Gracious God, we are thankful as we gather for this new session and share together the responsibilities that we are required to fulfill. On this 12th day of the Christmas season, in the Christian church, we are mindful of this time of joy and peace among us. May we begin 2022 with a blank slate and we would ask for Your presence among us and that Your Spirit may guide us through this session, helping us persevere in all the difficult yet needed decisions that we are called to make. May we be mindful of Your prophet Micah’s words each day of this new year “...to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with You, our God.” In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

Opening Address

Senator Dave Schatz, President Pro Tem
 Second Regular Session, 101st General Assembly
 January 5, 2022

Friends, colleagues, and guests: good afternoon. It is with great appreciation and humility that I welcome each of you back to this hallowed chamber to begin the Second Regular Session of the 101st General Assembly.

Before we continue, I would like to take a moment to recognize the President of the Missouri Senate: Lt. Governor Mike Kehoe, the former Senators who have joined us today, and the close friends and family who have traveled to support us and celebrate this special occasion.

Why are we here? We each have unique backgrounds and find ourselves at different stations in life. We disagree and we debate. We see the world through our own particular prisms. And yet, at some point, on some level, each one of us saw an unmet need in our community and asked: how can I serve? What solutions can I bring to the table? And with the support of our families and the trust of our communities, each of us answered that call to serve.

So despite our differences we find ourselves here, together, working to deliver solutions that make life better for millions of Missourians.

The challenges of the past two years have been great and have only seemed to intensify; but I am hopeful. I am hopeful because the Senators here today have demonstrated before that they can put aside personal differences in order to overcome the obstacles before us. I am hopeful because we have come together to deliver much-needed tax relief for working families. We have leveled the playing field for Missouri's small businesses. We have given parents greater choice in their children's educations. We have invested billions in our critical infrastructure. And, most importantly, we have stood firm against government abuse and overreach at every level.

This year, as we face an unprecedented set of new challenges, let's remember these accomplishments.

When it's late, when frustrations are high, and tempers wear thin—let's remember what we have accomplished together. The stakes are too high to give up. Missourians are counting on us to work together to deliver real solutions that make their lives better. We have delivered before and I am confident we will deliver again.

It is an honor and a privilege to serve alongside each of you. I pray that God would bless our solemn work and this great state we are all proud to call home.

Thank you.
