trustee or other fiduciary, other than a settlor, 70 who has discretionary power under the terms of a trust to 71 make a distribution of income or principal, whether or not 72 limited by an ascertainable standard, to or for the benefit 73 of one or more beneficiaries; or

74 b. If no trustee or fiduciary has discretion under 75 subparagraph a. of this paragraph, a trustee or other 76 fiduciary, other than a settlor, who is required to 77 distribute part or all of the income or principal of the 78 first trust to or for the benefit of one or more 79 beneficiaries;

80 (d) "Special-needs trust", a trust the trustee 81 believes would not be considered a resource for purposes of 82 determining whether a beneficiary with a disability is 83 eligible for governmental benefits;

84 (2) A special-needs fiduciary may exercise the 85 authority granted by subsection 1 of this section if:

86 (a) A second trust is a special-needs trust that 87 benefits the beneficiary with a disability; and

88 (b) The special-needs fiduciary determines that 89 exercise of the authority pursuant to subsection 1 of this 90 section will further the purposes of the first trust; and

91 (3) The following provisions apply to any exercise of 92 the authority granted by this subsection:

93 (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (4)
94 of subsection 2 of this section to the contrary, the terms 95 of the second trust may:

96 a. Provide that an interest is held by a pooled trust 97 as defined by Medicaid law for the benefit of the 98 beneficiary with a disability under 42 U.S.C. Section 99 1396p(d) (4) (C) ; or

100 b. Contain payback provisions complying with 101 reimbursement requirements of Medicaid law under 42 U.S.C.
102 Section 1396p(d) (4) (A) ;

103 (b) The provisions of subdivision (3) of subsection 4 104 of this section shall not apply to the interests of the 105 beneficiary with a disability; and

106 (c) Except as affected by any change to the interests 107 of the beneficiary with a disability, the second trust, or 108 if there are two or more second trusts, the second trusts in 109 the aggregate, shall grant each other beneficiary of the 110 first trust beneficial interests in the second trusts which 111 are substantially similar to the beneficiary's beneficial 112 interests in the first trust, unless such other 113 beneficiary's interest is modified in accordance with the 114 provisions of this section other than this subsection.

115 4. The following provisions apply to any exercise of 116 the authority granted by subsection 1 of this section:

117 (1) [The second trust may have as beneficiaries only 118 one or more of those beneficiaries of the first trust to or 119 for whom any discretionary distribution may be made from the 120 first trust and who are proper objects of the exercise of 121 the power, or one or more of those other beneficiaries of 122 the first trust to or for whom a distribution of income or 123 principal may have been made in the future from the first trust at a time or upon the happening of an event specified under the first trust;

(2) Unless the exercise of such power is limited by an ascertainable standard, no trustee of the first trust may exercise such authority to make a distribution from the first trust if:

(a) Such trustee is a beneficiary of the first trust; or

(b) Any beneficiary may remove and replace the trustee of the first trust with a related or subordinate party to such beneficiary within the meaning of Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(3) Except if participating in a change that is needed for a distribution to any such beneficiary under an ascertainable standard, no trustee shall exercise such authority to the extent that doing so would have the effect either of:

(a) Increasing the distributions that can be made in the future from the second trust to the trustee of the first trust or to a beneficiary who can remove and replace the trustee of the first trust with a related or subordinate party to such beneficiary within the meaning of Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code; or

(b) Removing restrictions on discretionary distributions imposed by the instrument under which the first trust was created;

(4) In the case of any trust contributions which have been treated as gifts qualifying for the exclusion from gift tax described in Section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, by reason of the application of Section 2503(c), the governing instrument for the second trust shall provide that the beneficiary's remainder interest shall vest no later than the date upon which such interest would have vested under the terms of the governing instrument for the first trust;

(5) The exercise of such authority may not reduce any income interest of any income beneficiary of any of the following trusts:

(a) A trust for which a marital deduction has been taken for federal tax purposes under Section 2056 or 2523 of the Internal Revenue Code or for state tax purposes under any comparable provision of applicable state law;

(b) A charitable remainder trust under Section 664 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(c) A grantor retained annuity trust under Section 2702 of the Internal Revenue Code; or

