AN ACT

To repeal section 172.020, RSMo 1994, relating to the university of Missouri and its ability to sell agricultural products, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the same subject.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 172.020, RSMo 1994, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 172.020, to read as follows:

172.020. The university is hereby incorporated and created a body politic and shall be known by the name of "The Curators of the University of Missouri", and by that name shall have perpetual succession, power to sue and be sued, complain and defend in all courts; to make and use a common seal, and to alter the same at pleasure; to take, purchase and to sell, convey and otherwise dispose of lands and chattels, except that the curators shall not have the power to subdivide, sell or convey title to any land contained within a university campus or to subdivide, sell or convey title to any portion of any parcel of land containing in excess of twenty-five hundred contiguous acres unless such transaction is approved by the general assembly by passage of a concurrent resolution signed by the governor. The curators shall not sell, trade or otherwise convey or permit the severance of timber, minerals or other natural resources, [if the timber, mineral or natural resource has a value of at least five hundred dollars, unless the curators have requested and solicited public bids by advertising for ten days in one newspaper in the county where the timber, mineral or other natural resource is located and by advertising for ten days in two daily newspapers in the state which have not less than fifty thousand daily circulation. The curators also shall send a notice of the proposed sale to the governor, state auditor, chief clerk of
