

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIFTY-THIRD DAY - WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 2025

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Wasinger in the Chair.

The Reverend Stephen George offered the following prayer:

“[Jesus] ... poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.”
(John 13:5 NIV)

Almighty God, as we gather in this chamber today to serve the people of this great state, we pause to remember the example of Your Son, who knelt to wash the feet of His disciples. In that simple yet profound act, He showed us that true leadership is found in service, and that greatness is measured not by power, but by humility and love. Lord, we ask that You would give us hearts that are willing to serve, and that You would bless our efforts as we work together. We ask this in Your Holy Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Substitute for House Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Bills Nos. 567, et al, Pages 1-3, Section 290.502, by striking all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“290.502. 1. Except as may be otherwise provided pursuant to sections 290.500 to 290.530, effective January 1, 2007, every employer shall pay to each employee wages at the rate of $6.50 per hour, or wages at the same rate or rates set under the provisions of federal law as the prevailing federal minimum wage applicable to those covered jobs in interstate commerce, whichever rate per hour is higher.

2. The minimum wage shall be increased or decreased on January 1, 2008, and on January 1 of successive years, by the increase or decrease in the cost of living. On September 30, 2007, and on each September 30 of each successive year, the director shall measure the increase or decrease in the cost of living by the percentage increase or decrease as of the preceding July over the level as of July of the immediately preceding year of the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers (CPI-W) or successor index as published by the U.S. Department of Labor or its successor agency, with the amount of the minimum wage increase or decrease rounded to the nearest five cents.

3. Except as may be otherwise provided pursuant to sections 290.500 to 290.530, and notwithstanding subsection 1 of this section, effective January 1, 2025, every employer shall pay to each employee wages at the rate of not less than $13.75 per hour, or wages at the same rate or rates set under the provisions of federal law as the prevailing federal minimum wage applicable to those covered jobs in interstate commerce, whichever rate per hour is higher. Thereafter, the minimum wage established by this subsection shall be increased [by $1.25 per hour, to $15.00] to seventeen dollars per hour, effective January 1, 2026. Thereafter, the minimum wage established by this subsection shall be increased or decreased on January 1, 2027, and on January 1 of successive years, per the method set forth in subsection 2 of this section. If at any time the federal minimum wage rate is above or is thereafter increased above the minimum wage then in effect under this subsection, the minimum wage required by this subsection shall continue to be increased pursuant to this subsection, but the higher federal rate shall immediately become the minimum wage required by this subsection and shall be increased or decreased per the method set forth in subsection 2 for so long as it remains higher than the state minimum wage required and increased pursuant to this subsection.

4. For purposes of this section, the term “public employer” means an employer that is the state or a political subdivision of the state, including a department, agency, officer, bureau, division, board, commission, or instrumentality of the state, or a city, county, town, village, school district, or other political subdivision of the state.
