

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY—MONDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1999

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Pro Tem Quick in the Chair.

The Reverend Carl R. Gauck offered the following prayer:

Almighty God: We thank You for this new day and week and pray that we will always trust You for the wisdom we need to make correct, moral decisions in our lives as well as those that affect the lives of others. And we pray that we may have a little of the love You have given us so that we might love others as You have first loved us. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal for Thursday, February 18, 1999, was read and approved.

SENATE BILLS FOR PERFECTION

Senator House moved that SB 163 be taken up for perfection, which motion prevailed.

Senator House offered SS for SB 163, entitled:

SENATE SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE BILL NO. 163

An Act to amend chapter 170, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to sexual education in public schools.

Senator House moved that SS for SB 163 be adopted.

Senator Johnson assumed the Chair.

Senator Clay offered SA 1:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 163, Page 1, In the Title, Lines 2-3, by striking all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"To repeal section 170.011, RSMo 1994, relating to instruction in public schools, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to the same subject."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section A, Lines 1-3, by striking all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section A. Section 170.011, RSMo 1994, is repealed and two new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 170.011 and 170.015, to read as follows:

170.011. 1. Regular courses of instruction in the Constitution of the United States and of the state of Missouri and in American history and institutions, including the history of civil rights issues in America, shall be given in all public and private schools in the state of Missouri, except privately operated trade schools, and shall begin not later than the seventh grade and continue in high school to an extent determined by the state commissioner of education, and shall continue in college and university courses to an extent determined by the state commissioner of higher education. In the 1990-91 school year and each year thereafter, local school districts maintaining high schools shall comply with the provisions of this section by offering in grade nine, ten, eleven, or twelve a course of instruction in the institutions, branches and functions of the government of the state of Missouri, including local governments, and of the government of the United States, and in the electoral process. A local school district maintaining such a high school shall require that prior to the completion of the twelfth grade each pupil, who receives a high school diploma or certificate of graduation on or after January 1, 1994, shall satisfactorily complete such a course of study. Such course shall be of at least one semester in length and may be two semesters in length. The department of elementary and secondary education may provide assistance in developing such a course if the district requests assistance.

2. No pupil shall receive a certificate of graduation from any public or private school other than private trade schools unless he has satisfactorily passed an examination on the provisions and principles of the Constitution of the United States and of the state of Missouri, and in American history and American institutions, including the history of civil rights issues in America. A student of a college or university, who, after having completed a course of instruction prescribed in this section and successfully passed an examination on the United States Constitution, and in American history and American institutions, including the history of civil rights issues in America, required hereby, transfers to another college or university, is not required to complete another such course or pass another such examination as a condition precedent to his graduation from the college or university.

3. In the 1990-91 school year and each year thereafter, each school district maintaining a high school may annually nominate to the state board of education a student who has demonstrated knowledge of the principles of government and citizenship through academic achievement, participation in extracurricular activities, and service to the community. Annually, the state board of education shall select fifteen students from those nominated by the local school districts and shall recognize and award them for their academic achievement, participation and service.

4. The state commissioner of education and the state commissioner of higher education shall make arrangements for carrying out the provisions of this section and prescribe a list of suitable texts adapted to the needs of the school grades and college courses, respectively.

5. The willful neglect of any superintendent, principal or teacher to observe and carry out the requirements of this section is sufficient cause for termination of his contract.

6. The provisions of this section shall not apply to students from foreign countries who are enrolled in public or private high schools in Missouri, if such students are foreign exchange students sponsored by a national organization recognized by the department of elementary and secondary education."

Senator Clay moved that the above amendment be adopted.

Senator Ehlmann offered SA 1 to SA 1, which was read:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO
SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Amendment No. 1 to Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 163, Page 1, Section 170.011, Line 15, by adding after the word "America", the following: "including the role of the Democratic Party in maintaining Jim Crow laws in the American South".

Senator Ehlmann moved that the above amendment be adopted, which motion prevailed.

SA 1, as amended, was again taken up.

Senator Clay moved that the above amendment be adopted, which motion prevailed.

Senator Jacob offered SA 2:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 2

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 163, Page 1, Section 170.015, Lines 4-16 of said page, by striking all of said lines; and

Further amend said bill and section, page 2, lines 1-16 of said page, by striking all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"170.015. 1. Course material and instruction for all courses that discuss human sexuality in public elementary and secondary schools shall be medically and factually accurate and should enhance student's understanding of sexuality as a normal and healthy aspect of human development. Such courses should be appropriate for the age of the students and incorporate the following guidelines:

(1) Be comprehensive;

(2) As an integral part of the health education curriculum, include information about responsible sexual behaviors and hygienic practices that eliminate or reduce the risks of pregnancy, exposure to human immunodeficiency virus, hepatitis and other infectious or sexually transmitted diseases;

(3) Promote abstinence for school age youth and mutually monogamous relationships with an uninfected partner for adults as the safest, most responsible sexual behavior. Abstinence should be stressed but should not be taught to the exclusion of other material and instruction on contraceptive and disease reduction measures;

(4) Include a discussion of the possible emotional, physical and psychological consequences of pre-adolescent and adolescent sexual intercourse and the emotional, physical and psychological consequences of unintended pregnancy. Students should be provided with the latest medically factual information regarding both the possible side effects and health benefits of all forms of contraception, including the success and failure rates for the prevention of pregnancy;

(5) Stress that sexually transmitted diseases are serious possible hazards of sexual contact. Students should be provided with the latest medically accurate information regarding the efficacy of contraceptives in preventing the spread of sexually transmitted diseases, including human immunodeficiency virus;

(6) Advise students of the laws pertaining to their financial responsibility for their children;

(7) Advise students of the circumstances in which it is unlawful, pursuant to sections 566.032 and 566.034, RSMo, for any person to have sexual relations with persons less than seventeen years of age to whom they are not married;" and further amend line 17 of said page, by striking "(6)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(8)"; and

Further amend said bill and section, page 3, line 2 of said page, by striking the semicolon ";" and inserting in lieu thereof a period "."; and further amend lines 3-7 of said page, by striking all of said lines.

Senator Jacob moved that the above amendment be adopted.

President Wilson assumed the Chair.

Senator Johnson assumed the Chair.

Senator Maxwell assumed the Chair.

Senator Ehlmann offered SA 1 to SA 2, which was read:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO
SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 2

Amend Senate Amendment No. 2 to Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 163, Page 2, Section 170.015, Line 1, by adding after the word "monogamous", the word: "heterosexual".

Senator Ehlmann moved that the above amendment be adopted.

At the request of Senator Ehlmann, SA 1 to SA 2 was withdrawn.

At the request of Senator House, SB 163, with SS and SA 2 (pending), was placed on the Informal Calendar.

President Pro Tem Quick assumed the Chair.
