FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials with the Department of Corrections, Department of Public Safety, and Department of Transportation assume this proposal would have no fiscal impact on their agencies.

Officials with the Department of Revenue (DOR) indicated that proposal could have fiscal impact on their agency. Such costs as assumed by DOR would be for notifying the field of procedural changes. They estimate these costs for FY05 to total $530. Oversight assumes that such procedural changes could be communicated over the course of regular communications with field offices and the costs could be absorbed by existing or planned appropriations.

DESCRIPTION

This legislation authorizes every peace officer who has probable cause to believe and has knowledge of a motor vehicle or other licensed equipment that the number of which has been tampered with, to immediately seize and take possession of the vehicle or equipment. The law enforcement authority having seized it shall retain custody. If the person arrested for the related offense is found guilty, custody of the seized vehicle or equipment will be transferred to the court until the fine and costs of prosecution are paid.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
