Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note for these agencies.

Officials from the Office of the Governor state this section of the proposal requires the Governor to annually issue a proclamation setting apart December 6th as Emancipation Day. There should be no added cost to the Governor's Office as a result of this measure.

Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note.

Officials from the Department of Commerce and Insurance and the Department of Higher Education and Workforce Development defer to the Office of Administration for the potential fiscal impact of this proposal.

Rule Promulgation

Officials from the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules assume this proposal is not anticipated to cause a fiscal impact beyond its current appropriation.

Officials from the Office of the Secretary of State notes many bills considered by the General Assembly include provisions allowing or requiring agencies to submit rules and regulations to implement the act. The Secretary of State's office is provided with core funding to handle a certain amount of normal activity resulting from each year's legislative session. The fiscal impact for this fiscal note to Secretary of State's office for Administrative Rules is less than $5,000. The Secretary of State's office recognizes that this is a small amount and does not expect that additional funding would be required to meet these costs. However, they also recognize that many such bills may be passed by the General Assembly in a given year and that collectively the costs may be in excess of what our office can sustain with our core budget. Therefore, they reserve the right to request funding for the cost of supporting administrative rules requirements should the need arise based on a review of the finally approved bills signed by the governor.

Officials from the High Point R-III School District assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note.

Oversight only reflects the responses that we have received from state agencies and political subdivisions; however, other schools were requested to respond to this proposed legislation but did not. A general listing of political subdivisions included in our database is available upon request.
