FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

§442.920 – Missouri Residential Sale Leaseback Protection Act

Oversight assumes this provision creates the “Missouri Residential Sale Leaseback Protection” act which regulates sale leasebacks. In any sale leaseback transaction, a buyer is required to provide the seller with certain disclosures, described in detail in the act, alerting the seller of the nature of the transaction and advising them of certain actions they may wish to take. Oversight notes any violation of this section may have a civil action brought to seek damages. Oversight assumes this will have a minimal fiscal impact and will not present an impact for fiscal note purposes.

§§443.920 - 443.925 - Uniform Mortgage Modification Act

Oversight assumes this act establishes new procedures with respect to modifications of mortgages. Oversight assumes no fiscal impact from this act.

Responses regarding the proposed legislation as a whole

Officials from the Office of Attorney General (AGO) assume any potential litigation costs arising from this proposal can be absorbed with existing resources. The AGO may seek additional appropriations if the proposal results in a significant increase in litigation or investigation costs.

Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight assumes the AGO will be able to perform any additional duties required by this proposal with current staff and resources and will reflect no fiscal impact to the AGO for fiscal note purposes.

Officials from the Department of Commerce and Insurance, Department of Economic Development, Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Office of the State Courts Administrator, State Tax Commission and the City of Kansas City each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note for these agencies.

Oversight only reflects the responses that we have received from state agencies and political subdivisions; however, other cities, counties, county assessors and county recorders were requested to respond to this proposed legislation but did not. Upon the receipt of additional responses, Oversight will review to determine if an updated fiscal note should be prepared and seek the necessary approval to publish a new fiscal note. A general listing of political subdivisions included in our database is available upon request.

FISCAL IMPACT – Small Business

Modifying mortgage procedures could have a direct fiscal impact on banking businesses as a result of this proposal. (§§443.920 - 443.925)

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation appears to have no direct fiscal impact.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
