AN ACT

To amend chapter 71, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to certain real property.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Chapter 71, RSMo, is amended by adding thereto one new section, to be known as section 71.261, to read as follows:

71.261. Any owner of residential real property as defined in section 137.016 of thirty acres or less that is located within two or more municipalities in a county of the first classification having a charter form of government and having a minimum population of nine hundred thousand may elect which municipality to belong to by agreement of that municipality, and by giving notice in writing to the assessor of the other municipalities before October first of the year such election shall take effect. Such choice of municipalities shall be permanent. This section shall only apply to boundary changes effected after January 1, 1990, and occurring by any annexation, consolidation, incorporation, disincorporation, transfer of jurisdiction between municipalities or between a municipality and the county, or combination thereof, which would result in a municipality composed of contiguous territory.