(d) A trust which has been qualified as a Subchapter S trust under Section 1361(d) of the Internal Revenue Code or an electing small business trust under Section 1361(e) of the Internal Revenue Code]

If the exercise of the authority granted by subsection 1 of this section is limited by an ascertainable standard and the trustee exercising such authority is a permissible distributee of the first trust under such standard, then:

(a) The discretionary power under the trust instrument for the second trust to distribute income or principal to such trustee as a permissible distributee shall be subject to the same ascertainable standard as, or a more restrictive ascertainable standard than, such standard in the trust instrument for the first trust; and

(b) The trust instrument for the second trust shall not:

a. Modify a power of appointment granted to such trustee in the first trust; or 188 b. Grant a power of appointment to such trustee that 189 did not exist in the first trust;

190 (2) An exercise of the authority granted by subsection 191 1 of this section is subject to the following limitations:

192 (a) If the first trust contains property that 193 qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of 194 this section other than this subdivision, for a marital 195 deduction for purposes of the gift or estate tax under the 196 Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the trust 197 instrument for the second trust shall not include or omit 198 any term that, if included in or omitted from the trust 199 instrument for the second trust, would have prevented the 200 transfer from qualifying for the deduction, or would have 201 reduced the amount of the deduction, under the same 202 provisions of the Internal Revenue Code under which the 203 transfer qualified;

204 (b) If the first trust contains property that 205 qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of 206 this section other than this subdivision, for a charitable 207 deduction for purposes of the income, gift, or estate tax 208 under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the 209 trust instrument for the second trust shall not include or 210 omit any term that, if included in or omitted from the trust 211 instrument for the second trust, would have prevented the
212 transfer from qualifying for the deduction, or would have 213 reduced the amount of the deduction, under the same
214 provisions of the Internal Revenue Code under which the 215 transfer qualified;

216 (c) If the first trust contains property that 217 qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of 218 this section other than this subdivision, for the exclusion 219 from the gift tax described in Section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the trust instrument for the second trust shall not include or omit a term that, if included in or omitted from the trust instrument for the second trust, would have prevented the transfer from qualifying under Section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. If the first trust contains property that qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of this section other than this subdivision, for the exclusion from the gift tax described in Section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, by application of Section 2503(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, the trust instrument for the second trust shall not include or omit a term that, if included or omitted from the trust instrument for the second trust, would have prevented the transfer from meeting the requirements of Section 2503(c) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(d) If the property of the first trust includes shares of stock in an S corporation, as defined in Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the first trust is, or but for provisions of this section other than this subdivision would be, a permitted shareholder under any provision of Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code, the trustee of the first trust may exercise such authority with respect to part or all of the S corporation stock only if the second trust receiving the stock is a permitted shareholder under Section 1361(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. If the property of the first trust includes shares of stock in an S corporation and the first trust is, or but for provisions of this section other than this subdivision would be, a qualified subchapter-S trust within the meaning of Section 1361(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, the trust instrument for the second trust shall not include or omit a term that prevents the second trust from qualifying as a qualified subchapter-S trust; and

(e) If the first trust contains property that qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of this section other than this subdivision, for a zero inclusion ratio for purpose of the generation-skipping transfer tax under Section 2642(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the trust instrument for the second trust shall not include or omit a term that, if included in or omitted from the first trust, would have prevented the transfer to the first trust from qualifying for a zero inclusion ratio under Section 2642(c) of the Internal Revenue Code;

[(6)] (3) The exercise of such authority does not apply to trust property subject to a presently exercisable power of withdrawal held by a trust beneficiary to whom, or for the benefit of whom, the trustee has authority to make distributions, unless after the exercise of such authority, such beneficiary's power of withdrawal is unchanged with respect to the trust property; and

[(7)] (4) A spendthrift clause or a provision in the trust instrument that prohibits amendment or revocation of the trust shall not preclude the trustee from exercising the authority granted by subsection 1 of this section.

[3.] 5. At least sixty days prior to making a discretionary distribution under subsection 1 of this section, the trustee of the first trust shall notify the permissible distributees of the first trust and the permissible distributees of the second trust[, or the qualified beneficiaries of the second trust if there are no permissible distributees of the second trust,] of the distribution. A beneficiary may waive the right to the notice required by this subsection and, with respect to future distributions, may withdraw a waiver previously given.

