

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

TWENTY-THIRD DAY - TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2023

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Kehoe in the Chair.

The Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind . . . You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” (Matthew 22:37, 39)

Our God of Love, help us to express our love to those who mean so much to us, especially on this Valentine's Day. Help us to express our love and care to those whom you have given us to love and show in small ways how our heart sings a song in their presence. And may we be neighborly to those we meet daily, especially those who want nothing from us but to be our friends and a help to us. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Bill No. 75, Page 18, Section 169.070, Line 528, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“169.141. 1. Any person receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.010 to 169.140, and who elected a reduced retirement allowance under subsection 3 of section 169.070 with his or her spouse as the nominated beneficiary, may nominate a successor beneficiary under either of the following circumstances:

(1) If the nominated beneficiary precedes the retired person in death, the retired person may, upon remarriage, nominate the new spouse under the same option elected in the application for retirement;

(2) If the marriage of the retired person and the nominated beneficiary is dissolved, and if the dissolution decree provides for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance, the retired person may, upon remarriage, nominate the new spouse under the same option elected in the application for retirement.

2. Any nomination of a successor beneficiary under subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection 1 of this section must be made in accordance with procedures established by the board of trustees, and must be filed within ninety days of May 6, 1993, or within one year of the remarriage, whichever later occurs. Upon receipt of a successor nomination filed in accordance with those procedures, the board shall adjust the retirement allowance to reflect actuarial considerations of that nomination as well as previous beneficiary and successor beneficiary nominations.

3. Any person receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.010 to 169.140 who elected a reduced retirement allowance under subsection 3 of section 169.070 with his or her spouse as the nominated beneficiary may have the retirement allowance increased to the amount the retired member would be receiving had the retired member elected option 1 if:

(1) The marriage of the retired person and the nominated spouse is dissolved on or after September 1, 2017, and the dissolution decree provides for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance; or

(2) The marriage of the retired person and the nominated spouse was dissolved before September 1, 2017, and:

(a) The dissolution decree provides for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance, and the parties obtain an amended or modified dissolution decree after September 1, 2017, providing for the immediate removal of the nominated spouse, or the nominated spouse consents in writing to his or her immediate removal as nominated beneficiary and disclaims all rights to future benefits to the satisfaction of the board of trustees; or

(b) The dissolution decree does not provide for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance and the parties obtain an amended or modified dissolution decree after September 1, 2017, which provides for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance; and

(3) The person receives a retirement allowance under subsection 3 of section 169.070.

Any such increase in the retirement allowance shall be effective upon the receipt of an application for such increase and a certified copy of the decree of dissolution and separation agreement, if applicable, that meets the requirements of this section.

4. Any person receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.010 to 169.140, who, on or before September 1, 2015, elected a reduced retirement allowance under subsection 3 of section 169.070 with his or her same-sex domestic partner as the nominated beneficiary, may have the retirement allowance increased to the amount the retired member would be receiving had the retired member elected option 1 if:

(1) The retired person executes an affidavit attesting to the existence of a same-sex domestic partnership at the time of the nomination of the beneficiary and that the same-sex domestic partnership has since ended, with such supporting information and documentation as required by the board of trustees;

(2) The nominated beneficiary consents in writing to his or her immediate removal as nominated beneficiary and disclaims all rights to future benefits to the satisfaction of the board of trustees, or the parties obtain a court order or judgment after September 1, 2023, which provides that the nominated beneficiary may be removed;

(3) If the retired person and the nominated beneficiary were legally married in a state that recognized same-sex marriage at the time of retirement or have since become legally married, the marriage must be dissolved and the dissolution decree must provide for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance; and

(4) The person receives a retirement allowance under subsection 3 of section 169.070.

5. Any person receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.010 to 169.140, who, on or before September 1, 2015, elected a reduced retirement allowance under subsection 3 of section 169.070 with his or her same-sex domestic partner as the nominated beneficiary, may nominate a successor beneficiary under the following circumstances:

(1) If the nominated same-sex domestic partner precedes the retired person in death, and the retired person executes an affidavit attesting to the existence of the same-sex domestic partnership at the time of the nomination of the beneficiary, the retired person may, upon a later marriage, nominate his or her spouse under the same option elected in the application for retirement; or

(2) If the retired person executes an affidavit attesting to the existence of the same-sex domestic partnership at the time of the nomination of the beneficiary and that the same-sex domestic partnership has since ended, and the nominated same-sex domestic partner consents in writing to his or her immediate removal as nominated beneficiary and disclaims all rights to future benefits to the satisfaction of the board of trustees or the parties obtain a court order or judgment after September 1, 2023, which provides that the nominated beneficiary may be removed, the retired person may, upon a later marriage, nominate his or her spouse under the same option elected in the application for retirement;

(3) In addition to the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, if the retired person and the nominated beneficiary were legally married in a state that recognized same-sex marriage at the time of retirement or have since become legally married, the marriage must be dissolved and the dissolution decree must provide for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance.

