“Encourage one another and build one another up.” (1 Thessalonians 5:11)

Lord God, we are ready to work and to be the responsible people You have called to service. We pray, O Lord, that even as we may debate with one another once again and differ in opinion from one another, that we may “build one another up” by respecting each other and listen attentively. We do so that we may direct our efforts to doing what is truly needed and necessary for the people who sent us here. In Your Holy Name, we pray. Amen.