[4.] 6. In exercising the authority granted by subsection 1 of this section, the trustee shall remain subject to all fiduciary duties otherwise imposed under the trust instrument and Missouri law.

[5.] 7. This section does not impose on a trustee a duty to exercise the authority granted by subsection 1 of this section in favor of another trust or to consider exercising such authority in favor of another trust.

8. A second trust may have a duration that is the same as or different from the duration of the first trust. However, to the extent that property of the second trust is attributable to property of the first trust, the property of the second trust is subject to any rules governing maximum perpetuity, accumulation, or suspension of the power of alienation which apply to property of the first trust. The provisions of this subsection shall not preclude the creation of a general power of appointment in the trust instrument for a second trust as authorized by subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section.

9. In the event the trust instrument for the second trust in part does not comply with this section but would otherwise be effective under this section, the exercise of the power is effective and the following rules apply with respect to the principal of the second trust attributable to the exercise of the power:

(1) A provision in the trust instrument for the second trust which is not permitted under this section is void to the extent necessary to comply with this section; and

(2) A provision required by this section to be in the trust instrument for the second trust which is not contained

315 in the trust instrument is deemed to be included in the 316 trust instrument to the extent necessary to comply with this 317 section.

318 [6.] 10. This section is intended to codify and, from 319 and after enactment, to provide certain limitations to the 320 common law of this state, and this section applies to any 321 trust governed by the laws of this state, including a trust 322 whose principal place of administration is transferred to 323 this state before or after the enactment of this section.

456.5-504. 1. [A beneficiary's interest in a trust 2 that is subject to the trustee's discretion does not 3 constitute an interest in property or an enforceable right 4 even if the discretion is expressed in the form of a 5 standard of distribution or the beneficiary is then serving 6 as a trustee or cotrustee. A creditor or other claimant may 7 not attach present or future distributions from such an 8 interest or right, obtain an order from a court forcing the 9 judicial sale of the interest or compelling the trustee to 10 make distributions, or reach the interest or right by any 11 other means, even if the trustee has abused the trustee's 12 discretion.] Except as otherwise provided in section 456.5-13 503, whether or not a trust contains a spendthrift
14 provision, a creditor of a beneficiary may not compel a 15 distribution that is subject to the trustee's discretion 16 even if:

17 (1) The discretion is expressed in the form of a 18 standard of distribution; or

19 (2) The trustee has abused the discretion.

20 2. This section does not limit the right of a 21 beneficiary to maintain a judicial proceeding against a 22 trustee for an abuse of discretion or failure to comply with 23 a standard for distribution.

24 3. [This section applies whether or not an interest is 25 subject to a spendthrift provision.

26 4. For purposes of this section, a beneficiary's 27 interest in a trust is subject to the trustee's discretion 28 if that interest does not constitute a mandatory 29 distribution as defined in subsection 1 of section 456.5-30 506.] Whether or not a trust contains a spendthrift
31 provision, no creditor or other person making a claim 32 against a beneficiary shall be entitled to any information 33 relating to the trust's assets or other trust records if 34 distributions to the beneficiary are solely within the 35 discretion of the trustee. The provisions of this 36 subsection shall apply during the term of the trust, 37 regardless of whether the beneficiary is also a potential 38 remainder beneficiary of the trust.

 456.5-505. 1. Whether or not the terms of a trust 2 contain a spendthrift provision, during the lifetime of the 3 settlor, the property of a revocable trust is subject to 4 claims of the settlor's creditors.

5 2. With respect to an irrevocable trust without a 6 spendthrift provision, a creditor or assignee of the settlor 7 may reach the maximum amount that can be distributed to or 8 for the settlor's benefit. If a trust has more than one 9 settlor, the amount the creditor or assignee of a particular 10 settlor may reach may not exceed the settlor's interest in 11 the portion of the trust attributable to that settlor's 12 contribution.