6. Any nomination of successor beneficiary under subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection 5 of this section shall be made in accordance with procedures established by the board of trustees, and shall be filed within one year of September 1, 2023, or within one year of the marriage of the retired person and successor beneficiary, whichever later occurs. Upon receipt of a successor nomination filed in accordance with those procedures, the board shall adjust the retirement allowance to reflect actuarial considerations of that nomination as well as previous beneficiary and successor beneficiary nominations.

7. For purposes of this section, the definition of “same-sex domestic partners” shall be individuals of the same sex who are at least eighteen years of age, who are not related to a degree that would prohibit their marriage in the law of the state where they reside, who are not married to or a domestic partner of another person, and who live together in a long-term relationship of indefinite duration with an exclusive mutual commitment in which the domestic partners agree to be jointly responsible for their common welfare and to share financial obligations. For purposes of this section, “same-sex domestic partners” shall also include individuals of the same sex who were legally married in a state that recognized same-sex marriage.”; and

Further amend said bill, page 22, section 169.596, line 48, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“169.715. 1. Any person receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.600 to 169.712, and who elected a reduced retirement allowance under subsection 4 of section 169.670 with his or her spouse as the nominated beneficiary, may nominate a successor beneficiary under either of the following circumstances:

(1) If the nominated beneficiary precedes the retired person in death, the retired person may, upon remarriage, nominate the new spouse under the same option elected in the application for retirement;

(2) If the marriage of the retired person and the nominated beneficiary is dissolved, and if the dissolution decree provides for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance, the retired person may, upon remarriage, nominate the new spouse under the same option elected in the application for retirement.

2. Any nomination of a successor beneficiary under subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection 1 of this section must be made in accordance with procedures established by the board of trustees, and must be filed within ninety days of May 6, 1993, or within one year of the remarriage, whichever later occurs.

Upon receipt of a successor nomination filed in accordance with those procedures, the board shall adjust the retirement allowance to reflect actuarial considerations of that nomination as well as previous beneficiary and successor beneficiary nominations.

3. Any person receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.600 to 169.715 who elected a reduced retirement allowance under subsection 4 of section 169.670 with his or her spouse as the nominated beneficiary may have the retirement allowance increased to the amount the retired member would be receiving had the retired member elected option 1 if:

(1) The marriage of the retired person and the nominated spouse is dissolved on or after September 1, 2017, and the dissolution decree provides for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance; or

(2) The marriage of the retired person and the nominated spouse was dissolved before September 1, 2017, and:

(a) The dissolution decree provides for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance, and the parties obtain an amended or modified dissolution decree after September 1, 2017, providing for the immediate removal of the nominated spouse, or the nominated spouse consents in writing to his or her immediate removal as nominated beneficiary and disclaims all rights to future benefits to the satisfaction of the board of trustees; or

(b) The dissolution decree does not provide for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance and the parties obtain an amended or modified dissolution decree after September 1, 2017, which provides for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance; and

(3) The person receives a retirement allowance under subsection 4 of section 169.670.

Any such increase in the retirement allowance shall be effective upon the receipt of an application for such increase and a certified copy of the decree of dissolution and separation agreement, if applicable, that meets the requirements of this section.

4. Any person receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.600 to 169.712, who, on or before September 1, 2015, elected a reduced retirement allowance under subsection 4 of section 169.670 with his or her same-sex domestic partner as the nominated beneficiary, may have the retirement allowance increased to the amount the retired member would be receiving had the retired member elected option 1 if:

(1) The retired person executes an affidavit attesting to the existence of a same-sex domestic partnership at the time of the nomination of the beneficiary and that the same-sex domestic partnership has since ended, with such supporting information and documentation as required by the board of trustees;

(2) The nominated beneficiary consents in writing to his or her immediate removal as nominated beneficiary and disclaims all rights to future benefits to the satisfaction of the board of trustees, or the parties obtain a court order or judgment after September 1, 2023, which provides that the nominated beneficiary may be removed;

(3) If the retired person and the nominated beneficiary were legally married in a state that recognized same-sex marriage at the time of retirement or have since become legally married, the marriage must be dissolved and the dissolution decree must provide for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance; and

(4) The person receives a retirement allowance under subsection 4 of section 169.670.

