

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FORTY-THIRD DAY - MONDAY, MARCH 31, 2025

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Wasinger in the Chair.

The Reverend Stephen George offered the following prayer:

"There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end, it leads to death." (Proverbs 14:12 NIV)

Heavenly Father, we come before You today to seek Your wisdom as we gather in this chamber. Your Word reminds us that what may seem right to us can lead to ruin, but Your truth is our sure foundation. We ask that You would guide us as leaders to discern Your will over our own flawed instincts. Help us to uphold the values of liberty, justice, and righteousness that honor You and strengthen our communities. Grant us courage to stand firm in our convictions, protect the freedoms You've bestowed, and govern with integrity for the good of all. We ask this in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

Senator Moon offered SA 1 to SA 1:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO
SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Amendment No. 1 to Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 225, Page 1, Line 1, by inserting immediately after the word “Page” the following: “1, Section TITLE, Line 4, by striking “the offense of murder in the first degree” and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “capital offenses”; and Further amend said bill, page”; and

Further amend said amendment, line 5, by inserting immediately after “follow”” the following: “; and

Further amend said bill and section, page 4, line 89, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“565.045. 1. Where statutory rape in the first degree or sexual trafficking of a child in the first degree is charged but not submitted or where the state waives the death penalty, the submission to the trier and all subsequent proceedings in the case shall proceed as in all other criminal cases.

2. Where statutory rape in the first degree or sexual trafficking of a child in the first degree is submitted to the trier without a waiver of the death penalty, the trial shall proceed in two stages before the same trier. At the first stage the trier shall decide only whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of any submitted offense. The issue of punishment shall not be submitted to the trier at the first stage. If an offense is charged other than statutory rape in the first degree or sexual trafficking of a child in the first degree in a count together with a count of statutory rape in the first degree or sexual trafficking of a child in the first degree, the trial judge shall assess punishment on any such offense according to law, after the defendant is found guilty of such offense and after he finds the defendant to be a prior offender pursuant to chapter 558.

3. If statutory rape in the first degree or sexual trafficking of a child in the first degree is submitted and the death penalty was not waived but the trier finds the defendant guilty of a lesser sexual offense, a second stage of the trial shall proceed as in all other criminal cases. The attorneys may then argue as in other criminal cases the issue of punishment, after which the trier shall assess and declare the punishment as in all other criminal cases.

4. If the trier at the first stage of a trial where the death penalty was not waived finds the defendant guilty of statutory rape in the first degree or sexual trafficking of a child in the first degree, a second stage of the trial shall proceed at which the only issue shall be the punishment to be assessed and declared. Evidence in aggravation and mitigation of punishment, may be presented subject to the rules of evidence at criminal trials. Such evidence may include, within the discretion of the court, evidence concerning the victim and the impact of the offense upon the family of the victim and others. Rebuttal and surrebuttal evidence may be presented. The state shall be the first to proceed. If the trier is a jury it shall be instructed on the law. The attorneys may then argue the issue of punishment to the jury, and the state shall have the right to open and close the argument. The trier shall assess and declare the punishment at life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor:

(1) If the trier finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is intellectually disabled;

(2) If the trier concludes that there is evidence in mitigation of punishment which is sufficient to outweigh the evidence in aggravation of punishment found by the trier; or

(3) If the trier decides under all of the circumstances not to assess and declare the punishment at death. If the trier is a jury it shall be so instructed.

If the trier is a jury it shall be instructed before the case is submitted that if it is unable to decide or agree upon the punishment the court shall assess and declare the punishment at life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor, or death if a majority of the jury agree upon the punishment of death. The court shall follow the same procedure as set out in this section whenever it is required to determine punishment for statutory rape in the first degree or sexual trafficking of a child in the first degree.

5. Upon written agreement of the parties and with leave of the court, the issue of the defendant's intellectual disability may be taken up by the court and decided prior to trial without prejudicing the defendant's right to have the issue submitted to the trier of fact as provided in subsection 4 of this section.

6. As used in this section, the terms "intellectual disability" or "intellectually disabled" refer to a condition involving substantial limitations in general functioning characterized by significantly subaverage intellectual functioning with continual extensive related deficits and limitations in two or more adaptive behaviors such as communication, self-care, home living, social skills, community use, self-direction, health and safety, functional academics, or leisure and work, which conditions are manifested and documented before eighteen years of age.

7. The provisions of this section shall only govern offenses committed on or after August 28, 2025.

Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1.140 to the contrary, in the event that any section, provision, clause, phrase, or word of this act or the application thereof is declared invalid under the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Missouri, it is the intent of the general assembly that the remaining sections of this act be nonseverable and such decision shall invalidate the remaining sections of this act. The general assembly hereby declares that it would not have passed each section, provision, clause, phrase, or word thereof, if any one or more sections, provisions, clauses, phrases, or words of this act or the application of this act would be declared unenforceable, unconstitutional, or invalid."; and Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly".
