DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation would lengthen the statute of limitation on civil claims for damages caused by sexual abuse suffered as a child. Under current law, a claim must be brought within three years from the date the victim should have discovered the injury or illness or within five years of the victim's eighteenth birthday, whichever occurs later. The proposal would require a claim to be commenced within 10 years of the victim's twenty-first birthday or within three years of the date of discovering that the injury or illness was caused by childhood sexual abuse, whichever occurs later.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