13 3. With respect to an irrevocable trust with a 14 spendthrift provision, a spendthrift provision will prevent 15 the settlor's creditors from satisfying claims from the 16 trust assets except:

(1) Where the conveyance of assets to the trust was fraudulent as to creditors pursuant to the provisions of chapter 428; or

(2) To the extent of the settlor's beneficial interest in the trust assets, if at the time the trust became irrevocable:

(a) The settlor was the sole beneficiary of either the income or principal of the trust or retained the power to amend the trust; or

(b) The settlor was one of a class of beneficiaries and retained a right to receive a specific portion of the income or principal of the trust that was determinable solely from the provisions of the trust instrument.

4. In the event that a trust meets the requirements set forth in subsection 3 of this section, a settlor's creditors may not reach the settlor's beneficial interest in that trust, regardless of:

(1) Any testamentary power of appointment [retained by the settlor] that is exercisable by the settlor, by a will or other written instrument, in favor of any appointees other than the settlor, the settlor's estate, the settlor's creditors, or the creditors of the settlor's estate; or

(2) The settlor's power to veto distributions from the trust.

5. Any trustee who has a duty or power to pay the debts of a deceased settlor may publish a notice in a newspaper published in the county designated in subdivision (3) of this subsection once a week for four consecutive weeks in substantially the following form:

To all persons interested in the estate of _____, decedent. The undersigned _____ is acting as Trustee under a trust the terms of

49 which provide that the debts of the decedent may 50 be paid by the Trustee(s) upon receipt of proper 51 proof thereof. The address of the Trustee is 52 _____.

53 All creditors of the decedent are noticed 54 to present their claims to the undersigned 55 within six (6) months from the date of the first 56 publication of this notice or be forever 57 barred.

58 _____ Trustee

59 (1) If such publication is duly made by the trustee, 60 any debts not presented to the trustee within six months 61 from the date of the first publication of the preceding 62 notice shall be forever barred as against the trustee and 63 the trust property.

64 (2) A trustee shall not be liable to account to the 65 decedent's personal representative under the provisions of 66 section 461.300 by reason of any debt barred under the 67 provisions of this subsection.

68 (3) Such publication shall be in a newspaper published 69 in:

70 (a) The county in which the domicile of the settlor at 71 the time of his or her death is situated;

72 (b) If the settlor had no domicile in this state at 73 the time of his or her death, any county wherein trust 74 assets are located; except that, when the major part of the 75 trust assets in this state consist of real estate, the 76 notice shall be published in the county in which the real 77 estate or the major part thereof is located; or 78 (c) If the settlor had no domicile in this state at 79 the time of his or her death and no trust assets are located therein, the county wherein the principal place of administration of the trust is located.

(4) For purposes of this subsection, the term "domicile" means the place in which the settlor voluntarily fixed his or her abode, not for a mere special or temporary purpose, but with a present intention of remaining there permanently or for an indefinite term.

6. For purposes of this section:

(1) During the period the power may be exercised, the holder of a power of withdrawal is treated in the same manner as the settlor of a revocable trust to the extent of the property subject to the power; and

(2) Upon the lapse, release, or waiver of the power, the holder is treated as the settlor of the trust only to the extent the value of the property affected by the lapse, release, or waiver exceeds the greater of the amount specified in Sections 2041(b)(2), 2514(e) or 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

7. For all purposes of section 456.5-501 to 456.5-508, the settlor of any of the following trusts, known as the "first trust" in this subsection, shall not be treated as the settlor of any other trust, known as the "second trust" in this subsection, that is created pursuant to the exercise of a power of appointment over the first trust if the settlor is a beneficiary of the second trust:

(1) An irrevocable inter vivos trust for the benefit of the settlor's spouse that qualifies for the marital deduction from the federal gift tax under Section 2523(e) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(2) An irrevocable inter vivos trust for the benefit of the settlor's spouse that qualifies for the marital

111 deduction from the federal gift tax under Section 2523(f) of 112 the Internal Revenue Code;

113 (3) An irrevocable inter vivos trust for the benefit 114 of the settlor's spouse, or the settlor's spouse and other 115 beneficiaries, where the settlor's spouse is the beneficiary 116 who exercises the power of appointment to create the second 117 trust; and

118 (4) An irrevocable inter vivos trust where any 119 beneficiary exercises a general power of appointment to 120 create the second trust.

121 8. This section shall not apply to a spendthrift trust 122 described, defined, or established in section 456.014.
