2 by inserting after all of said line the following:

3 "77.150. In addition to other powers, the mayor and 4 council of cities of the third class are hereby authorized 5 and empowered to acquire by gift, devise, purchase or 6 condemnation, within such cities or within a mile thereof,
7 such real and personal property as may be necessary or 8 desirable for the purpose of the erection or construction of 9 dams, lake and flood protection systems, bathhouses,
10 therapeutic bathhouses, mineral water vending houses and in 11 connection therewith, auditoriums and lecture rooms and for 12 the laying of pipelines for the distribution of mineral 13 waters and to so acquire, improve and operate mineral 14 springs and wells, and to construct all necessary and 15 appropriate buildings and works therefor, and to do any and 16 all things necessary to maintain and operate said properties
17 so acquired and constructed as a self-liquidating revenue 18 producing public project, and for that purpose to lease or 19 convey the same[; provided such properties shall be so
20 acquired, constructed and thereafter maintained and operated 21 without increasing the indebtedness of such city and shall 22 not be paid for, maintained or operated by taxes, either 23 general or special]."; and 24 Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.
