

SENATE BILL NO. 1057

103RD GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY SENATOR SCHROER.

5306S.011

KRISTINA MARTIN, Secretary

AN ACT

To repeal section 33.01, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to conditions of release from custody in criminal proceedings, with an effective date.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 33.01, RSMo, is repealed and one new 2 section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 33.01, 3 to read as follows:

33.01. Misdemeanors or Felonies - Right to Release -
2 Conditions

3 (a) A defendant charged with a bailable offense shall 4 be entitled to be released from custody pending trial or 5 other stage of the criminal proceedings.

6 (b) The defendant's release shall be upon the 7 conditions that:

8 (1) The defendant will appear in the court in which the 9 case is prosecuted or appealed, from time to time as 10 required to answer the criminal charge;

11 (2) The defendant will submit to the orders, judgment
12 and sentence, and process of the court having jurisdiction
13 over the defendant;

14 (3) The defendant shall not commit any new offenses and 15 shall not tamper with any victim or witness in the case, nor 16 have any person do so on the defendant's behalf; and

EXPLANATION-Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

17 (4) The defendant will comply fully with any and all 18 conditions imposed by the court in granting release.

19 (c) The court shall release the defendant on the 20 defendant's own recognizance subject only to the conditions 21 under subsection (b) with no additional conditions of 22 release unless the court determines such release will not 23 secure the appearance of the defendant at trial, or at any 24 other stage of the criminal proceedings, or the safety of 25 the community or other person, including but not limited to 26 the crime victims and witnesses. If the court so determines,
27 it shall set and impose additional conditions of release
28 pursuant to this subsection.

29 The court shall set and impose the least restrictive 30 condition or combination of conditions of release, and the 31 court shall not set or impose any condition or combination 32 of conditions of release greater than necessary to secure 33 the appearance of the defendant at trial, or at any other 34 stage of the criminal proceedings, or the safety of the 35 community or other person, including but not limited to the 36 crime victims and witnesses.

37 [When considering the least restrictive condition or 38 combination of conditions of release to set and impose, the 39 court shall first consider non-monetary conditions. Should 40 the court determine non-monetary conditions alone will not 41 secure the appearance of the defendant at trial, or at any 42 other stage of the criminal proceedings, or the safety of 43 the community or other person, including but not limited to 44 the crime victims and witnesses, then the court may consider 45 monetary conditions or a combination of non-monetary and 46 monetary conditions to satisfy the foregoing. After 47 considering the defendant's ability to pay, a monetary 48 condition fixed at more than is necessary to secure the

49 appearance of the defendant at trial, or at any other stage
50 of the criminal proceedings, or the safety of the community
51 or other person, including but not limited to the crime
52 victims and witnesses, is impermissible.] The court shall 53 have discretion to impose monetary or non-monetary 54 conditions of release as the court determines appropriate 55 under the individual circumstances of the defendant and the 56 case. However, in making this determination, the court shall 57 give substantial weight to:

58 (1) The defendant's prior criminal convictions or 59 history of criminal activity;

60 (2) Any prior failures to appear in court by the 61 defendant;

62 (3) The nature and seriousness of the current criminal 63 charge; and

64 (4) Any known risk to the safety of the community or 65 other person.

66 The court shall not be required to exhaust non-monetary
67 conditions before setting monetary conditions if the court 68 determines that such monetary conditions are necessary to 69 reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant and 70 protect the safety of the public or other persons. The 71 discretion exhausted by the court under this rule shall be 72 presumed to be valid and shall not be disturbed upon review
73 absent a clear abuse of discretion.

74 (d) If the court determines additional conditions of 75 release are required pursuant to [this] subsection (c), it
76 shall set and impose one or more of the following conditions
77 of release:

78 (1) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated 79 person or organization agreeing to supervise the defendant;

80 (2) Place restrictions on the travel, association, or 81 place of abode of the defendant during the period of 82 release, including the holding by the court of the 83 defendant's passport;

84 (3) Require the defendant to report regularly to some 85 officer of the court or peace officer, in such manner as the 86 court directs;

87 (4) Require the use of electronic monitoring of 88 defendant's location, the testing of defendant for drug or 89 alcohol use, or the installation and use of ignition
90 interlock devices. The court may order the eligible 91 defendant to pay all or a portion of the costs of such 92 conditions, but the court shall consider how best to 93 minimize the costs to the defendant and waive the costs for 94 an eligible defendant who is indigent and who has 95 demonstrated to the court an inability to pay all or a 96 portion of the costs;

97 (5) Require the defendant to seek employment, to 98 maintain employment, or to maintain or commence an 99 educational program;