5. Any person receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.600 to 169.712, who, on or before September 1, 2015, elected a reduced retirement allowance under subsection 4 of section 169.670 with his or her same-sex domestic partner as the nominated beneficiary, may nominate a successor beneficiary under the following circumstances:

(1) If the nominated same-sex domestic partner precedes the retired person in death, and the retired person executes an affidavit attesting to the existence of the same-sex domestic partnership at the time of the nomination of the beneficiary, the retired person may, upon a later marriage, nominate his or her spouse under the same option elected in the application for retirement; or

(2) If the retired person executes an affidavit attesting to the existence of the same-sex domestic partnership at the time of the nomination of the beneficiary and that the same-sex domestic partnership has since ended, and the nominated same-sex domestic partner consents in writing to his or her immediate removal as nominated beneficiary and disclaims all rights to future benefits to the satisfaction of the board of trustees or the parties obtain a court order or judgment after September 1, 2023, which provides that the nominated beneficiary may be removed, the retired person may, upon a later marriage, nominate his or her spouse under the same option elected in the application for retirement;

(3) In addition to the requirements of subdivision (2) of this subsection, if the retired person and the nominated beneficiary were legally married in a state that recognized same-sex marriage at the time of retirement or have since become legally married, the marriage must be dissolved and the dissolution decree must provide for sole retention by the retired person of all rights in the retirement allowance.

6. Any nomination of successor beneficiary under subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection 5 of this section shall be made in accordance with procedures established by the board of trustees, and shall be filed within one year of September 1, 2023, or within one year of the marriage of the retired person and successor beneficiary, whichever later occurs. Upon receipt of a successor nomination filed in accordance with those procedures, the board shall adjust the retirement allowance to reflect actuarial considerations of that nomination as well as previous beneficiary and successor beneficiary nominations.

7. For purposes of this section, the definition of “same-sex domestic partners” shall mean individuals of the same sex who are at least eighteen years of age, who are not related to a degree that would prohibit their marriage in the law of the state where they reside, who are not married to or a domestic partner of another person, and who live together in a long-term relationship of indefinite duration with an exclusive mutual commitment in which the domestic partners agree to be jointly responsible for their common welfare and to share financial obligations. For purposes of

Amend Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 103, Page 1, In the Title, Line 3, by striking the word “automation” and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “operations”; and

Further amend said bill, page 4, section 476.055, line 86, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“485.060. 1. Each court reporter for a circuit judge shall receive an annual salary of twenty-six thousand nine hundred dollars beginning January 1, 1985, until December 31, 1985, and beginning January 1, 1986, an annual salary of thirty thousand dollars.

2. Such annual salary shall be modified by any salary adjustment provided by section 476.405.

3. Beginning January 1, 2022, the annual salary, as modified under section 476.405, shall be adjusted upon meeting the minimum number of cumulative years of service as a court reporter with a circuit court of this state by the following schedule:

(1) For each court reporter with zero to five years of service: the annual salary shall be increased only by any salary adjustment provided by section 476.405;

(2) For each court reporter with six to ten years of service: the annual salary shall be increased by the whole sum of five and one-quarter percent in addition to the increase provided by subdivision (1) of this subsection;

(3) For each court reporter with eleven to fifteen years of service: the annual salary shall be increased by the whole sum of eight and one-quarter percent in addition to the increase provided by subdivision (2) of this subsection;

(4) For each court reporter with sixteen to twenty years of service: the annual salary shall be increased by the whole sum of eight and one-half percent in addition to the increase provided by subdivision (3) of this subsection; or

(5) For each court reporter with twenty-one or more years of service: the annual salary shall be increased by the whole sum of eight and three-quarters percent in addition to the increase provided by subdivision (4) of this subsection.

[A court reporter may receive multiple adjustments under this subsection as his or her cumulative years of service increase, but only one percentage listed in subdivisions (1) to (5) of this subsection shall apply to the annual salary at a time.]

4. Salaries shall be payable in equal monthly installments on the certification of the judge of the court or division in whose court the reporter is employed. If paid by the state, the salaries of such court reporters shall be paid in semimonthly or monthly installments, as designated by the commissioner of administration.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senator Trent moved that the above amendment be adopted, which motion prevailed.

Senator May offered SA 2, which was read:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 2

Amend Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 103, Page 4, Section 476.055, Line 86, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“[488.650. There shall be assessed as costs a surcharge in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars on all petitions for expungement filed under the provisions of section 610.140. The judge may waive the surcharge if the petitioner is found by the judge to be indigent and unable to pay the costs. Such surcharge shall be collected and disbursed by the clerk of the court as provided by sections 488.010 to 488.020. Moneys collected from this surcharge shall be payable to the general revenue fund.]”; and