100 (6) Require the defendant to comply with a specified 101 curfew;

102 (7) Require the defendant to refrain from possessing a 103 firearm or other deadly weapon;

104 (8) Require the defendant to abstain from possession or 105 use of alcohol or any controlled substance without a 106 physician's prescription;

107 (9) Require the defendant to undergo available medical,
108 psychological or psychiatric treatment, including treatment
109 for drug or alcohol dependency and remain in a specified 110 institution if required for that purpose;

111 (10) Require the defendant to return to custody for 112 specified hours following release for employment, school, 113 treatment, or other limited purpose;

114 (11) Require the defendant to be placed on home 115 supervision with or without the use of an electronic 116 monitoring device. The court may order the eligible 117 defendant to pay all or a portion of the costs of the 118 electronic monitoring, but the court shall consider how best 119 to minimize the costs of such condition to the defendant and 120 waive the costs for an eligible defendant who is indigent
121 and who has demonstrated to the court an inability to pay
122 all or a portion of the costs;

123 (12) Require the defendant to execute a monetary bond 124 in a stated amount wherein the defendant promises to pay to 125 the court the stated amount should the defendant fail to 126 appear or abide by the conditions of release;

127 (13) Require the execution of a monetary bond in a 128 stated amount with sufficient sureties, or the deposit in 129 the registry of the court of a sum in cash or negotiable 130 bonds of the United States or the State of Missouri or any 131 political subdivision;

132 (14) Require the execution of a monetary bond in a
133 stated amount and the deposit in the registry of the court 134 of 10 percent, or such lesser sum as the court directs, of 135 such sum in cash or negotiable bonds of the United States or 136 the State of Missouri or any political subdivision;

137 (15) Require the deposit of a property bond of 138 sufficient value as approved and directed by the court;

139 (16) Impose other conditions necessary to secure the 140 appearance of the defendant at trial, or at any other stage
141 of the criminal proceedings, or the safety of the community

142 or other person, including but not limited to the crime
143 victims and witnesses.

144 [(d)] (e) Should the court determine upon clear and 145 convincing evidence that no combination of non-monetary 146 conditions and monetary conditions will secure the safety of 147 the community or other person, including but not limited to 148 the crime victims and witnesses, then the court shall order 149 the defendant detained pending trial or any other stage of 150 the criminal proceedings. A defendant so detained shall, 151 upon written request filed after arraignment, be entitled to 152 a trial which begins within 120 days of the defendant's 153 request or within 120 days of an order granting a change of 154 venue, whichever occurs later. Any request by the defendant 155 to continue the trial beyond the 120 days shall be 156 considered a waiver by the defendant of the right to have 157 the trial conducted within 120 days.

158 [(e)] (f) In determining whether to detain the 159 defendant pursuant to subsection [(d)] (e) or release the 160 defendant with a condition or combination of conditions of 161 release, if any, pursuant to subsection (c), the court shall 162 base its determination on the individual circumstances of 163 the defendant and the case. Based on available information, 164 the court shall take into account: the nature and 165 circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the 166 evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, 167 employment, financial resources, including ability to pay, 168 character, and mental condition; the length of the 169 defendant's residence in the community; the defendant's 170 record of convictions; the defendant's record of appearance 171 at court proceedings or flight to avoid prosecution or 172 failure to appear at court proceedings; whether the 173 defendant was on probation, parole or release pending trial

174 or appeal at the time the offense for which the court is 175 considering detention or release was committed; and any 176 validated evidentiary-based risk assessment tool approved by 177 the Supreme Court of Missouri.

178 [(f)] (g) A court detaining or releasing the defendant
179 under this Rule shall enter an order stating the condition 180 or combination of conditions of release, if any, set and 181 imposed by the court. If the defendant is detained and 182 unable to comply with any condition of release, the 183 defendant shall have the right to a release hearing pursuant 184 to Rule 33.05. At any hearing conducted under Rule 33, the 185 court shall permit but not require either party to make a 186 record on the defendant's financial status and ability to 187 pay any monetary condition or other relevant issue. At such 188 hearing, the court shall also make written or oral findings 189 on the record supporting the reasons for detention or 190 conditions set and imposed. The court shall inform the 191 defendant of the conditions set and imposed, if any, and 192 that the conditions of release may be revoked and the 193 defendant detained until trial or other stage of the 194 criminal proceedings for violation of any of the conditions 195 of release and that a warrant for the defendant's arrest may 196 be issued immediately upon notification to the court of any 197 such violation.

Section B. Section A of this act shall become 2 effective on January 1, 2027.
